Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2012 Third Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Enclosed is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2012 third quarter. This quarter the OCC received an adjusted total of 186 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 203 complaints this third quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 13 complaints against San Francisco Police officers which is a 6% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 12 cases which is also a 6% mediation rate.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS

A. Staffing

During this period, the OCC was staffed with 15 journey level investigators. We initiated a hiring process to fill two journey level investigator vacancies.

B. Training

The OCC continued implementing its strategic plan for training its employees. San Francisco Police Lt. Carl Fabbri and representatives from the Violence Reduction Team conducted training on their work. Staff also viewed a screening of the documentary film, After Innocence, which documents the lives of "exonerated - innocent men wrongfully imprisoned for decades and then released after DNA evidence proved their innocence."

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

As of the end of the 2012 third quarter, the OCC opened 581 new cases with an adjusted total of 557 new cases, and closed 629 cases. During this period, the OCC closed 48 more cases than it opened. The OCC closed the quarter with 316 pending cases which are 114 less pending cases than the close of the third quarter in 2011. By the end of the 2012 third quarter there were 15 pending cases from 2011 and 301 pending cases from 2012.

In comparison, as of the end of the 2011 third quarter, the OCC opened 622 cases with an adjusted total of 594 new cases and closed 618 cases. During this period, the OCC closed four fewer cases than it opened. The OCC closed the third quarter of 2011 with 440 pending cases and by the end of the 2011 third quarter there were 19 pending cases from 2010 and 411 pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

As with the second quarter of 2012, the third quarter 2012 case closure statistics showed the advantages of having more investigators; lower caseloads and more timely closures. During third quarter 2012, the OCC was staffed with 14 fully trained investigators and one who had just completed probation. The average caseload was 21 cases. However, during the second quarter of 2012, the OCC had 15 investigators and the average caseload was 19 cases per investigators. During the third quarter of 2011, the OCC had 12 investigators with an average caseload of 35 cases.

OCC investigators closed 203 cases in the third quarter of 2012. Eighty-three percent of the cases closed within nine months and only one case took more than a year to close. This is a marked improvement over third quarter 2011 when of the 202 cases closed, only 62% of them were closed within nine months and 5% of them (nine cases) took more than a year to close. In the third quarters of 2011 and 2012, none of the cases that took more than one year to close had sustainable allegations.

C. Sustained Cases

The percentage of sustained cases was lower in the third quarter of 2012, compared to third quarter 2011; a 6 % sustained rate in 2012 and an 8% sustained rate in 2011. In the third quarter of 2012, the OCC sustained allegations in 13 cases. The number of days to close sustained cases decreased in the third quarter of 2012 compared to the third quarter of 2011. In the third quarter of 2012, 54% of sustained cases were completed within nine months. During the same period in 2011, 32% of the sustained cases were completed within nine months and all of them were completed within 365 days.

The impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Still larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations¹ 2) active trial calendars for the two prosecuting attorneys who also serve as advice attorneys on sustained cases and sustainability reviews and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the third quarter of 2012, the OCC sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 10 of the 13 sustained complaints. Five of these complaints with a sustained neglect of duty allegation, or 50% of them, contained a sustained allegation for failure to collect traffic stop data. This is a significant departure from the improvement in the second quarter when only one, or 8%, of the 11 cases which had a neglect of duty sustained allegation was sustained for failure to collect traffic stop data. The Chief of Police is imposing progressive discipline for officers who repeatedly fail to collect traffic stop data. The discipline generally begins with an admonishment for the first offense, but for repeated offenses, the Chief of Police has recommended that the OCC prepare charges for him to file with the Police Commission.

