Commissioner Nassiri, seconded by Commissioner Andam, moved to approve the minutes. There was no public comment. The motion was approved by acclamation.

4. Public Comment on Items not on Agenda (Discussion Only)

A student from CCSF and SFSU were in attendance to observe.

Commissioner Mao called a recess at 4:18pm to wait for incoming youth interested in the training. The meeting was called back into session at 4:38pm.

5. Business (All Items to Follow Discussion and Possible Action)

A. Introduction and Role of New Intern

Former Commissioner and Chair of Civic Engagement Committee is now a YouthWorks Intern with the SFYC. He will be helping with the voter pre-registration project and other duties/projects assigned to him. Josh introduced himself.

B. Youth Voter Pre-Registration Training

Commissioners led 14 youth in a voter pre-registration training as a way to help implement the existing BLING grant the Committee received from the Youth Leadership Institute.

6. Staff Report

Staff utilized this time to do a debrief of the training.

Commissioner thoughts:

- Could have been more prepared for those that are just doing it for extra credit
- Don't think it's bad to get extra credit, and others don't think someone should get extra credit AND stipends.
- We don't know how they would then talk about the voter registration and what they are saying if they aren't doing it with some sort of actual interest behind the cause
- Outreach could have been better focused on government classes or government oriented community organizations
- we should have emailed YC applicants who were not picked for this year's term
- Reach out to those YC applicants for a 'phase 2', will wait two weeks to see how it shakes out with current cohort of trainers. If any drop off, we can reopen up training opportunity to YC applicants.
- Put a cap on transportation of 1 hour
- Give stipends at next scheduled meetings (Dec 6 and Jan 3)

7. Executive Committee Report

Same as Monday at full YC.

8. Civic Engagement and Immigration Committee Report to Full Commission (Discussion and Possible Action)

Conna summarized what happened and will report back at our next full YC meeting.

9. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 6:52pm.
