Re: Office of Citizen Complaints 2016 First Quarter Statistical Report

I. INTRODUCTION

Statistics

Attached is the Office of Citizen Complaints' statistical report for the 2016 first quarter. The OCC received an adjusted total of 142 complaints of police misconduct or failure to take action and closed 159 complaints this first quarter. It sustained allegations of misconduct or failure to take action in 17 complaints against San Francisco Police officers, which is an 11% sustained rate. The OCC mediated 15 cases, which is a nine percent (9%) mediation rate.

Transparency

In addition to investigating complaints of police misconduct or neglect of duty and providing policy recommendations, the OCC's mission includes informing the public about and engaging them in the work of the OCC. In light of recent officer involved shootings resulting in fatalities, the OCC redoubled its community outreach efforts beginning with the first quarter of 2016. This was in response to community members who requested greater transparency from the OCC through participation on panels and attendance at community meetings to describe the OCC's role in addressing complaints of police misconduct and neglect of duty. Sections VIII and IX, of this report, Outreach and Policy, respectively, describe in brief the OCC's outreach to and involvement with community members and stakeholders to enhance community/police relations and to improve police policies.

The OCC continued throughout the first quarter to respond to requests for information and hold meetings with pro bono staff to the Blue Ribbon Panel on Transparency, Accountability and Fairness in Law Enforcement and also to provide testimony at one of its hearings. During this quarter, the OCC also responded to information requests from and held meetings with representatives from the Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office) of the United States Department of Justice in furtherance of the collaborative reform initiative between the San Francisco Police Department and the Department of Justice.

Also during this quarter, the OCC confidentially, as required by law, met with and provided information to members of the San Francisco Civil Grand Jury during their investigation of officer involved shootings. Finally, during the first quarter the Director provided Senator Mark Leno a letter in support of Senate Bill 1286 which reflected the official City and County of San Francisco's position on greater public access to peace officer personnel records related to serious uses of force and in cases with sustained findings of misconduct for certain types of allegations. (Appendix A, pp. 1-2.)

Officer Involved Shooting Jurisdiction Ballot Measure Development

The OCC provided technical assistance to Supervisor Malia Cohen and her aide, Mawuli Tugbenyoh on Supervisor Cohen's proposed ballot measure to clarify the OCC's jurisdiction to investigate all officer involved shootings and not just those cases arising from OCC complaints. Joyce M. Hicks, the OCC Executive Director (hereinafter "Director") attended press conferences, Board of Supervisors' hearings and responded to media inquiries about the proposed measure's impact on the OCC.

II. ORGANIZATIONAL AND BUDGET MATTERS

A. Staffing

By the close of this period, 17 permanent line investigators (8124) staffed the OCC, but only 14 of them had full caseloads during this quarter. One recently hired investigator did not have a full caseload at the close of the first quarter. Two permanent line investigators, because they were acting senior investigators during the first quarter, had extremely small caseloads. One of the permanent line investigators acted as a senior investigator continuing to fill the vacancy created when Senior Investigator Erick Baltazar was promoted to the deputy director/chief of investigations position in August 2013. Another permanent line investigator acted as a senior investigator while a senior investigator who had been on a long term leave transitioned to retirement during the first quarter. By the close of the first quarter, there were four (4) investigator vacancies; one line investigator and three senior investigators. The OCC's budget provided for 18 line investigators, four (4) senior investigators and a deputy director/chief of investigations. By the close of the quarter, 19 employees staffed the 23 investigator positions.

San Francisco City Charter section 4.127 provides a floor for investigators of one line investigator for every 150 police officers.

B. Technology

During the first quarter, the OCC responded to several requests for data from sources as varied as the DA's Blue Ribbon Panel, the Board of Supervisors, the District Attorney and the San Francisco Chronicle on topics including claims of bias, unnecessary force, vehicle searches and shootings. Information Systems Business Analyst (IS Business Analyst) Chris Wisniewski also finished a challenging upgrade and transition of OCC's index and document retrieval server that along with the OCC's database systems is often central to satisfying queries for OCC statistical information.

