

Bayview Opera House

Theater Tech Program
CAEG presentation 9.11.18

Allegra Madsen, Program Director
Daid Saenz, Facilities & Production Manager
Zarahia Perdomo, Assistant Production Manager

Thank You!

Bothin Foundation
Fleishhacker Foundation
Morris Stulsaft Foundation
Joseph & Vera Long Foundation
Google.org

Theater Tech Internship

- Accepted 5 college-aged students in the BvOH Tech Internship.
- We offered hands-on training and college credit.
- 4 students completed the program.
- All 4 were offered career advancement opportunities and continued learning.

Theater Mentorship

- This program, aimed at high-school students, offered the opportunity to develop, perform and produce 2 performance pieces.
- 15 Bayview High School Students participated and 12 completed the 12 week course.
- The Tech Interns were employed as mentors and teaching assistants.
- Students worked directly with professional artists and dancers.

Theater Mentorship Productions

Codelining with Raissa Simpson and The PUSH Dance Company

We Inventing the Real with Deavron

Key Takeaways

- Providing the opportunity for Interns to be mentors was invaluable and helped cement their knowledge.
- Soft skills and exposure to professional work environments are key when working with high school aged youth.
- Several participants of the mentorship program are still working with the Opera House.

Where Are They Now?

- Meet Zarahira Perdomo, BvOH Assistant Production Manager.
- Meet Hyakub Herring NYU Graduate School for Music and Production.
- All - employment opportunities in the field in the Bay Area

What's Next

- We are currently recruiting college students for the Fall session of the Theater Tech Internship.
- Students can receive college credit, hands-on experience and employment opportunities.

Thank You!!

We couldn't do it without our Theater Tech Program Funders:
San Francisco Arts Council
Grants for the Arts
California Arts Council
Private Donations