

ACO-ING

What we do; a brief run-down

OUR MAIN OBJECTIVE IS TO HELP THE PEOPLE AND ANIMALS IN OUR COMMUNITY

Helping people:

- ▶ Owner surrenders
- ▶ Wildlife conflict
- ▶ Neighbor disputes
- ▶ Custody impounds
- ▶ Humane education

Helping animals:

- ▶ Cruelty and welfare investigations and enforcement
- ▶ Stray animals
- ▶ Sick or injured animals
- ▶ Rescues
- ▶ Wildlife co-existence and humane education

WE SEE A FAIR AMOUNT OF HORRIBLE THINGS BUT THE HAPPY ENDINGS MAKE IT ALL WORTHWHILE

Bart baby was seized from his owner with a strangulation wound on his snout and a very badly broken leg

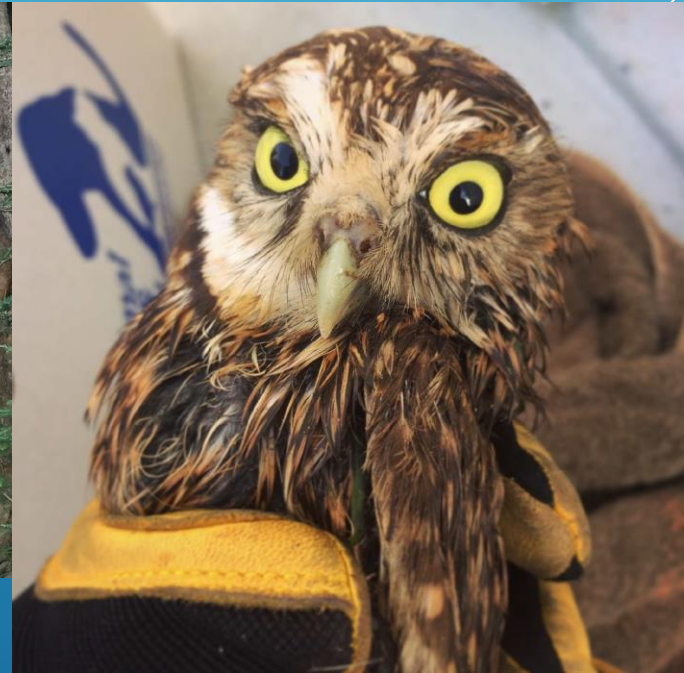

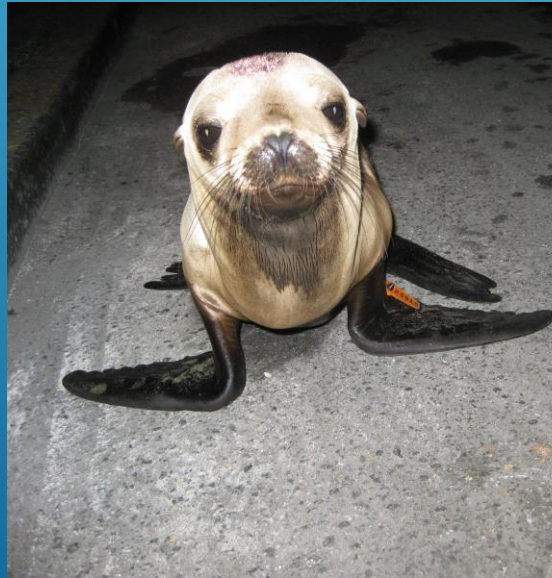

HE WENT OVER TO THE SPCA WHERE THEY DEBRIDED HIS SNOUT WOUND AND AMPUTATED HIS LEG. HE NOW LIVES AN INCREDIBLE LIFE IN BERNAL AND IS NAMED OLIVER

WE ARE LUCKY ENOUGH TO MEET ALL KINDS OF GREAT WILDLIFE

Rescues...

What was in the wall ?????

A pigeon!

What's in the fridge?

A (cold) finch!

