

San Francisco Arts Commission Grants

Guidelines now available for 2019-20

In 2018, the San Francisco Arts Commission will grant approximately $3 million to support:

- individual artists
- literary teaching artists
- social justice arts partnerships
- youth arts partnerships
- organization projects
- capacity building
- facilities improvements & planning

Who can apply?

Grants are for San Francisco-based artists & small-to-mid-sized arts & community nonprofits. Individual artists can apply for projects in visual, media, and literary arts. Projects must take place between July 1, 2019 and June 30, 2020 or June 30, 2021 (for facilities and capacity-building grants only).

When can I apply?

Applications open September 4 through November 2018 at sf.culturegrants.org. See the reverse for specific deadlines.

How can I learn more?

Visit sfartscommission.org/grants for category descriptions, guidelines & application instructions.

Attend a workshop or one-on-one session in September or October. Native American Arts & Cultural Traditions applicants should attend the session for the category they are interested in. View the schedule on the back or at sfartscommission.org/calendar.
