Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2010 Second Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2010 second quarter. The OCC received 474 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 435 complaints this second quarter. It sustained 37 complaints against San Francisco Police officers.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

The OCC experienced a continued period of organizational contraction during the second quarter of 2010. As was highlighted in the first quarter 2010 report, one journey level investigator (8124) retired and another announced his resignation, effective April 9, 2010, reducing the number of filled 8124 positions to 15. Additionally, one 8124 investigator was on an extended three month leave through May and another 8124 investigator began an indefinite unplanned leave. The first quarter of 2010 began with 17 journey-level investigators but by the end of the second quarter, the OCC had only 14 journey level investigators to each handle an average of five new cases a month.

During the second quarter, OCC investigators and attorneys attended a day-long POST certified training on conducting interviews. The investigators and attorneys also attended training conducted by Deputy Chief Murphy on Police Department operations at the Municipal Transit Authority.

Mayor Gavin Newsom submitted his budget to the Board of Supervisors during the second quarter. While the budget did not delete any of the OCC's positions, the two vacant investigator positions will likely remain unfilled due to inadequate funding in OCC's salary budget.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

As of the end of the 2010 second quarter, the OCC opened 474 new cases, and closed 435 cases. The adjusted total of opened cases was 449. The adjusted total excludes cases that were voided or merged. During this quarter, the OCC closed 39 fewer cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 420 pending cases which are 28 more pending cases than the close of the second quarter in 2009. By the end of the 2010 second quarter there were 107 pending cases from 2009 and 313 pending cases from 2010.

Despite a reduced investigative staff during the second quarter, the investigative team continued to demonstrate its commitment to the OCC's mission of investigating civilian complaints of police misconduct or neglect of duty promptly, fairly and impartially. Of the 212 cases closed in the second quarter, 81% of them were closed within nine months and less than 1% of them (1 case) took more than a year to close. The case that took more than one year to close had no sustainable allegations. While in the second quarter of 2009, 84% of the 266 closed cases were closed within nine months, in the second quarter of 2010, the investigators sustained 50% more cases, requiring additional time on those cases.

The rate of sustained cases increased in the second quarter of 2010. During this quarter of 2010, ten percent of closed cases were sustained; which is higher than the OCC's historical average of nine percent and higher than the four percent of cases sustained at the end of the second quarter of 2009. In the second quarter of 2010 the OCC sustained 21 cases compared to 14 cases in the second quarter of 2009. The number of days to close sustained cases significantly increased for the second quarter of 2010 compared to the second quarter of 2009. In the second quarter of 2010 only 34% of sustained cases were completed within nine months but no sustained cases were completed more than 365 days after receipt, while during the same period in 2009, 57% of the sustained cases were completed within nine months. As with the first quarter of 2010, this decrease in prompt completion of sustained cases is attributable to three factors: 1) increased number of sustained cases, 2) decreasing number of investigators and 3) active trial calendars, including cases dating back to 2003 and 2004, for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

In the second quarter of 2010, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 13 of the 21 complaints with sustained allegations. Six complaints, or 29% of them, had sustained allegations for failure to collect traffic stop data. Two complaints had sustained allegations for failure to prepare an incident report when the complainants had been assaulted. Neglect of duty sustained allegations also included failure to provide seat belted transportation for a complainant whom the officer had separated from the complainant's wheelchair.

Allegations in five complaints were sustained for conduct reflecting discredit on the department. Of those five complaints with sustained allegations for conduct reflecting discredit, two complaints involved sergeants who used profane language, a profane hand gesture or both. Another conduct reflecting discredit sustained allegation involved an officer who told the complainant and her son to speak English not Spanish. In that same complaint, a neglect of duty allegation was sustained against the officer for violating DGO 5.20 regarding language access and the officer's sergeant was sustained for failure to supervise when the sergeant reviewed and approved the incident report which failed to comply with DGO 5.20.

IV. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE ‘KEANE’ REPORT

By the end of the 2010 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all 2009 cases, and by the end of the 2010 second quarter had closed 89% of the 2009 cases, leaving 11% of the 2009 cases pending. In comparison, by the end of the 2009 first quarter, staff had also completed intake on all 2008 cases, and had closed 93% of the 2008 cases, leaving 7% of the 2008 cases pending. As with the first quarter of 2010, during the second quarter of 2010 there was some slippage in the number of pending cases from the previous year, but is understandable in light of the increased number of sustained cases and the time devoted to complete them.

V. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigator caseload as of June 30, 2010, shows significant increase over the same period in 2009. This increase is attributable to greater time needed by investigators and attorneys to process sustained cases. The average caseload as of June 30, 2010, was 26 cases per investigator. As of June 30, 2009, the average caseload was 22 cases. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VI. MEDIATION

At the beginning of 2010, the OCC Mediation Coordinator, Donna Salazar, was on an unexpected medical leave for seven weeks. OCC staff attempted to maintain the program during this period, but unfortunately was unable to conduct any mediations. The Mediation Coordinator returned to work in late February. In the second quarter 12 mediations were conducted compared to 23 in 2009. As of June 30, 2010, 17 mediations were conducted compared to 39 by June 30, 2009.

