As a standard practice, we advise applicants of their appeal rights in our job announcement. The standard language is as follows:

“Applicants must be guided solely by the provisions of this announcement, including requirements, time periods and other particulars, except when superseded by federal, state or local laws, rules or regulations. Clerical errors may be corrected by the posting the correction on the Department of Human Resources website at www.jobaps.com/sf.

The terms of this announcement may be appealed under Civil Service Rule 411A.36.1. The standard for the review of such appeals is ‘abuse of discretion’ or ‘no rational basis’ for establishing the position description, the minimum qualifications and/or the certification rule. Appeals must include a written statement of the item(s) being contested and the specific reason(s) why the cited item(s) constitute(s) abuse of discretion by the Human Resources

Director. Appeals must be submitted directly to the Executive Officer of the Civil Service Commission within five business days of the announcement issuance date. Information concerning other Civil Service Commission Rules involving announcements, applications and examination policies, including applicant appeal rights, can be found on the Civil Service Commission website at <http://sfgov.org/civilservice/rules>.”

In addition, we further advise our applicants of their appeal rights in our non-qualifying letter with the following standard language:

“Civil Service Commission Rules for the city and County of San Francisco specify announcement, application and examination policies and procedures, including applicant appeal rights. Information can be found on the Civil Service Commission website at <http://sfgov.org/civilservice/rules>. Copies of specific rules can also be obtained at 1 South Van Ness, 4th floor, San Francisco, CA 94103.”