The IS Business Analyst deployed versatile audio/visual systems and developed a database module that prompts a notice to complainants on the status of their open cases. The OCC Director and the IS Business Analyst continued to work on the recruitment of the Information Systems Business Analyst Assistant by developing a job description. Finally, on the last day of the quarter, OCC took delivery on equipment necessary for a network upgrade.

C. Training

In February, the investigators and attorneys received a one day training on conducting investigations from Michael Gennaco, the principal of the Office of Independent Review (OIR Group) for Los Angeles County, and from his colleague, Stephen Walsh, Jr.

D. Budget

After consideration by the San Francisco Police Commission, the OCC submitted its proposed budget to the Mayor's Office on February 22, 2016. The Mayor's Office's 2016 budget instructions directed City departments to prepare a two year budget for 2016/2017 and 2017/2018 with a 1.5% reduction of general fund support for budget year 2016/17. For this reduction, the OCC's target was $63,000. To meet the 1.5% budget reduction target, the OCC proposed to reduce its clerical staff.

The OCC's fiscal year 2016/2017 baseline budget of $6,025,280 included $5,543,027 in personnel costs. Personnel costs comprised 92% of the OCC's budget. The personnel costs partially funded 39 positions; however, due to attrition costs and step adjustments, the OCC's personnel budget will only fund 37 positions since step adjustments and attrition formulas total more than $300,000. The remainder of the OCC's budget, $482,253 is for operations. Of this operations amount, the OCC paid $396,000 in mandated work orders.

The OCC proposed budget enhancements rather than reductions to include six (6) full time equivalents (FTEs) in additional staffing. The proposed staffing included five (5) 8124 journey level investigators and one (1) 8126 senior investigator to handle increased officer involved shooting cases. Additional enhancements were also requested for OCC's Professional Services, Training, Material and Supplies, and Work Order accounts along with the addition of a vehicle. The OCC requested partial relief from step and attrition adjustments. The proposed enhancements totaled $1,744,993 for FY 2016/17 which would be ongoing for FY 2017/18.

III. INVESTIGATION OF CASES

A. Case Inventory

By the end of the 2016 first quarter, the OCC opened 151 new cases with an adjusted total of 142 opened cases<sup>1</sup>, and closed 159 cases. During this period, the OCC closed eight (8) more cases than its unadjusted opened cases. The OCC closed the quarter with 374 pending cases, which are 19 more pending cases than the close of the first quarter in 2015. By the end of the 2016 first quarter, there were 113 pending cases from 2016, 250 pending cases from 2015, seven (7) pending from 2014, two (2) pending cases from 2013 and two (2) pending cases from 2011.

B. Caseloads and Disposition of Cases

With only 14 investigators assigned full caseloads the first quarter of 2016 and only 13 investigators assigned full caseloads the first quarter of 2015, caseloads were higher than best practices both years.<sup>2</sup> In both first quarters of 2015 and 2016, the caseloads were 25 cases per investigator. What is remarkable for 2016 is that the investigators managed to sustain 11% of the complaints the first quarter of 2016, despite their staggering caseloads. What suffered was timeliness of case closures. Comparing the first quarters of 2015 and 2016, the average number of days to close cases increased by 10% from 171 to 188 days. The OCC's goal is to conclude its investigations within 270 days.

During the first quarter of 2016, OCC investigators closed 159 cases with 65% of them closing within 270 days and 13 of them, which had no sustainable allegations, took more than a year to close. This differs by 13 percentage points from the first quarter of 2015 where of the same number of cases, 159 were closed but 78% of them were closed within 270 days. The increase in days to close all cases was magnified in the days to close sustained cases where in the first quarter of 2016 only two (2) of the 17 sustained cases were closed within 270 days compared to the first quarter of 2015, four (4) of the eight (8) cases sustained in the first quarter were sustained within 270 days. As previously stated, the number of cases sustained the first quarter of 2016, 17, was more than double those sustained the first quarter of 2015, eight (8).

<sup>1</sup> The OCC adjusts its total of opened cases when it merges one case with another, voids a case due to clerical or other error or a complainant withdraws a case.

