Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2013 First Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2013 first quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 147 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 174 complaints this first quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in seven complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is a 4% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases, which is a 7% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

The OCC began continued training one new 8124 (journey level) investigator during the first quarter. During this period, 13 journey level investigators staffed the OCC because two investigators began extended leaves of absence. Also during the first quarter, Chief Investigator, Charles Gallman retired after twenty-four years of service. Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar assumed the Chief Investigator position in acting status.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. In February, the SFPD Director of Technology, Sue Giffin, informed the investigators about SFPD's technology initiatives including the implementation of a search engine, the Crime Data Warehouse.

C. Budget

After consideration by the San Francisco Police Commission, the OCC submitted its proposed budget to the Mayor's Office during the first quarter on February 21, 2013. The Mayor's Office's 2013/2014 and 2014/2015 budget instructions directed City departments to prepare a two year budget for 2013/2014 and 2014/2015 with a 1.5% reduction of general fund support for each budget year. For these reductions, the OCC's targets were $39, 308 for 2013/2014 and $39, 308 for 2014/2015.

The OCC's fiscal year 2012/2013 baseline budget of $4,602,850.00 included $4,114,464.00 in personnel costs. Personnel costs comprised 89% of the OCC's budget. The personnel costs funded 34.75 positions. The remainder of the OCC's budget, $488,386, was for operations. Of this operations amount, the OCC paid $307,132 or 63% to the City to rent the OCC's office at 25 Van Ness Avenue.

To meet the 1.5% budget reduction target of $39, 308 in both 2013/2014 and 2014/2015, for a total of $78,616, the OCC proposed to eliminate a vacant investigator (8124) position. This would reduce journey level investigators to 16. The salary plus fringe benefits of an 8124 journey level investigator position is $124,135. The OCC proposed to use the savings to help fund the purchase of two hybrid vehicles as both of its two cars are 14 years old and pursuant to City policy, were required to be retired by 2015.

The Mayor's proposed budget was scheduled for release to the Board of Supervisors on May 31, 2013 for consideration and final adoption by July 31, 2013.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2013 first quarter, the OCC opened 151 new cases, and closed 174 cases. During this period, the OCC closed 27 more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 284 pending cases, which are 81 less pending cases than the close of the first quarter in 2012. By the end of the 2013 first quarter, there were 119 pending cases from 2013, 161 pending cases from 2012 and 4 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

A 25% decrease in complaints filed the first quarter of 2013 versus the first quarter of 2012 resulted in a lower average caseload, 20 cases per investigator versus 23 cases per investigator. The average number of days to close cases was reduced by 13% from 187 to 162. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days. During first quarter of 2013, OCC investigators closed 174 cases with 85% of them closing within 270 days and only two of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This is an improvement over 2012 where of the 200 cases closed, 73% of them were closed within nine months.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases declined in the first quarter of 2013, compared to the first quarter of 2012; a 4% sustained rate in 2013 and a 6.5% sustained rate in 2012. In the first quarter of 2013, the OCC sustained allegations in seven cases. The number of days to close sustained cases decreased for the first quarter of 2013 compared to the first quarter of 2012 by 7%. In the first quarter of 2013, 57% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after its receipt. In the first quarter of 2012, 46% of sustained cases were completed within nine months and no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after receipt.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations¹ 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the first quarter of 2013, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in six of the seven sustained complaints, or 86% of them. Two of these six complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations, or one third of them, were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Sustained complaints for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 29% of all sustained complaints the first quarter.

Dr. Lorie Fridell in her 2007 study on Fair and Impartial Policing in San Francisco discusses the importance of accurate data collection should a department determine that it will collect traffic stop data.² The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

¹ In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the first quarter of 2012 was 23 cases.

² Lorie Fridell, PhD, (March 2007) Fair and Impartial Policing: Recommendations for the City and the Police Department of San Francisco, p. 73.

Additional allegations sustained include:

1. Conduct reflecting discredit and discourtesy for using profane language and punishing the complainant by making him sit down and return to the end of the line.
2. Neglect of duty for:
 - a. Failure to advise Dispatch of a traffic stop.
 - b. Failure to promptly and courteously advise the complainant of the officer's name and star number in violation of Department General Order 2.01
 - c. Failure to prepare an incident report in violation of Department General Order 2.01.
 - d. Failure to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing and releasing the complainant in violation of Department General Order 5.03.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. During the first quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated four OCC sustained cases as follows:³

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of the San Francisco Police Department Field Training Manual, March 2010 edition, while conducting a traffic stop, the officer failed to notify Dispatch. The officer was admonished.
- Neglect of Duty – in violation of Department Bulletin 11-097, San Francisco Police Department traffic stop data collection policy, while conducting a traffic stop of a bicyclist for running a red light, the officer failed to collect traffic stop data. Chief Suhr disagreed with the OCC's sustained finding and instead found a Policy Failure because SFPD's stop data collection policy specifically refers to vehicles, not bicycles. This case demonstrates the constraints of SFPD's traffic stop data collection policy since it can be narrowly interpreted to apply only to vehicles. Other jurisdictions have broader stop data collection requirements that apply to all stops, not just traffic stops. The officer was not disciplined, as the finding was Policy Failure.

