Zoë Taleporos, Public Art Program Associate

OVERVIEW

A Request for Qualifications was issued July 26, 2013 – November 4, 2014 for professional, practicing artists working in painting, drawing, photography, collage, and other two-dimensional media and who reside in the United States. The Arts Commission received 516 submissions.

PROCESS

The Panel reviewed the portfolio of each applicant and scored them 1, 2, or 3 based on the following criteria:

1=poor, 2=average, 3=excellent

- The artist's resume reflected evidence of professional competence. Qualifying activities would include some combination of the following: education and training as an artist, an exhibition record in museums, commercial art galleries, and/or non-profit art spaces, previous public or private commissions, participation in artist-in-residency programs, or other related activities indicative of a professional practice.
- The artwork submitted reflected artistic excellence, and basic professional quality of craftsmanship, mastery of skills and techniques, professional approaches to processes and presentation, and/or communication of a unique vision or perspective.
- The artwork was deemed appropriate for a public setting.

Since there were 3 panelists voting, the highest score an artist could receive was 9. A medium score was 6, and a low score was 3. If an artist scored between 6 - 9, then they were considered to be in a competitive range, and were included in the 2013/14 Two-Dimensional Artwork Registry.