<sup>2</sup> In its January 27, 2007, audit report on the OCC, the Controller's CSA division found that 16 cases per investigator was a best practices caseload for civilian oversight investigators

C. Sustained Cases

The number of sustained cases in the first quarter of 2016, 17, an 11% sustained rate, was more than double the number of sustained cases the first quarter of 2015, eight (8) sustained cases; a 5% sustained rate. In the first quarter of 2016, 12% or two (2) sustained cases closed within nine months compared to the first quarter of 2015, where four (4) cases or 50% of sustained cases was completed within nine months.

The ongoing impediments to prompt completion of sustained cases are attributable to at least three factors: 1) Larger than best practices caseloads for investigators resulting in longer times to complete investigations, 2) Several high profile and complex investigations, and 3) increased policy work for the policy analyst attorney who also serves as an advice attorney on sustained cases and sustainability reviews.

During the first quarter of 2016, there were sustained allegations of neglect of duty in 13 of the 17 sustained complaints, or 76% of them. Three of the complaints with sustained neglect of duty allegations were for failure to collect traffic stop data. Complaints with a single sustained allegation for failure to collect traffic stop data comprised 18% of the sustained complaints in the first quarter. Five (5) of the 17 sustained complaints were sustained for allegations added by the OCC and not identified by the complainant. In those five (5) cases, due to the state mandated peace officer privacy protections, the complainant was not advised of the finding on the added allegation. In the remaining 12 cases, the complainant was notified that the complained of officer(s) had been found to be in violation of SFPD policies but the complainants were not notified the nature of the officer's discipline or other corrective action, again due to state mandated peace officer privacy protections.

Additional sustained allegations included unwarranted action, conduct reflecting discredit and sexual slurs. (Appendix A, pp. 10-17.)

D. Chief of Police's Adjudication of OCC Sustained Cases

When the OCC Director forwards a sustained case to the Chief of Police, she can either recommend that the Chief of Police file charges with the Police Commission and after meeting and conferring with the Police Chief the OCC Director can file charges on her own with the Police Commission if the Police Chief declines her request. The OCC sustained two cases in December 2015 which would have fallen within the Police Commission's jurisdiction, however, in each case the officer left his employ with the Police Department. One officer retired and the other officer resigned. Each of those cases is reported in the OCC's 2015 Annual Report and are reported in this first quarter report as having been reviewed and closed by the Police Chief.

Alternatively, the OCC Director can determine that a case warrants ten days or less of suspension. The Police Chief determines the level of discipline in OCC cases that the OCC Director determines would warrant no more than ten days of suspension and are adjudicated by the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police determines whether or not to sustain the OCC's findings and what discipline to impose. The OCC Director recommends discipline to the Chief of Police but the Chief of Police determines whether in his opinion the sustained allegations are merited, and if so, what level of discipline or corrective action he will impose. While police officers may appeal the Chief's discipline to the Police Commission, neither the Charter section 4.127 nor the Administrative Code provide for the OCC Director to appeal the Chief's decision. During the first quarter, the Chief of Police proposed discipline in 21 OCC sustained cases as follows:<sup>3</sup>

In January 2016, Chief Suhr made findings and proposed discipline in nine cases investigated by the OCC and determined by the OCC Director to have sustainable allegations. The OCC's findings and the Chief's proposed discipline are as follows:

1. In violation of Department Bulletin 14-059, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.
2. During a fare inspection on a bus, the officer wrongfully detained, arrested and cited the complainant even though the complainant showed the officer his valid transfer. The officer used unnecessary force when he ordered the complainant off the bus and physically removed him even when the bus driver told the officer the complainant had a transfer. The officer was untruthful in his incident report when recounting the complainant's conduct as proven by the video footage from the bus. The officer retired.
3. In violation of DGO 5.01, an officer used unnecessary force against the disabled complainant and in violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 9, the officer used profanity. The officer resigned.
4. In violation of the Fourth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution an officer opened the rear door of the complainant's car when the officer stopped him for running a red light. The officer was admonished and retrained.
5. In violation of DGO 5.01, an officer handcuffed the complainant too tightly causing injury to the complainant's wrist and the officer neglected

<sup>3</sup> Cases adjudicated by the Chief of Police during this first quarter are not necessarily cases that were sustained by the OCC during this first quarter.

