Public Art Program
FY 12/13

Completed:
Market St. Poster Series (3 poster series)
Completed Public Art Installations: 8
Number of Active Public Art Projects: 65
Value of New Public Art Contracts & Modifications: $4.7 million

Art on Market Poster Series

Celebrating Bay Area Arts (1 of 6)
Paul Madonna
June – October, 2012

A scene from San Francisco's Chinatown paired with a quote from novelist, Amy Tan.

"I think books were my salvation. They saved me from being miserable."

TRANSFORM : REVEAL : CHALLENGE : EXPAND : INSPIRE : IMAGINE

Julie Chang

October 2012 – January 2013

This City on Film

Christina Empedocles

January 2013 – April 2013

Ron Saunders: Bayview Library (courtyard)
Spirit and Nature Dancing Together

Ron Saunders
Bayview Library
Children's Reading Area
Symbiotic Relationships

Primativo Suarez-Wolfe: Domestic Seating Church and Duboce

Moto Ohtake:
Aero #8
Fulton Playground

Johanna Poethig: Celebrate Ability
Hamilton Pool and Recreation Center

endure-ability

lef-ability

response-ability

enjoy-ability

Nobuho Nagasawa:
Ship Shape Shifting Time
Islais Creek

Peter Richards & Susan Schwartzenberg:

