Newcomers Health Program & Cross Bay Collaborative Against Human Trafficking

Human Trafficking: Identification & Response in a Health Care Setting - Training

Event Date/Time: Thursday, January 5, 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Event Location: Carr Auditorium, SF General Hospital, 1001 Potrero Ave, San Francisco, 94110

Event Description:

Human trafficking is the fastest growing crime in the world and affects both international and U.S. citizens. A startling 43% of human trafficking cases in California are occurring in the Bay Area. Because 28% of identified victims saw a health or social service provider at least once during their trafficking ordeal, health professionals have the unique opportunity to identify and help victims. It is hoped that with increased awareness, more victims will be identified and linked to recovery services.

The theme for the contest was From Bystander to Upstander: Taking Action Against Abuse. The dynamics around human trafficking are the same as those for bullying: there is a victim and a perpetrator and a sea of bystanders who need to be activated to address the perpetrator, which we call going "from bystander to upstander."