9. After handcuffing and later releasing the complainant, an officer failed to issue a certificate of release in violation of DGO 5.03. The officer was admonished and retrained.

In February 2016, Chief Suhr made findings and proposed discipline in three cases investigated by the OCC and determined by the OCC Director to have sustainable allegations. The OCC's findings and the Chief's proposed discipline are as follows:

1. In violation of DGO 1.03 (l) (A) (5 )(d), Duties of Patrol Officers, Attention to Duty, DGO 2.01 Rule 25, General Rules of Conduct, On-Duty Written Reports, DGO 5.04(II)(8), Arrests by Private Persons, an officer failed to prepare an incident report when the complainant requested a private person's arrest and the officer denied the request. The officer received a written reprimand and retraining.

In the same matter, and in violation of DGO 1.03, (l) (A) (1) (b), Duties of Patrol Officers, Radio Contact and Notification, DGO 2.01 Rule 18, General Rules of Conduct, Responsibility of Higher Rank, a back-up officer who responded to the complainant's residence failed to notify the Department of Emergency Management (DEM) that he and his partner had arrived at the scene. The officer was admonished and retrained.

In March 2016, Chief Suhr made findings and proposed discipline in nine cases investigated by the OCC and determined by the OCC Director Hicks to have sustainable allegations. The OCC's findings and the Chief's proposed discipline are as follows:

1. In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 7, Maintaining Knowledge, and Department Bulletin 14-255, Requests for Sign Language Interpreter, an officer failed to comply with the American with Disabilities Act and SFPD procedures when the officer failed to ensure effective communication with the complainant who was deaf. The officer also wrote an incomplete and inaccurate incident report when the officer neglected to indicate the complainant was deaf and that he obtained the complainant's statement through a bystander who happened to be an ASL student and whose name and contact information should have been included in the report. The officer was admonished and retrained for neglect of duty.
2. In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rule 9, Misconduct, and DGO 9.01, section IO.A.3, Discretion, an officer engaged in conduct reflecting discredit on the department by telling the complainant whom he had cited for impeding traffic, "So next time, if a police officer asks you why you are doing something, you should say, "I'm sorry." The officer received a written reprimand and was retrained.
3. In violation of DGO 1.03 (I) (A) (5 )(d), Duties of Patrol Officers, Attention to Duty, DGO 2.01 Rule 25, General Rules of Conduct, On-Duty Written Reports, DGO 5.04(II)(8), Arrests by Private Persons, an officer failed to prepare an incident report when the complainant requested a private person's arrest and the officer denied the request. The officer received a written reprimand and retraining.
4. In violation of Department Bulletin 14-059, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.

5. In violation of Department Bulletin 14-059, an officer failed to collect traffic stop data. The officer was admonished and retrained.
6. In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rules 9, Misconduct, and 14, Public Courtesy, when addressing the complainant, two sergeants used harsh, profane and offensive language and one of the sergeants also used sexually derogatory language when addressing the complainant. Each sergeant received a one day suspension.
7. In violation of DGO 1.03 (1) (A) (5) (d), Duties of Patrol Officers, Attention to Duty, and DGO 2.01 Rule 25, General Rules of Conduct, On-Duty Written Reports, in responding to a call for service for a battery by a juvenile on a staff member at a juvenile facility, an officer failed to prepare an incident report. The officer received a one-day suspension.
8. In violation of DGO 1.03 (1) (A) (5) (d), Duties of Patrol Officers, Attention to Duty, and DGO 2.01 Rule 25, General Rules of Conduct, On-Duty Written Reports, an officer failed to prepare an incident report when responding to a call for service from an 80-year old wheelchair user living in supportive housing that he had been robbed earlier in the day of $200. The officer received a written reprimand and retraining.
9. In violation of DGO 2.01, General Rules of Conduct, Rules 9, Misconduct, and the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics, Canon 9, Standard 9.4, Using Confidential Information for Personal Interest, the following morning, a sergeant used the complainant's cell-phone number to send her a text message offering to loan her money to pay for her citation for which he had cited her the night before. In the text message, the sergeant cautioned the complainant not to tell anyone about his offer. The sergeant obtained the complainant's cell phone number when he issued her a citation. The sergeant received a written reprimand and retraining.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Both the SFPD Internal Affairs Division and the OCC investigated this case, before consulting with the OCC, upon the conclusion of its investigation, Internal Affairs Division recommend a written reprimand and retraining to the Chief of Police which he imposed. The OCC would have recommended a more serious level of discipline with some days of suspension. As a result of this lack of coordination, SFPD agreed to advise the OCC of its progress in its investigation of civilian complaints and further agreed to coordinate the imposition of discipline with the OCC.

