

Golbanou Moghaddas

Veterans Building Café

January 25 – March 30, 2019

- Iranian Narrative Visual Artist based in San Francisco, California.
- Moved from Tehran to London in 2008 where she completed an MA in Communication Design at Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design.
- Winner of the Best of British Illustration 2011 and the illustrator of The Book of Barely Imagined Beings published by Granta Publication, UK.
- MFA, San Francisco Art Institute
- Worked with Master Printer Paul Mallowney.
- Murphy and Cadogan Contemporary Art Award in 2013, Manhattan Graphics Center Scholarship 2016, and Kala Art Institute Fellowship 2017-18.
- Exhibited at the Museum of London, Kensington Palace and Bankside Gallery in the UK, as well as SOMarts Cultural Center, Skylight Gallery of San Francisco Public Library, Kala Art Institute, Richmond Art Center, San Francisco Center for the Books, Arc Gallery, and The Peninsula Museum of Art in the USA. She's currently a Fellowship Artist at Kala Art Institute in Berkeley, California.

