TIMELINE

1911: Equal Suffrage was passed in California, allowing women to vote.<sup>19</sup> California is one of 16 states where women had the right to vote before the 19th Amendment.<sup>20</sup>

1920: The 19th Amendment to the US Constitution went into effect, eliminating sex as a basis to deny voting rights.<sup>21</sup> However many women of color experienced disenfranchisement until the Voting Rights Act of 1965.<sup>22</sup>

1921: Margaret Mary Morgan becomes the first woman on the San Francisco Board of Supervisors.<sup>23</sup> 32 years pass before the next woman, Clarissa McMahon, is appointed to the Board of Supervisors.<sup>24</sup>

1923: Mae Ella Nolan becomes California's first woman in the US House of Representatives.<sup>25</sup> California was not represented by a woman in the US Senate until 1992.<sup>26</sup>

1978: Dianne Feinstein beomes San Francisco's first female Mayor. She previously served as the first woman president of the Board of Supervisors.<sup>27</sup>

1993: California is the first state to be represented simultaneously by two women in Senate, with the election of Senators Barbara Boxer and Dianne Feinstein, both from San Francisco.<sup>28</sup>

2007: San Francisco US Representative Nancy Pelosi becomes the first woman to serve as Speaker of the House.<sup>29</sup>

2018: London N. Breed becomes the first woman of color to serve as Mayor of San Francisco, the City's second woman and second black mayor.<sup>30</sup>