IV. COMPLAINTS OF NOTE

A. Officer-Involved Shootings

Two (2) officer-involved shooting complaints remained open at the end of the second quarter 2016; one involving Amilcar Perez-Lopez and one involving Mario Woods.

B. Facebook Posting by One of the Officers who Shot and Killed Alex Nieto

D. Single Room Occupancy Hotels

At the end of the first quarter 2016, the OCC continued to investigate two complaints filed in 2011 involving multiple officers regarding unlawful entries and searches of single room occupancy (SRO) hotel rooms. At the end of the 2015 first quarter, staff had also completed intake on all its 2014 cases and had closed 71% of them, leaving 29% of the 2014 cases pending

VI. LEGAL UNIT

Four attorneys staff the OCC’s Legal Unit under the supervision of Executive Director Joyce Hicks. Attorneys Ines Vargas Fraenkel and R. Manuel Fortes are the OCC’s two trial attorneys but they also conduct sustainability reviews and review sustained reports for form and legality, prepare legal opinions and manage records requests including subpoenas, Pitchess motions and Sunshine Ordinance and Public Records Act requests. Attorney Donna Salazar staffs the OCC’s mediation and outreach programs and her work is outlined in sections VII and VIII of this report. Attorney Samara Marion conducts the OCC’s policy work and also conducts sustainability reviews and reviews sustained reports for form and legality. Her policy work is outlined in section IX.

The OCC’s trial attorneys prosecute police misconduct cases in matters investigated and determined by the OCC to be misconduct or failure to perform a required action. They present cases to the Police Chief when officers object to proposed discipline of up to ten days suspension. They present cases before the Police Commission when the proposed discipline is greater than ten days suspension up through termination.

During this first quarter, Attorney Fortes defended four cases on appeal involving eight officers at the Chief's Hearing level as follows:

Case number 1

The two officers were patrolling at a baseball game, they refused to make a private person's arrest and failed to prepare an incident report stating such.

Allegations:

For the officers and the sergeant: 1) Neglect of Duty for violation of DGO 5.08 & 9.01, re: traffic enforcement by plainclothes officers; 2) Neglect of Duty for failing to complete an E 585, traffic stop data, form.

Against a sergeant: In addition to the above, the sergeant was sustained for failure to supervise, in violation of DGO 1.04.

Discipline imposed:

As part of their duties, the Legal Unit's two trial attorneys and the policy attorney also review and edit sustained reports after a matter has been investigated and one or more allegations are deemed sustainable. During the first quarter, the Legal Unit reviewed, revised, and submitted five (5) sustained reports for approval by the OCC Director, each of which involved one or more sustained allegations against one or more officers. Additionally, Deputy Director Erick Baltazar reviewed, revised and submitted 12 sustained reports for approval by the OCC Executive Director.

VII. MEDIATION

During the first quarter of 2016, the OCC mediated 15 cases, a 9% mediation rate compared to 12 cases in 2015, an 8% mediation rate.

During this quarter, Ms. Salazar was contacted by the Columbus Ohio Police Department regarding the possibility of initiating a police/citizen mediation program in that jurisdiction. The Mediation Coordinator also met with staff from the Department of Justice's Community Relations Service to discuss police/citizen mediation programs.