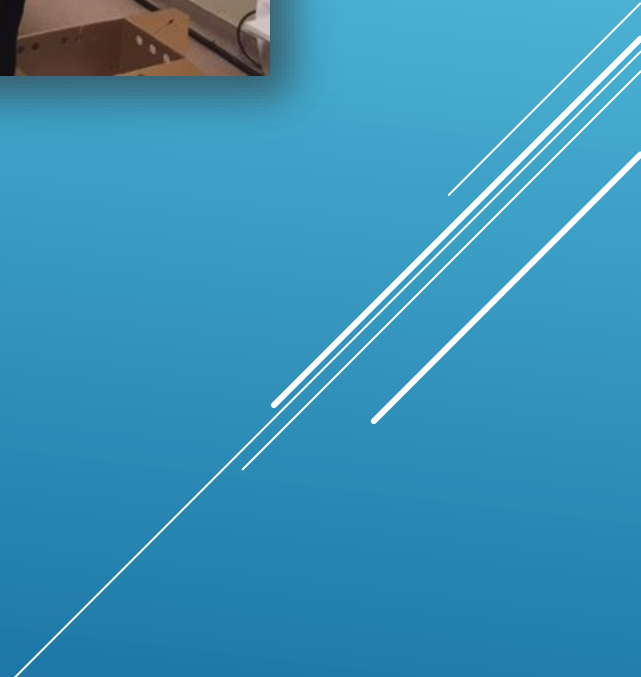

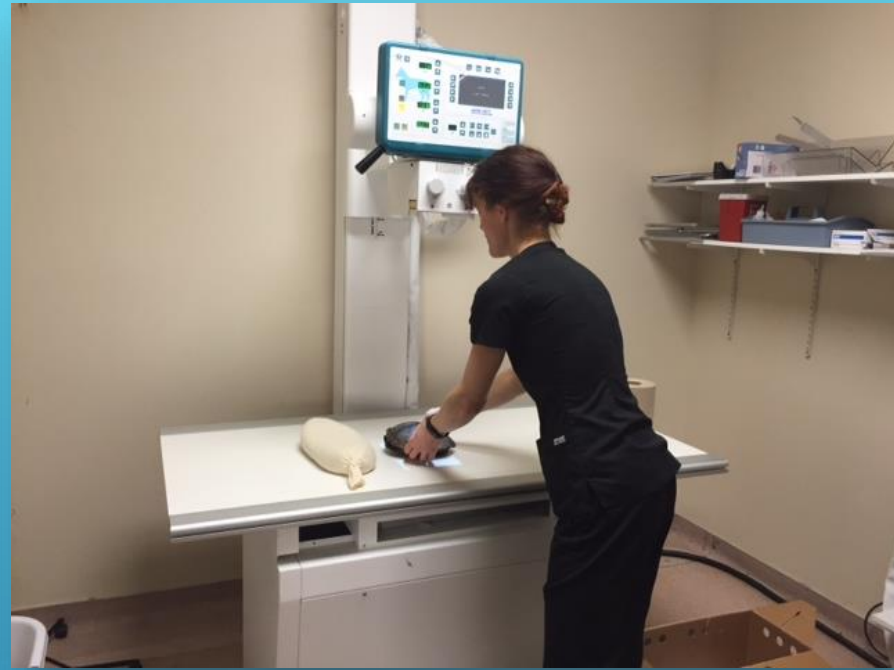

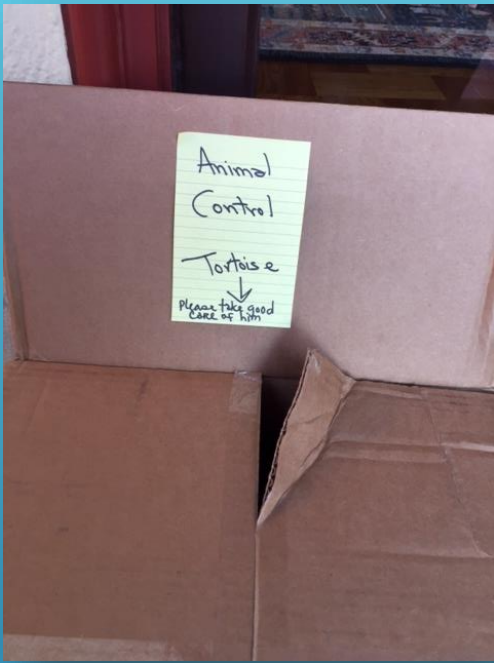

WE GET A LOT OF FUN RESCUES, SOME TAKE MORE THINKING THAN OTHERS, THIS IS MY FAVORITE SKUNK RESCUE VIDEO

Coyotes...Everyone wants to know why we can't relocate them...

WE DON'T SEE HOARDERS VERY OFTEN,
BUT WHEN WE DO, THEY ARE SPECTACULAR

WE TAKE A LOT OF PICTURES AND VIDEO FOR EVIDENTIARY PURPOSES. AS YOU CAN SEE, A VIDEO IS GOLDEN WHEN IT COMES TO PROVING A POINT IN A CRIMINAL CASE.

WARNING: Graphic Video

Cruelty cases are difficult, but can be rewarding. The process is more complicated than you would think.

Aniki – now named Yuuki. His new name means ‘courage, bravery and boldness’.

SOME CASES APPEAR TO BE CLEAR ACTS OF CRUELTY OR NEGLECT BUT NOT ALL IS AS IT SEEMS...