Philosopher's Walk

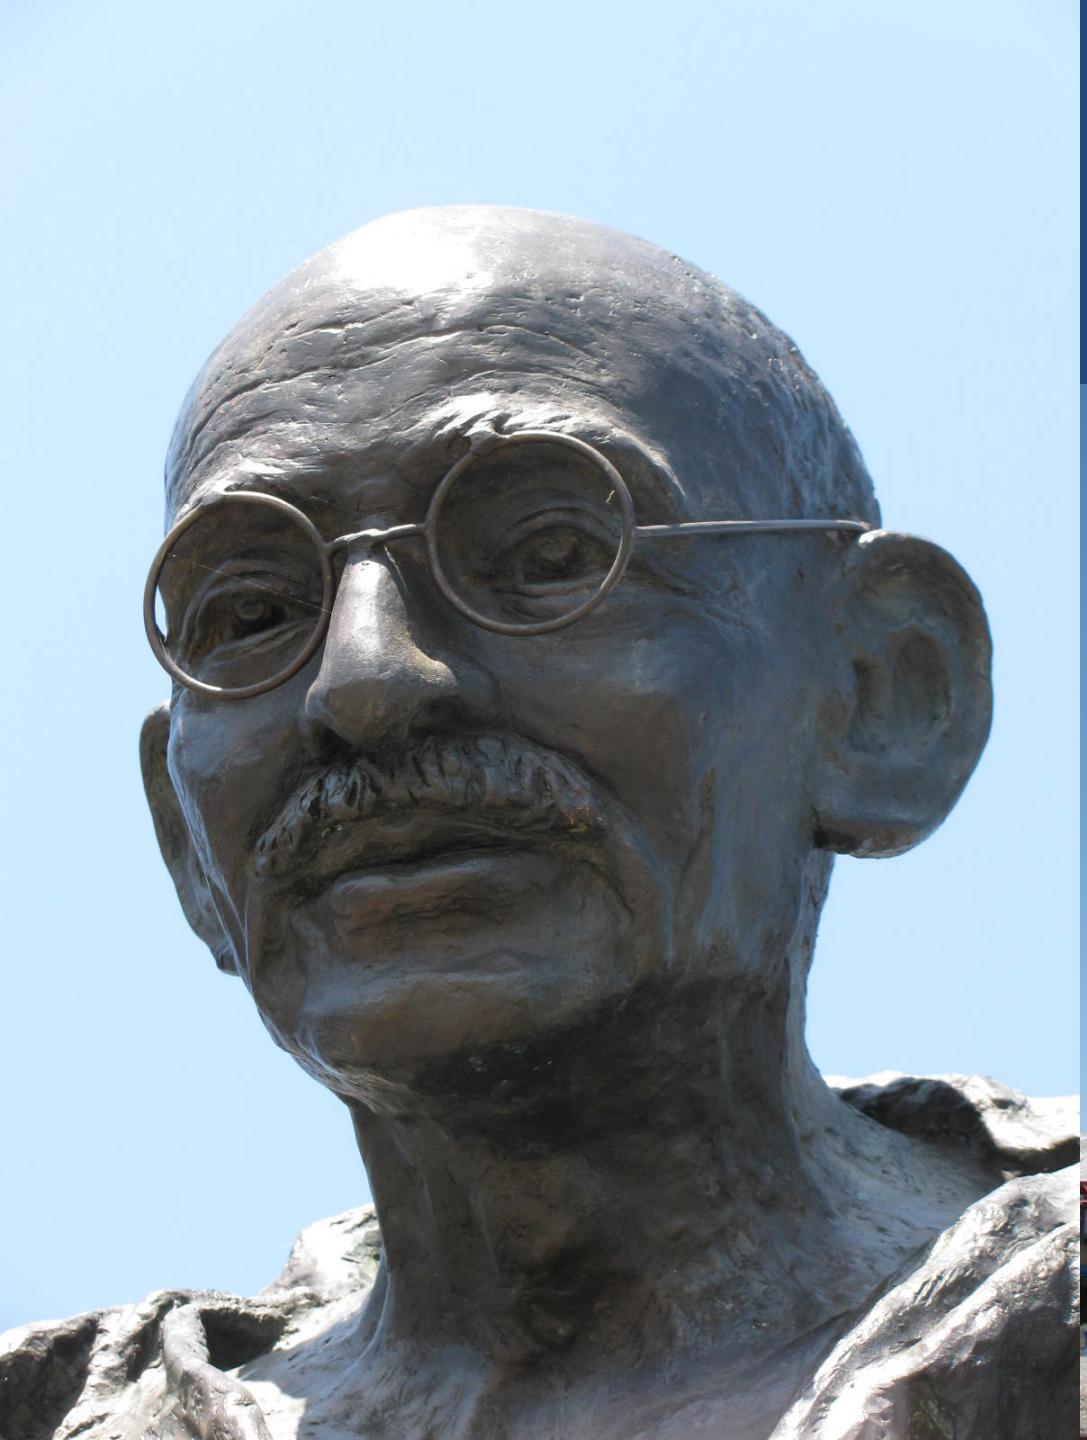
McLaren Park

Brian Tedrick:
Pacific Breath
Sunset Playground

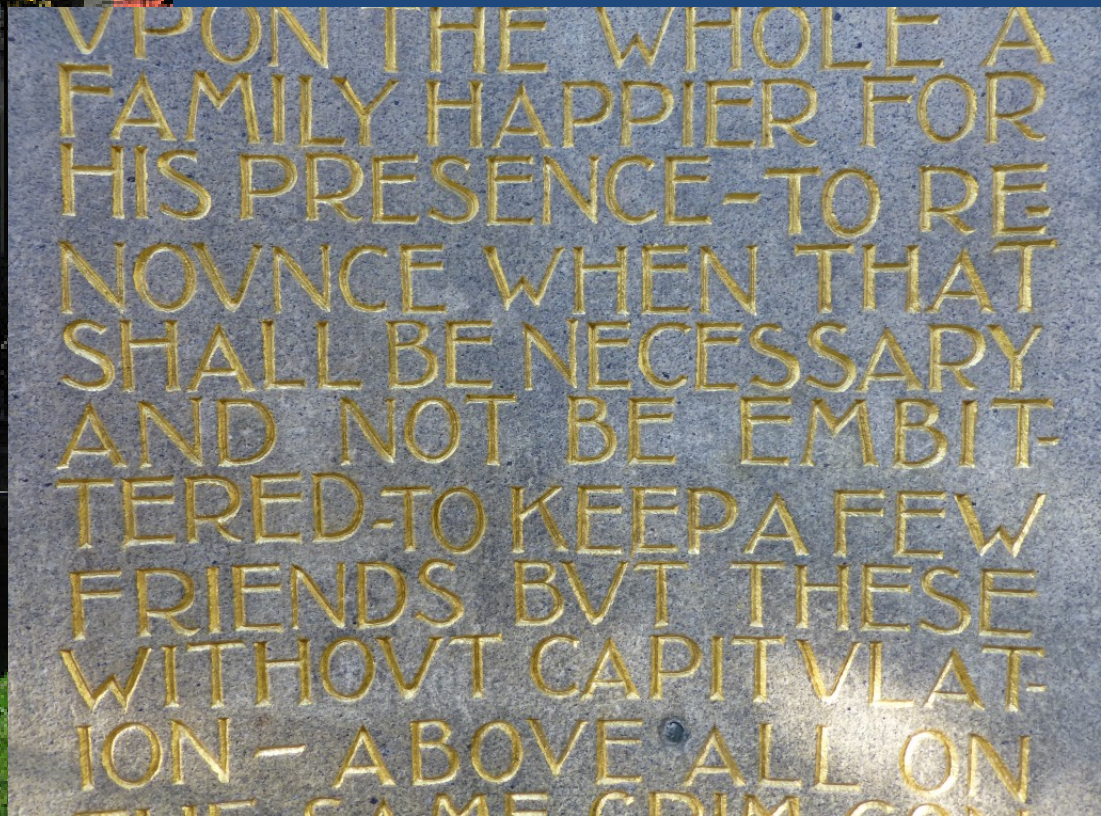
Civic Art Collection
FY 12/13

Number of minor conservation treatments and graffiti abatements:
30

Mohandas Gandhi gets his glasses and staff back.