The Mediation Program continues to provide a forum for officers and civilians to have a frank discussion regarding the complaint, as well as serves as an educational experience for all participants.

VIII. OUTREACH

During the first quarter of 2016, the OCC was engaged in the following outreach activities:

During the first quarter, the Director attended Police Commission Community meetings and gave regular updates regarding the work of the OCC. In addition, she gave detailed presentations regarding the functions of the OCC at community meetings in the Tenderloin District in January and the Richmond District in March. In January, Director Hicks offered remarks at a press conference where Supervisor Cohen announced her sponsorship of an amendment to the City Charter that would increase OCC's jurisdiction over officer involved shootings.

In January, as a member of the San Francisco delegation, Director Hicks attended a Police Executive Research Forum session on reengineering use of force. The session, held in Washington D.C. was attended by national and international members of law enforcement. The San Francisco delegation was led by Police Commission President Suzy Loftus and Chief Gregory Suhr and included Mawuli Tugbenyoh, Chief of Staff to Board of Supervisor member Malia Cohen. It also included other members from the San Francisco Police Department. In January, Director Hicks attended Mayor Edwin Lee's press conference where "[ he], the Police Commission President Suzy Loftus, Police Chief Greg Suhr and community leaders announced a comprehensive package of police reforms to increase public safety, build greater trust between police officers and the community and make the department more responsive, transparent and accountable." During the press conference, it was announced that the Police Commission had advocated for greater funding of the OCC's budget.<sup>5</sup>

Director Hicks continued to coordinate the provision of information to the Civilian Oversight subcommittee of the Blue Ribbon Task Force on Fairness, Accountability and Transparency in Law Enforcement. She worked closely with Munger Toles attorneys, Carolyn Luedtke and Nicholas Fram. On January 19, 2016, Director Hicks testified before the three judges taking testimony for the panel. Director Hicks told the panel that her office received 250 complaints that contained at least one allegation of racial bias since 2011, but the office sustained none of those complaints. She stated, "Racial bias is very difficult to prove, it is frustrating in light of today's climate. It is painful." Director Hicks also advised the panel that with the introduction of body worn cameras, she believed these allegations would be easier to prove or disprove.

In response to several officer involved shootings in the City, the Department of Justice Community Oriented Policing Service (COPS) embarked on a comprehensive review of the San Francisco Police Department throughout the first quarter. The Director and members of her staff met with COPS staff and consultants throughout the first quarter. OCC staff members attended listening sessions convened by COPS in the Bayview, Mission and Western Addition neighborhoods of the City. In addition, OCC staff attended a series of community meetings organized by Police Commission President Suzy Loftus regarding the department's use of force DGOs. The meetings were facilitated by youth. Additionally, OCC staff attended a meeting on police relations for students at St. Ignatious High School organized by Police Commission member Thomas Mazzucco.

In January, the Director, Deputy Director Erick Baltazar, and OCC Attorney Manny Fortes were invited to address the Justice for Mario Woods Coalition meeting where they described the OCC investigation process. In March, the Director participated in a panel sponsored by the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE) addressing 21st Century Policing.

Director Hicks and Deputy Director Erick Baltazar hosted a visit of the Central Vigilance Committee from India sponsored by UC Berkeley in March. Attorney Ines Fraenkel participated in a panel before a youth group addressing concerns regarding youth rights when interacting with police.

Additionally, Director Hicks and Attorney Fortes continued serving as members of the Bar Association of San Francisco Criminal Justice Task Force.

During this quarter, the OCC staffed informational tables at an Operation Homeless Connect event and the Family Summer Resource Fair hosted by the City's Department of Children, Youth and Families.