Additional categories and cases for which allegations were sustained include:

1. Unwarranted action for detaining, handcuffing and searching the complainant without justification.
2. Neglect of duty for:
 - a. Failure to include a date for a court appearance on a traffic citation.
 - b. Failure to comply with Department General Order 6.09 which requires the officer to provide the victim of domestic violence with a Domestic Violence Resource Card and the CAD number documenting the incident.
 - c. Failure to properly supervise a subordinate to require the subordinate to comply with Department General Order 6.09.
 - d. Failure to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing.
 - e. Failure to broadcast to DEM the police vehicle's ending mileage at the County Jail when transporting a female passenger.
 - f. Failing to comply with Department General Order 5.04 by not completing an incident report when the officer determined there was no probable cause to take a person into custody based on a private person's request for an arrest.
3. Conduct reflecting discredit for:
 - a. Ordering an alleged perpetrator of domestic violence to leave the house rather than arresting the alleged perpetrator.
 - b. Pretending to videotape the complainant who was videotaping an interaction between officers and homeless persons and commenting to the officer's partner about having a YouTube account.

¹ In its January 27, 2007 audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators. The OCC caseload during the third quarter of 2012 was 21 cases.

- c. Harassing the complainant and misusing authority by requesting that DMV suspend the complainant's license after the complainant filed a complaint with the OCC.
- d. Using profane language when detaining the complainant.

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police she has two choices: 1) she can recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission or 2) after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief, if he declines her request she can file charges on her own with the Police Commission. Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. Sustained cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline he may impose. During the third quarter, the Chief of Police adjudicated 12 OCC sustained cases as follows:²

- 1. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing and releasing the complainant. The officer was admonished.
- 2. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer received a written reprimand.
- 3. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer asserted that the Department Bulletin for traffic stop data was permissive and not mandatory for suspicious person stops. In the incident report, the officer classified the stop as a traffic stop for defective brake lights. The case was deemed a policy failure by Chief Suhr and he issued a new department bulletin removing the exception by changing the permissive language to mandatory for the collection of traffic stop data for suspicious person high risk vehicle stops and DUIs.
- 4. Unwarranted Action – a sergeant detained, handcuffed and searched the complainant without justification. The sergeant was admonished.
- 5. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.
- 6. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.

² Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this third quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this third quarter.

7. Neglect of Duty – on a domestic violence call, a sergeant failed to properly supervise and made an unauthorized order for the husband to leave the residence instead of arresting the husband. An officer failed to comply with Department General Order 6.09 by failing to document the incident which he determined to be verbal only and that no crime was committed. The officer was required to give the complainant a Domestic Violence Referral Card and the CAD number and did not. The sergeant received a written reprimand and the officer was admonished.
8. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer received a written reprimand.
9. Neglect of Duty – an officer failed to issue a certificate of release after handcuffing and releasing the complainant. The officer was admonished.
10. Conduct Reflecting Discredit – an officer used her personal cell phone to videotape the complainant who was videotaping the officer and other officers engaging in an enforcement action against homeless campers on a sidewalk. The complainant alleged the officer stood within two feet of the complainant and the officer commented that she had a YouTube account. The complainant felt the officer was trying to intimidate him and that the officer would post the complainant's picture on YouTube. The officer was admonished.
11. Conduct Reflecting Discredit and Neglect of Duty – an officer engaged in conduct unbecoming of an officer by telling the complainant that he felt sorry for her boyfriend because the complainant was upset about receiving a moving violation for driving the wrong way down a one way street and blamed her boyfriend. The officer also failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished.
12. Conduct Reflecting Discredit and Neglect of Duty – an officer engaged in neglect of duty for failure to comply with DMV regulations, abuse of authority and harassment in retaliation for the complainant contesting a moving violation and filing a complaint with the OCC. Chief Suhr has filed charges with the Police Commission.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Occupy SF

San Francisco's Occupy movement generated ten complaints from twenty-two complainants in 2011. An additional complaint was filed in the first quarter of 2012 and mediated during the first quarter. Allegations in these complaints include unnecessary force, failure to provide medical attention, unwarranted seizure of property, interference with the rights of onlookers, violation of DGO 8.10 (First Amendment Guidelines), issuing invalid orders, unwarranted handcuffing, detention, citation and arrest, failure to provide medical attention, selective enforcement and biased policing. In 2011, two complaints were closed, one with proper conduct findings and the other with both not sustained and proper conduct findings. As of the third quarter, eight of the complaints remained under investigation. These eight complaints were merged into three complaints that are still under investigation.

B. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

In 2011, three complaints were filed involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entry and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. Other allegations in these complaints include unlawful search of persons, unlawful detentions and arrests, failure to properly process property including laptops and cameras, failure to investigate, failure to supervise and inappropriate behavior. The investigations remained open through the third quarter pending investigations by other government agencies.

C. Officer Involved Shootings

During the third quarter of 2012, a complaint was filed in an officer involved shooting that did not result in the death of the suspect. During the third quarter the OCC had five open officer involved shootings, four resulted in the death of the suspect.

V. STATUS OF CURRENT OCC CASES – THE ‘KEANE’ REPORT

By the end of the 2012 first quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2011 cases and by the end of the 2012 third quarter staff had closed 90% of its 2011 cases, leaving 10% or 76 of the 2011 cases pending. In comparison to 2011, by the end of the 2011 third quarter, staff had completed intake on all its 2010 cases, and had closed 86% of them, leaving 14% or 118 of the 2010 cases pending.

VI. CASE MANAGEMENT

The investigators' caseloads as of September 30, 2012 show a significant decrease from the same period in 2011. This decrease is attributable to a significant increase in the number of journey level investigators, 14 at the close of the third quarter in 2012 and 12 at the close of the third quarter in 2011. The average caseload as of September 30, 2012 was 21 cases per investigator. As of September 30, 2011, the average caseload was 31 cases. In its 2007 audit of the OCC's operations, the City Controller concluded that an average of 16 cases was a best practices caseload for investigators of police misconduct. As with previous quarters, the Chief Investigator and the Senior Investigators continued to take a very active role in monthly case reviews, monitoring caseloads, reassigning cases to adjust for imbalanced caseloads and assuming investigative responsibility in selected cases.

VII. LEGAL UNIT

During the third quarter of 2012, the Legal Unit functioned with its full complement of attorneys. The Legal Unit's two trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During the third quarter, the Legal Unit did not present any Chief's Hearings, but expects to schedule pending matters involving two officers during the fourth quarter. As to Police Commission cases, the Legal Unit obtained the Police Commission's approval of a settlement imposing a 30-day suspension on an officer.

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys and policy analyst attorney also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and is deemed sustainable. During the third quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised and submitted 13 sustained reports, each of which involved multiple allegations.

VIII. MEDIATION

In the third quarter the OCC completed 15 mediations as compared to twelve in 2011. At the end of the third quarter, the OCC had mediated 48 cases compared to 45 in 2011.

During the third quarter, a total of 43 officers were considered for mediation. Seven of those officers or 16% were ineligible. Of the officers who were offered mediation, only three, or 8% declined. Of 30 citizens offered mediation, 18 or 60% agreed to mediate.

In September, the San Francisco Giants, in partnership with the San Francisco Police Officers Association and Community Boards, saluted Bay Area volunteer mediators at a game held on September 22nd. Thomas Klitgaard, a veteran OCC mediator, represented the OCC Mediation Program in a ceremony at home plate.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, and also serves as an educational experience for all participants.

IX. OUTREACH

During the third quarter of 2012, the OCC engaged in the following outreach activities:

- Director Hicks and Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar gave a presentation to the Alliance for a Better District 6 and answered questions about the functions of the OCC. OCC representatives staffed tables at the National Night Out festivities in the Bayview and Western Addition. The Director and Senior Investigators visited the National Night Out observations in four districts.
- OCC staffed information booths at the Bayview Homeless Connect, the Tenderloin Resource Fair, the Oceanside/Merced/Ingleside United Festival, Back-to-School events in the Bayview and Western Addition Neighborhoods, and “Language Matters,” an event promoting language access for San Francisco City Agencies.
- OCC met with the Executive Director of the Council of American Islamic Relations (CAIR) to discuss future OCC-CAIR collaborations.
- On September 20, 2012 Executive Director Hicks and Policy Analyst Marion participated in the Human Rights Commission’s roundtable discussion on the use of condoms as evidence in prosecuting prostitution related cases.
- The OCC Mediation Coordinator, Donna Salazar, staffed the Community Clubhouse at the above mentioned Giant’s salute to volunteer mediators and distributed information about mediation resources in the bay area and at the OCC.

