

Arts Projects at the COVID Command Center

November 2020

Artists in Residence at the CCC

Four regional artists - two photographers and two comic artists
3-month residencies (5 hours a week) $4500 each

Each resident will choose a story to tell about the City's COVID prevention, response and recovery operation. The resulting graphic narratives and photography portfolios will be entered into the COVID archive at the SFPL.

S. Renee Jones

Mabel Jimenez

Ajuan Mance

Bo Rittapa

Artist Designed Face Masks

Four target communities:

American Indian, Pilipinx, Black/African American and Chinese

Two artists from each community

One design each $700 honorarium

2500 of each mask = 20,000 masks

Artists:

Kimberley Acebo Arteche

Cheryl Derricotte

Nancy Hom

Crystal Lui

Lydia Ortiz

Ron Moultrie Saunders

Kim Shuck

+ TBD

Lydia Ortiz

Clarion Alley Mural Project

1 Artist + 1 SFAC Grantee

Commission of a new mural that will remain for two years. The messaging will focus on the Latinx community working together to prevent COVID and heal together.

Upcoming City-funded Community Projects that Engage Artists and Intersect with CCC

- K-Rail murals in the Tenderloin
- Artist-designed masks for the Latinx community
- Children's art masks distributed by the faith community
- Bayview mask and photo project
- YBCA managing a grant:
 - 30+ new murals on boarded up storefronts by Paint the Void
 - Artists as Community Health Ambassadors in shared spaces and events