IX. POLICY ANALYSIS

Policy work is an essential aspect of the Office of Citizen Complaint's mission. The San Francisco City Charter requires the OCC to present quarterly recommendations concerning SFPD's policies or practices that enhance police-community relations while ensuring effective police services. Policy attorney Samara Marion leads the OCC's policy work. Policy work during the first quarter 2016 focused on revising the Police Department's Use of Force Department General Orders and the completion of the Police Department's Crisis Intervention Team Department General Order. Additionally, three OCC-initiated language access projects were implemented by the Police Department: 1) mandated language access data collection; 2) mandatory language access training for all officers; and 3) officer survey results on language access services and training.

Throughout the first quarter, the OCC researched, drafted recommendations, and participated in stakeholder meetings to revise the Police Department's Use of Force General Orders. The OCC recommended that the Department's Use of Force Department General Order emphasize a minimal reliance on the use of force as adopted by numerous law enforcement agencies such as Oakland Police Department, Seattle Police Department, Washington, D.C.'s Metropolitan Police Department, Las Vegas Police Department and Albuquerque Police Department. The OCC urged that the Use of Force policy require—rather than simply recommend—officers to use de-escalation and other tactics whenever feasible before resorting to force similar to policies of the New Orleans, Chicago, Albuquerque and Cleveland Police Departments.

The OCC also recommended that the Police Department's Use of Force restrict officers from pointing a firearm at an individual unless circumstances create an objectively reasonable belief that the situation may escalate to the point that would authorize lethal force. Law enforcement agencies such as the Los Angeles Police Department, Washington, D.C.'s Metropolitan Police Department, New Orleans Police Department, Denver Police Department and even the San Francisco Police Department's Field Training Manual limit the circumstances when officers can point a firearm at an individual. The OCC proposed that the Department General Order incorporate the California Supreme Court standard of Hayes v. San Diego (2013) 57 Cal.4th 622 to consider an officer's tactical conduct and decisions leading up to an officer's use of force when evaluating the reasonableness of the force. The OCC also recommended that Use of Force policy incorporate other factors that the Ninth Circuit repeated ruled are relevant to evaluating the reasonableness of an officer's use of force such as 1) whether other tactics were available to the officer; 2) whether the officer used force against an individual in mental health crisis; and 3) whether the officer could and did provide a meaningful warning before using force.

The OCC proposed that the Department's Use of Force Reporting General Order collect and analyze its use of force data, describe in detail the type of data it intended to collect, post monthly use of force data on SFPD's website and provide a use of force report annually to the Police Commission, recommendations the OCC had previously made in its September 2015 Report on 19 Recommendations to Enhance Police-Community Relations in response to the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing.<sup>6</sup> For OCC's written recommendations about SFPD's Proposed Use of Force policies, see <http://sanfranciscopolice.org/use-force-documents>.

During the first quarter 2016, the OCC completed and provided the Police Department a draft Department General Order on Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) procedures and policies. In partnership with many community organizations, the OCC has worked steadfast to implement a CIT program for police response to behavior health crisis calls. Developed by the Memphis Police Department in 1988, CIT is a community-law enforcement partnership in which specially trained crisis intervention police officers who maintain their regular patrol duties are dispatched as first responders to behavior health crisis calls. As a participant in SFPD's 2010 Officer-Involved Shooting (OIS) Study<sup>7</sup>, the OCC recommended that the Police Department implement the CIT program because one-third of the officer-involved shootings analyzed during the study period had involved individuals in behavior health crisis. In September 2010 after completing its investigation in an officer-involved shooting involving an individual in behavior health crisis, the OCC made detailed recommendations to enhance the Department's response to individuals in crisis.<sup>8</sup> On February 9, 2011, after several hours of testimony from the OCC, mental health <sup>7</sup> On January 20, 2010, the San Francisco Police Department issued a written study of fifteen officer-involved shootings that had occurred between January 1, 2005 and August 27, 2009. The OCC received complaints and conducted investigations in seven of the fifteen OIS cases. This report includes the OCC's policy recommendations concerning mental health crisis response, pursuits, shooting at vehicles, Extended Range Impact Weapon incidents, SFPD liaisons to impacted community members, building search training, and language access services for Limited English Proficient (LEP) victims, witnesses and suspects. professionals, and community advocates, including presentations from CIT Memphis founders retired Major Sam Cochran and Dr. Randolph Dupont, the San Francisco Police Commission unanimously voted to implement the CIT program. The Police Commission's 2011 Resolution included the drafting of a CIT DGO, a project the OCC initiated in August 2015. Working diligently and in partnership with the Police Department and the Mental Health Working group, the OCC completed the CIT DGO within six months, providing the Department a draft DGO on February 24, 2016.

