

After World War II the street names changed to appeal to a new wave of immigrants. Excelsior used to be China, Avalon used to be Japan, and Peru used to be India . . .
 —Ramana Rao, Excelsior resident

The highest part of the park looks out over a neighborhood of immigrants