During the first half of 2010 a total of 100 officers were considered for mediation. Of those officers, 18, or 18% were ineligible. Of the remaining officers who were offered mediation, only one, or 1% declined to mediate. Of 81 citizens offered mediation, 19 or 23% declined to mediate.

In June, the Mediation Coordinator addressed a class at Community Boards mediation training. The mediation program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VII. OUTREACH

During the first half of 2010, the OCC engaged in the following activities: OCC staff gave "Know Your Rights" presentations to two groups of people at the Excelsior Family Center, as well as to the staff of the Community Assessment and Referral Center. Additionally, the OCC staff made presentations to two groups of senior citizens at Excelsior Family Connections, the Taft Family Center, San Francisco State University, and Police Commission meetings held in the Western Addition, Eureka Valley, Taraval district, and the Portola district. OCC personnel also addressed one class at the Police Academy and made a presentation to the City of Richmond Police Commission about our Mediation Program.

OCC staffed information booths at Operation Homeless Connect downtown and in the Bayview district, the Family Resource Fair, the Sheriff's Department Resource Fair, and the Touchdown Fair in Treasure Island. The OCC met with representatives of the Indonesian Legal Aid Foundation, the Australian Crime and Misconduct Commission, and a Guggenheim fellow from Harvard Law School.

Brochures and complaint forms were provided to all nine police stations, SFPD Legal, the Bernal Heights Neighborhood Center, the Mission Community Center, Community Boards, Lyric Youth Services, Community United Against Violence, the Larkin Youth Center, the Transgender Law Center, the Excelsior Senior/Youth Center, La Raza Centro Legal, Arriba Juntos, the Asian Law Caucus, Chinese for Affirmative Action, the Instituto Laboral de la Raza, ACCESS, the Mayor's Office of Neighborhood Services, three law libraries, the Ella Hill Hutch Community Center, the African Resource Center, the Public Defender's Office, the District Attorney's Office, the Human Rights Commission, and the Bayview Family Center.

In April, Director Hicks wrote an article about the NAACP's rapid response reporting system for police misconduct in the spring 2010 NACOLE Review. The NAACP's rapid response reporting system has been renamed the All Alert system. OCC representatives attended the Mission Neighborhood Center's 50th Anniversary Gala and an event sponsored by the Alameda County Bar Association. The Mediation Coordinator attended two Community Boards trainings, several Mediation Week events and the Alternative Dispute Resolution of Northern California Conference.

Evaluations returned after OCC presentations indicate that 100% of the representatives of those organizations felt that the presentation met their expectations, that the presenters were knowledgeable about their subject matter, and felt that the materials distributed were substantive. Every evaluator stated they would ask OCC to return and would recommend it to others.

VIII. POLICY ANALYSIS

During the second quarter of 2010 policy analyst Samara Marion continued her work with the Police Department and community organizations to advance the OCC's twenty-two outstanding recommendations on officer-involved shootings, juvenile policing practices and language access services.

As a participant in the Police Department's officer-involved shooting study¹, the OCC recommended that the Police Department restrict its shooting at vehicle policy. The OCC recommended mandatory restrictions similar to those adopted by police departments in major cities such as New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, and Boston. Consistent with best practices, the OCC also recommended that the new policy explain the inherent dangers and ineffectiveness of shooting at moving vehicles. On June 3, 2010, Department Bulletin 10-156 informed officers of the Police Department's prohibition on shooting at moving vehicles except under extreme circumstances. By working with the Police Department to restrict this high risk use of deadly force, the OCC continued its vital role in enhancing police-community relations while ensuring effective police services.

The OCC also advanced significant aspects of its juvenile policing recommendations during this quarter. With OCC's assistance, newly released Department Bulletin 10-130 explains changes in the Police Department's juvenile policing protocols that include the audio taping of juvenile interrogations and informing juveniles that their parents can be present during custodial questioning. To enhance police relations with youth and their families, the OCC and several juvenile justice groups have written an informative "Know Your Rights Guide for Youth in San Francisco" that the Police Department has agreed to issue. Through the OCC's outreach efforts, more than two dozen city organizations, agencies, commissions, and departments have reviewed and endorsed this Youth Guide. The OCC is assisting in the translation of the Youth Guide into Spanish, Chinese, Tagalog, Russian and Vietnamese. Additionally, the OCC has developed an officer's quick reference guide to Department General Order 7.01 that is near completion. In the upcoming quarter, the OCC will continue to meet regularly with the Police Department and juvenile justice groups to implement academy and roll call training on police interactions with youth.

The OCC's efforts to advance its language access recommendations have been impeded by a series of personnel changes within the Police Department. Nonetheless, the OCC has developed roll-call training on using interpreters during domestic violence calls and will continue working with the Police Academy to finalize this training.

Lastly, during this second quarter, the OCC worked closely with the Police Department to revise Department General Order 3.01 to ensure consistency between Department General Orders adopted by the Police Commission and Department Bulletins, Bureau and Unit orders issued by the Police Department. The Police Commission adopted these revisions on June 23, 2010.

IX. CONCLUSION

The OCC faces reduced staffing in the upcoming year due to two vacant investigator positions which likely cannot be filled for budgetary reasons. This could result in case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission of promptly, fairly and impartially investigating citizen complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
