Hi Jill,

Thanks for letting us know. This is terrific! Beautiful and whimsical. Certainly supportive of the exhibition. Let us know how we can be of further support.

Regards,

Luis

Actually I met Mr. Johnson Wang, who is the chairman of the Swing Skirts Golf Foundation, and his staff when they were last in SF for the tournament business. It was a dinner hosted for Mayor Ed Lee. Mr. Wang is passionate about art and eager to seek connection between sports and art. He gave me a book of the artist Hung Yi, whose work is indeed whimsical and interesting. I had been waiting for him to contact me. But the Arts Commission will be more appropriate a partner. If you are interested, we could explore the possibility of co-hosting an artist talk or similar event at the museum, though I am no sure about the availability on our event schedule. I am copying this email to several more of my staff for their information and looking into it.

Dana and Jill

Both John Noguchi and I have been working at the request of the Mayor assisting the Swinging Skirts organization on their tournament and Gala at City Hall. The Mayor has been a supporter of the placement of the artwork on the plaza as long as we work out an agreement with the Art Commission and the Recreation and Park.

If you have any question please give me a call.
