Wednesday May 17th is for an evening of ideas, conversation, and agitation to tell the City of San Francisco what it can do to build the social justice leadership of young ages 14-24. The Children & Youth Fund, passed by SF voters in 2014, provides for over $80 million in services for children and youth in San Francisco each year. 3% of that fund is dedicated to youth-led projects and initiatives and we are asking youth to tell us about how the City can invest in young people's leadership and empowerment.

All CEC members must attend this event. Commissioners David, Park, and Ng would like to help out with behind the scenes work.