X. POLICY ANALYSIS

During the third quarter the OCC met with the Department to address policy recommendations arising from the OCC's investigation of an unnecessary force complaint involving a mentally ill individual. These discussions resulted in the issuance of two San Francisco Police Department Bulletins. Department Bulletin 12-142 prohibits officers from using passkeys to enter single room occupancy hotels or other premises unless constitutional requirements are fulfilled. Department Bulletin 12-145 prohibits officers who are the subject of criminal or administrative investigations from talking to witnesses or victims.

The OCC also continued its language access work with the Department and community stakeholders to address concerns that domestic violence victims raised during this Commission's hearings on December 7, 2011 and February 1, 2012. Among several projects, the OCC is working with the Department on a roll call video training that will address language barriers and dominant aggressor issues in domestic violence incidents. The OCC is also working with the Department to improve report-taking procedures of limited English proficient (LEP) victims at the district stations.

Last, the OCC met with the Department to finalize revisions to the pursuit policy (DGO 5.05.).

XI. CONCLUSION

While the OCC does not face the severe constraints with its investigator staffing that it did in the previous four years, the OCC still faces staffing shortages on its legal and information technology teams for the upcoming year. These shortages could result in additional case resolution delays; however, the OCC will remain committed to its mission to promptly, fairly and impartially investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director
Office of Citizen Complaints

Policy Recommendations – Third Quarter 2012

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
0487-11	Failure to follow proper procedures required by DGO 5.20 (Language Access Services)	An officer stopped the complainant and his partner, tourists from Germany, in their rental car for illegally driving in a bus lane. The complainant reported that the officer yelled at his partner (the driver), to face and speak to only him, asked if there were drugs in the car, and did not understand that although the driver may have looked African-American in appearance, he was German, and spoke and understood very little English. The OCC concluded that the officer's conduct was the result of a policy failure and recommended that SFPD issue a Department Bulletin on common indicators that language services are necessary and factors that hinder effective communication with an LEP person. Specific to this case, the OCC recommended that the Department Bulletin instruct that "[s]omeone may appear to speak one language, but may actually speak another. For example, Spanish may not be the primary language for some people from Central and South America. Someone appearing African American may be from Africa, the Caribbean, Europe, or elsewhere and not speak English well." The OCC also recommended that the Department Bulletin's explanation of common indicators that language assistance is necessary include: 1) the individual requests an interpreter or translator; 2) the individual switches from English into another language or mixes English with another language; 3) dispatch used Language Line Services (or bilingual staff) to obtain information from the 911 caller; 4) the individual speaks in fragmented or incomplete sentences and uses English words incorrectly, relies upon incorrect verb tenses or speaks in the present tense even when needing to describe past or future events; 5) the individual's response to open-ended questions indicates a limited ability to understand the question or to communicate in English (i.e. the individual answers, "yes or no" to questions that require an explanation.); 6) the individual's facial or body gestures indicate the individual is having difficulty understanding or communicating in English; and 7) the individual responds physically to simple verbal commands (i.e. hand me your driver's license); however any of the aforementioned common indicators are also present. The Department incorporated the OCC's suggested recommendations into Department Bulletin 12-132 that was issued on June 26, 2012.

Policy Recommendations – Third Quarter 2012

Case No.	Type of Allegation	Policy Recommendation
0042-12	Unwarranted action for issuing an invalid order to vacate the premises	The complainant called the police when the individual from whom he had subleased an apartment for thirty days demanded the complainant to vacate the apartment after two weeks. The responding officer in consultation with a supervisor concluded the complainant was trespassing and ordered the complainant to vacate the premises. The supervisor's and subordinate's actions incorrectly assumed a criminal violation had occurred that permitted police intervention. The evidence established that the individual and the complainant had entered into a written agreement for sublease of the apartment and that the complainant was not a trespasser but instead was a tenant who could only be removed through an unlawful detainer action. The OCC recommended that the Department enhance its training and written materials on police procedures regarding landlord tenant disputes to include sublease disputes and the distinction between civil and criminal violations.
