

SFAC Galleries

June 2016 VAC

In November, 2016 the SFAC Galleries will bridge a dialogue between the veterans and arts communities with a multimedia exhibition about the individuals that support active US soldiers and veterans. Exhibition curators Jason Hanasik and Meg Shiffler have narrowed in on two significant support systems highlighted in the show: immediate families and fellow soldiers/veterans.

Veterans Initiative Grant from the California Arts Council

Three summer 2016 public programs in partnership with:

- Combat Paper
- Warrior Writers
- Echo Theater Suitcase
- Veteran Artists
- American Legion
- Justseeds Artist Cooperative
- Iraq Veterans Against the War
- + veteran artists (performers, fine artists, writers)

Curated by veteran artist Stephen Funk

Artists in the Exhibition

- 14 artists
 - 7 local artists and 7 national artists
 - 9 women and 5 men
 - 4 + veteran artists
 - 4 children of veterans
 - 1 wife of an active-duty soldier
 - 1 embedded photographer
- Works
 - 5 newly commissioned works/installations
 - Media - drawing, photography, audio, books, virtual reality, sculpture, prints

First Person – About Family

Rodney Ewing

Michael Hall

Hi ya son,

Well a few more great ideas for and us doing some like playing hookie plan on being in

Jessica Hines

Julie McCarthy

Third Person – About Family

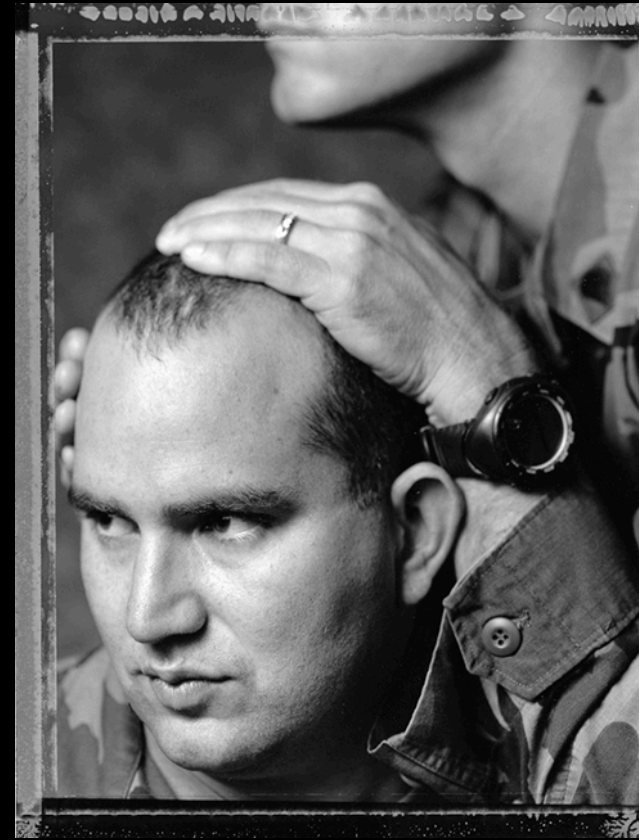

Althea Thauberger

Amanda Lucier

Suzanne Opton

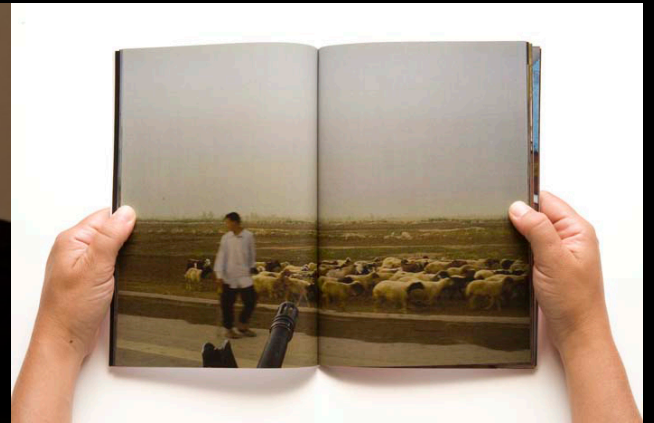

Telling Veteran's Stories

Amber Hoy

Monica Haller

Jan F. Boren	Objects for Displayment
Anna B. Heraschewitz	Objects for Displayment
David H. H. H. H.	Objects for Displayment
David H. H. H. H.	Objects for Displayment
Jan Turner	Objects for Displayment
Patrick Shuler	Objects for Displayment
Charles Wolf	Objects for Displayment
Julia L. L.	Objects for Displayment
William L.	Objects for Displayment

Jason Hanasik

Jennifer Karady

Ehren Toole

Whitney Lynn

Veterans and Artists Working Together

Aaron Hughes/ Exquisite Corpse Project

Justseeds Artist Cooperative & Iraq Veterans Against the War