- Neglect of Duty – in violation of San Francisco Police Department traffic stop data collection policy, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data when conducting a traffic stop. The officer was admonished.
- Neglect of Duty – in violation of Department General Order number 2.01, paragraph 14, Public Courtesy, an officer failed to promptly and politely provide his name and star number upon the complainant's request. The officer instead told the complainant the complainant could find the information on the citation. The officer was admonished.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

During the first quarter, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remain open pending action by federal authorities

B. Officer Involved Shootings

Five officer-involved shootings were under investigation during the first quarter. Four of these shootings resulted in the death of the suspect. The OCC received one of these complaints in the first quarter of 2013. Two others were filed in 2012 and two were filed in 2011.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE 'KEANE' REPORT

By the end of the 2013 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2012 cases and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2012 cases pending. These statistics are identical to the end of the 2012 first quarter, when staff also completed intake on all its 2011 cases, and had closed 75% of them, leaving 25% of the 2011 cases pending.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigator caseload as of March 31, 2013 shows a slight decrease from the same period in 2012. This decrease is attributable to a 25% decrease in the number of cases filed first quarter 2013 compared to first quarter 2012. The number of journey level investigators, 13 at the close of the first quarter in 2013 would have contributed to an increased caseload in the first quarter of 2013 had the number of cases filed been greater. The average caseload as of March 31, 2013 was 20 cases per investigator. As of March 31, 2012, the average caseload was 23 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC's Legal Unit. Ines Vargas Fraenkel leads the Legal Unit. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC's mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VIII and IX of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC's policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section X. Ms. Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC's two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality.

The OCC's trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this first quarter, the Legal Unit presented one hearing at the Chief's Hearing level. One of the cases involved an appeal of discipline that had been argued and determined at the Chief's Hearing level. The matter was concluded when the officer decided to withdraw his appeal.

In the other case, the Legal Unit handled a Case Management Conference as well as a Settlement Conference. A resolution was reached during the Settlement Conference pending Police Commission approval. The OCC recommend that the Commission approve a settlement of the imposition of 15-days suspension on the officer, as well as transfer from his current assignment. The proposed settlement was presented to the Police Commission in Closed Session for consideration by the Commission during the second quarter.

Two Police Commission cases were in the Legal Unit's inventory first quarter.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the first quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted seven sustained reports, each of which involved one or more allegations against one or more officers.

VIII. MEDIATION

During the first quarter of 2013, the OCC mediated twelve cases compared to thirteen cases in the first quarter of 2012, which is a slight mediation rate increase, 6.8% over 2012 first quarter, which was 6.5%.

In early March, the Mediation and Outreach Coordinator attended the Alternative Dispute Resolution of Northern California conference. At the conference, the OCC Mediation Coordinator was presented with the President's Award for excellence and outstanding contributions to mediation and community building. In February, the Mediation Coordinator addressed a class at Community Boards mediation training.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the first quarter of 2013, the OCC was engaged in several outreach activities. On January 30, 2013, Director Joyce Hicks presented the OCC's 2013 Community Outreach Strategic plan to the Police Commission. In January and February, Director Hicks and Staff Attorneys Marion and Fortes attended community meetings addressing the proposed use of Tasers in the Taraval, Northern, and Bayview Districts. Director Hicks made presentations about the OCC's services during Police Commission community meetings held in the Northern District in February and the Mission District in March.

During the first quarter, Director Hicks also attended a community meeting convened by the BART Independent Police Auditor. The Director, who sits on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE), attended a mid-winter meeting to finalize scheduling the 2013 Conference to be held in Salt Lake City, Utah from September 22 through September 26, 2013.

Staff Attorney Samara Marion addressed the Domestic Violence Consortium in January and Acting Deputy Director Baltazar and Acting Senior Investigator Hall addressed recruits at the San Francisco Police Academy in March. During this quarter, the OCC staffed informational tables at one Operation Homeless Connect event and the Family Summer Resource Fair hosted by the City's Department of Children, Youth, and Families.

Additionally, OCC staff provided brochures and complaint forms to the Ella Hill Hutch Community Center, the African American Cultural Center, the Buchanan YMCA, Richmond, Young Community Developers as well as the Richmond, Ingleside, Taraval, Northern and Park District Police Stations.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Attorney and policy analyst Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. During the first quarter 2013, the OCC continued to advance its policy projects in the areas of language access, use of force, and vehicle pursuits.

The OCC commenced the new year by continuing its work on language access projects that address concerns that domestic violence victims raised during the Police Commission's hearings on December 7, 2011 and February 1, 2012. During both hearings, advocates for domestic violence victims talked about instances in which language barriers compromised the accuracy of incident reports and the quality of police assistance. To enhance report taking at the district stations, the OCC assisted in the drafting of a multi-lingual informational card for Police Service Aides (PSA) to use with Limited English Proficient (LEP) crime victims. This card explains that Police Service Aides are not authorized to take certain types of reports and informs LEP individuals that their report will be taken as soon as an officer and language assistance are available. As recommended by the OCC, the Department announced the purpose and distribution of these informational cards in a Department Bulletin and began language access training for PSAs. The OCC also continued its work on several other language access projects including a language access roll call training video, a communications system that identifies in real time the availability of bilingual officers to respond to calls, and increased certification opportunities for bilingual officers and civilians.

The OCC also worked on completing two other policy priorities: use of force incidents involving complaints of pain and vehicle pursuits. In 2011, the OCC recommended that the Department's use of force reporting and investigation procedures include incidents when an individual complains of pain that persists beyond the officer's original physical control hold. The OCC had investigated complaints in which the officers' use of force resulted in pain but not a visible injury (i.e. the complainant's fractured wrist or injured shoulder was not visible to the naked eye though the individuals complained of pain to the officers at the time.) Yearlong discussions have culminated in the Department's recently proposed Department Bulletin that, once issued, will resolve the OCC's policy recommendation.

Last, the OCC reviewed and concurred with the Department's March 2013 proposed revisions to the Department's 1997 pursuit policy. Since 2007, the OCC has discussed and suggested revisions to the Department's pursuit policy that are consistent with best practices and would enhance both officer and public safety.

XI. CONCLUSION

As in the past five years, the OCC faces budget and staffing constraints in the upcoming year that could result in additional case resolution delays, however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