During the first quarter, three OCC-initiated language access projects came to fruition. Since 2007, the OCC has recommended that the Department comply with its mandated duty under Department General Order 5.20 to collect data on its use of bilingual officers and language line to provide services to Limited English Proficient (LEP) individuals. Most recently, the OCC assisted the Department in changing its incident report fields to capture LEP data. In February 2016, SFPD issued Department Bulletin 16-029 that required officers to commence using the Limited English Proficient (LEP) data entry fields whenever they write an incident report involving a LEP victim, witness and/or suspect. This feature now enables data collection as required by DGO 5.20 about the manner in which language access services are provided to LEP victim, witnesses and suspects.

Responding to OCC recommendations in partnership with the Language Access Working Group, SFPD also issued DB 16-023 "Training Video and On-Line Survey regarding DGO 5.20, Language Access Services for Limited English Proficient (LEP) Persons." This Department Bulletin required all officers to view the training video "Detecting and Overcoming Language Barriers" and to complete an on-line survey about language access services and training.

X. CONCLUSION

Despite budget and staffing constraints the OCC remained committed to its mission to investigate civilian complaints of police misconduct or failure to perform a duty promptly, fairly, and impartially and redouble its community outreach efforts and policy work to address the concerns of the public for greater transparency.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce M. Hicks
Executive Director

Re: Support for SB 1286 (Leno)

Dear Senator Leno:

On behalf of San Francisco's Office of Citizens' Complaints ("OCC"), I write to support SB 1286, as amended. Your bill would improve transparency, accountability and trust between law enforcement and the public by allowing greater public access to peace officer personnel records related to serious uses of force and in cases with sustained findings of misconduct for certain types of allegations. Your bill would also entitle complainants to more detailed information about the disposition of their complaints than they are currently entitled to receive under existing law.

As the OCC's Executive Director, I am concerned that there is, among the public, a false impression of OCC inaction which arises due to the constraints of current law. While the OCC dutifully investigates complaints, keeps detailed records thereof, and, when sustained, recommends to either the San Francisco Police Chief or Police Commission, as appropriate, discipline and/or corrective action, the limits imposed by current law create a "loss of confidence" issue. This is because of the constraints on OCC disclosures created by Penal Code §§ 832.5 and 832.7, and as interpreted by the California Supreme Court in Copley Press v. Superior Court (2006) 39 Cal.4th 1272, which allow only limited disclosure of the disposition of complaints. While under existing law, the OCC discloses to complainants its disposition of their complaints, SB 1286 would allow the OCC to disclose to complainants detailed factual findings of our investigation and the nature of discipline and/or corrective actions we have recommended. Under existing law, the OCC does not make those detailed disclosures because we cannot.

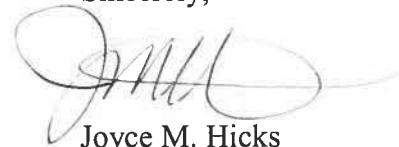

The prohibitions of current law with its lack of transparency have created dissatisfaction and mistrust from those who are the victims of abuse or misconduct, or those who know these victims. While much misconduct appears to be committed by a small number of peace officers, the combination of their misconduct and the lack of detailed official response undermines support for the overwhelming majority of dedicated peace officers who serve honorably.

In sum, the OCC supports SB 1286 because it will allow all Californians to see how civilian oversight agencies handle complaints in cases of excessive force and in cases with sustained findings of misconduct for certain types of allegations. SB 1286 will also aid complainants in understanding the basis for the OCC's decisions and the discipline recommended by the OCC. SB 1286 will help eliminate the public's doubts that have severely undermined the relations between our communities and law enforcement.

Sincerely,