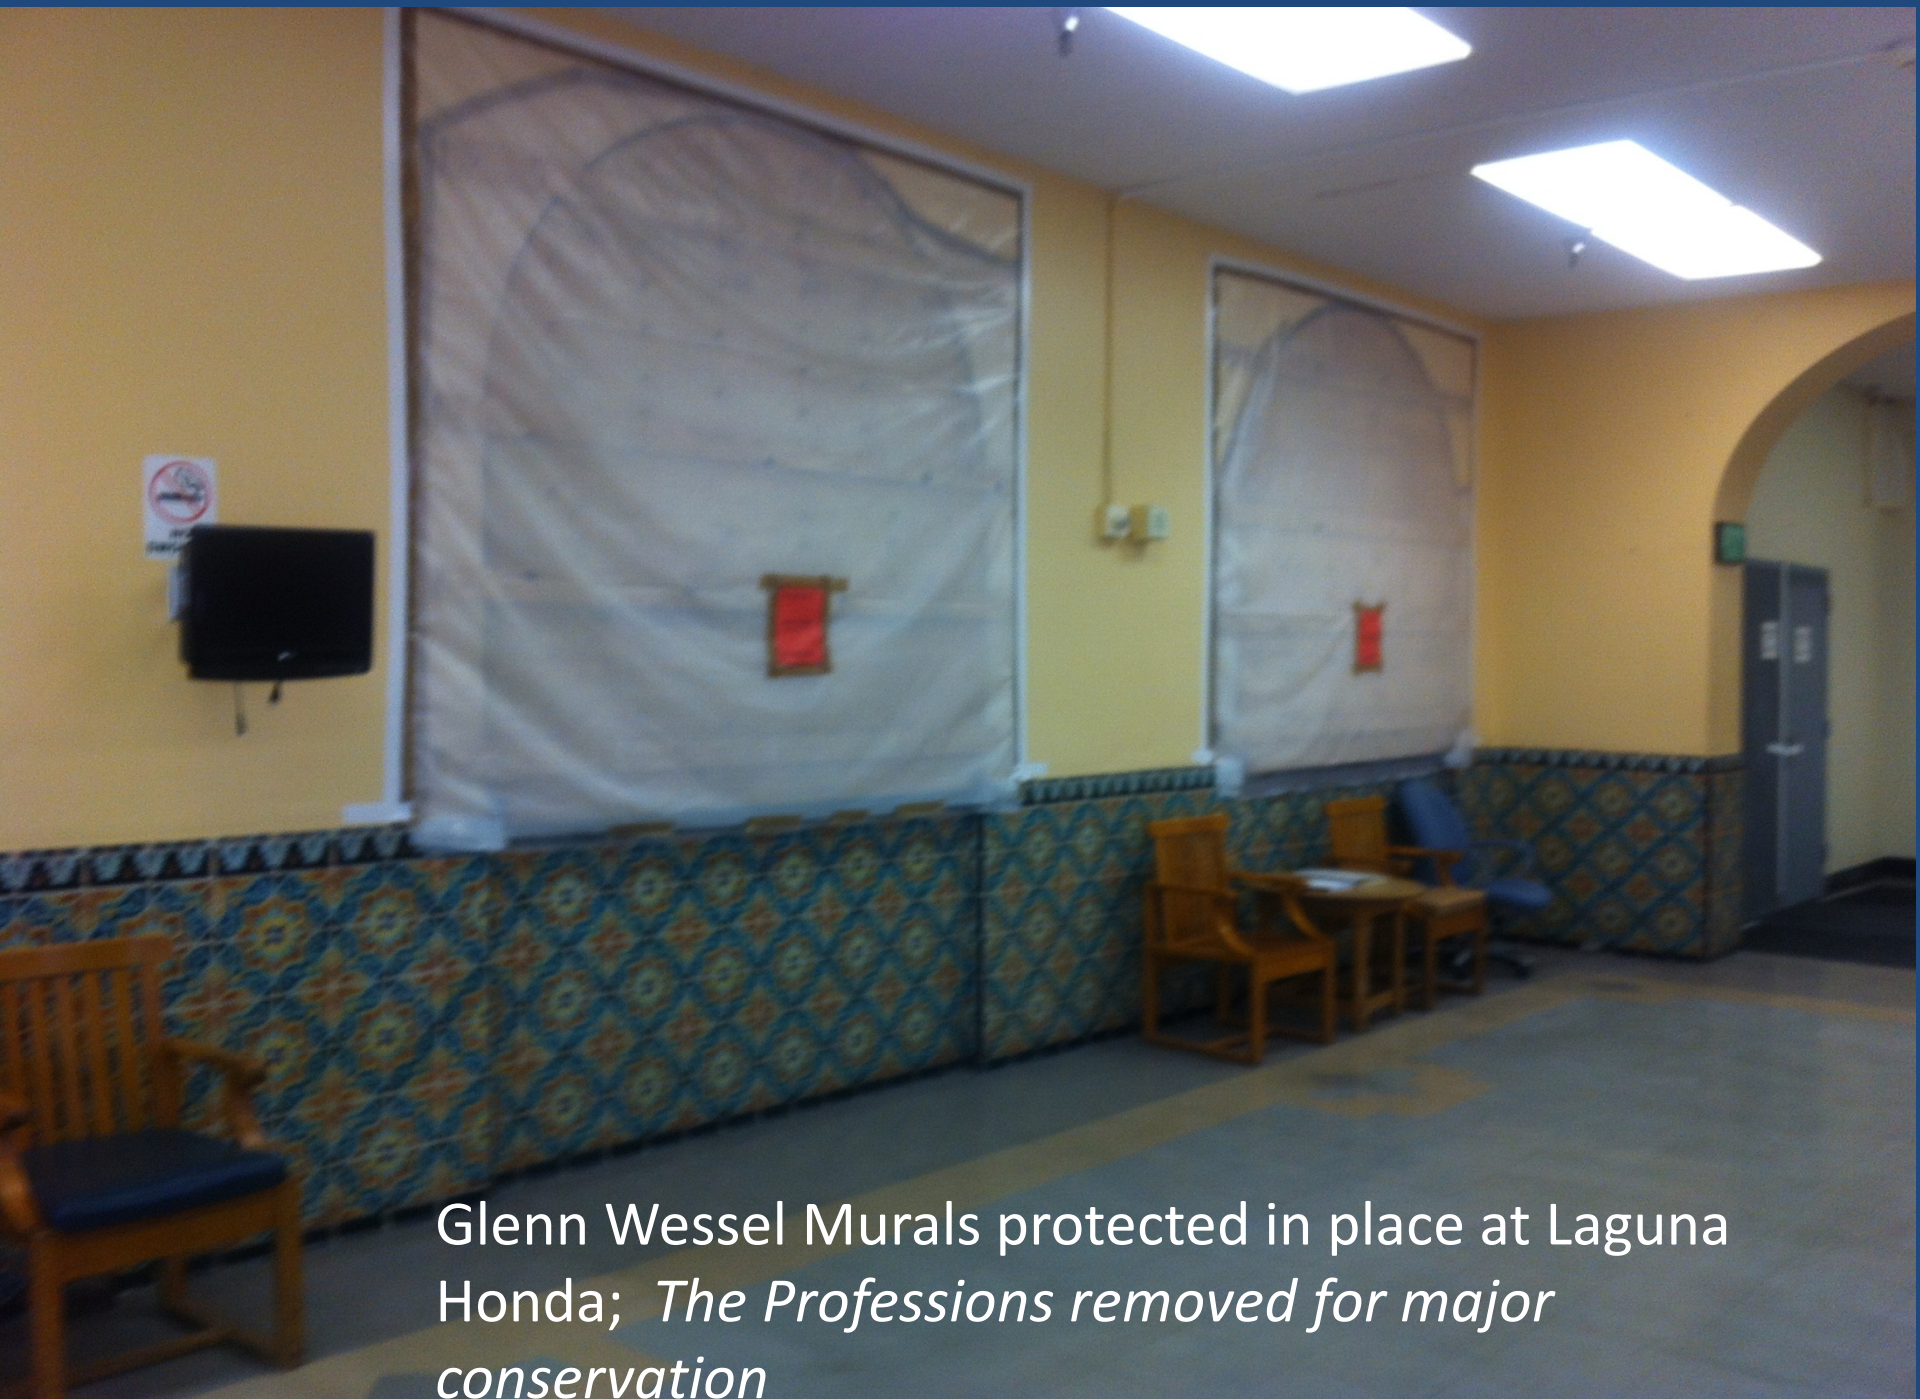


Robert Louis Stevenson Monument is cleaned and re-gilded.



