4. New Business and Announcements.

Discussion.

Committee member GRANT shared information about an exhibit of MS. GRANT and her students at the Fairfax Library through the middle of March.

5. Committee discussion on matters relating to Advisory Committee and Street Artists Program.

Discussion. Director Lazar shared with the committee the interpersonal conflicts at Justin Herman Plaza; with regards to the need for a market manager.

Further, Director Lazar presented the committee with the opportunity to manage the Justin Herman plaza lottery, and any attendant conflicts which may arise. said duties would occur on sat/sun.

suggested hours would be 8am to 5pm.

Committee member Thompson suggests that the lottery itself be managed by existing artists; with committee managers on board at 8 A.M.

Committee member Tibbon queried Director Lazar about the possibility of assigning the monies earmarked for a Fifth Committee member, to be reassigned to a market manager, other than a committee member.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 1200 hrs.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Tibbon

Committee Member

→ Committee member Grant queried Director Lazar about any new protocol w/ regards to changes in the st. Artist program. Director Lazar outlined possible rule changes to be brought to the voters. Assistant Ventre outlined possible changes to the program process.
