2017 APPLICATION FOR YOUTH SEATS 2 AND 7 ON THE CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND FAMILIES OVERSIGHT AND ADVISORY COMMITTEE (OAC)

What is the OAC?

The Children Youth and Families Oversight and Advisory Committee (OAC) is an 11 member council created following the passage of Proposition C in November 2014. Proposition C approved the extension of the city's Children's Fund (now Children and Youth Fund) and Public Education Enrichment Fund (PEEF) for 25 years.

The Children's Fund was established in 1991 and sets aside a portion of the city's property tax to provide services for young people in San Francisco, mostly through the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families (DCYF). DCYF's main priority areas are in early care & education; out of school time; youth leadership, empowerment & development; family support; and violence prevention and intervention.

The Oversight and Advisory Committee includes three seats for youth members: Two members age 19 or under, and one seat for a transitional age youth age 18-24.

Members of the OAC are responsible for:

- Reviewing the budget, governance, and policies of DCYF
- Monitoring and participating in the administration of the Children and Youth Fund
- Taking steps to ensure that the Children and Youth Fund is administered in a manner accountable to the community

In short, members of the OAC make sure that the Children and Youth fund is put to the purpose that voters intended—providing the children and youth of San Francisco with high quality services and programs; and that the community has a say in decision-making about how the fund will be used.

“What is the time commitment? Is the position paid?”

The role will require a regular commitment of 5 hours a month, with extra time needed during some months. This includes:

- OAC meetings take place at least 6 times a year, but usually monthly, in the evening
- You will receive support and training from Youth Commission staff via monthly check-ins to prepare for upcoming meetings and OAC business
- Two daytime weekend retreats with youth commissioners to connect and build skills with other youth leaders in city government. Orientation retreat will be held Saturday and Sunday September 2nd-3rd 2017.

- There will be an opportunity to participate in the DCYF Youth Advisory Board (YAB) meetings, with other young people who help advise DCYF. There would be a $500 stipend for your participation in the Youth Advisory Board.
- The term for the seat is three years. If you are interested but have questions or concerns about the length of the term, please ask!

Who is eligible to join the OAC?

1. Must live in the City and County of San Francisco
2. Seat 2 must be a youth 19 years old or younger at the time of appointment.

Seat 7 must be a transitional age youth 18 through 24 years of age who is familiar with challenges faced by disconnected transitional-age youth, including those who are: homeless; have dropped out of high school; disabled; familiar with substance abuse issues; low-income parents; undocumented; new immigrant and/or English Learners; LGBTQQ; transitioning from foster care; or involved in the juvenile justice, criminal justice, or special education systems.

3. Must possess a social security number

A strong candidate will possess:

- Knowledge of and direct experience with after-school, summer, and youth-focused programs in San Francisco
- Interest in making systems and organizations work well and a desire to see that youth are being served well by the Children's Fund
- A passion for youth-inclusion in decision making
- Awareness of, and connection to, the diverse experiences of youth in San Francisco
