

Roger Erickson

June 3 – September 11, 2015

City Hall ground floor

North Light Court banners

JC Decaux kiosk posters

Bio...

Erickson attended college at San Francisco State University, and after graduation he pursued fine art photography. In 1990 he was hired by a British Music Magazine to photograph Neil Young and Crazy Horse in Malibu, California. Since then, he has become an internationally recognized music, fashion and celebrity photographer. His work has appeared on numerous covers including Vogue, Entertainment Weekly, Q Magazine, The Source Magazine, The Advocate and Out Magazine. He has lived in San Francisco, London and Los Angeles, but now calls New York home.

SFAC Galleries is organizing the first exhibition of his LGBT portraits...

Chris Colfer

Greg Louganis

Wanda Sykes

Kodak 400TMY

ROGER ERICKSON

Drag
Royalty,
Athletes,
Chris Evans,
Catherine
Opie

SF City Hall Exhibition

- 40 - 50 Roger Erickson prints of existing work shot in LA, New York and Miami.
- 10 – 15 newly commissioned portraits of SF-based LGBT movers and shakers.
 - The SF images will be featured on the North Light Court banners and JC Decaux kiosk posters

Rachel Maddow