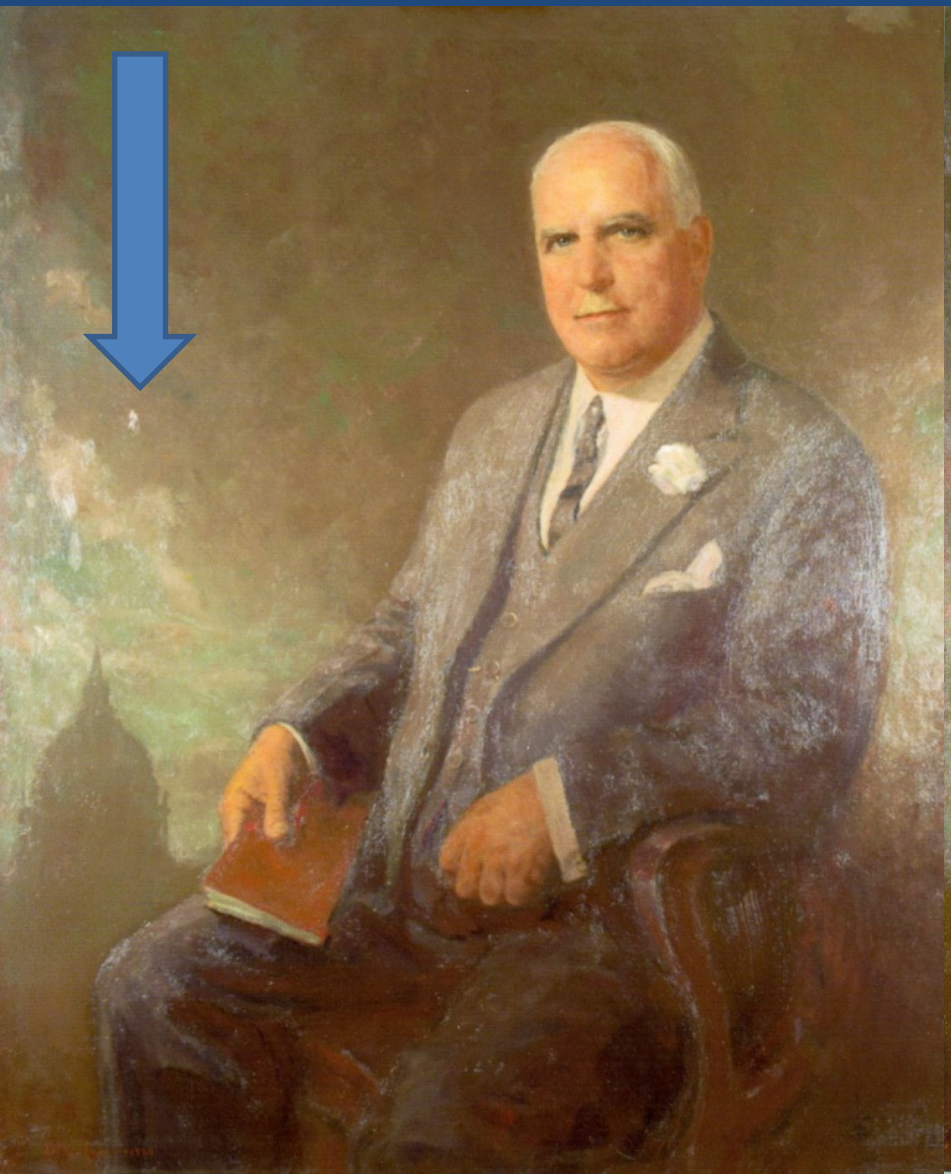
Dan Rice Paintings at Moscone Garage are cleaned, reframed, and re-installed.

Beniamino Bufano's Peace and Bruce Hasson's The Ark are removed for protection during construction.



Glenn Wessel Murals protected in place at Laguna Honda; The Professions removed for major conservation

Damaged portrait of Mayor Rolph repaired and re-installed in Mayor's Office



McKinley Monument is the poster child for the program's response to graffiti and vandalism.