

Center on Juvenile and Criminal Justice (CJCJ) San Francisco's Juvenile Justice Services

Community Options for Youth COY

Eligibility Criteria
Full-scope Medi-Cal
San Francisco resident

Services Offered
Assessments
Individual therapy
Family therapy
Psychological evaluations
Case Management and Collateral

Detention Diversion Advocacy Program DDAP

Eligibility Criteria
Pre-adjudication
Felony petitions
San Francisco resident

Services Offered
Intensive case management to include:
Highly individualized comprehensive care plans
Brokering of community and social services
Crisis prevention and intervention
Client reassessments
Transitional support
Client supervision and case monitoring to include:
Daily client contact
Wellness checks
Regular home visits with client and family
Facilitation of youth and family involvement
Probation support to include:
Court advocacy
Probation progress reports
Court progress reports
Compliance with probation terms

CJCJ's Wrap-Around and Re-entry Program

Eligibility Criteria
Stepping down from or at-risk of out-of-home placement
Currently on probation
Full-scope Medi-Cal
Approval from San Francisco's Oversight Committee

Services Offered
Behavioral health services to include:
Assessments
Individual therapy
Family therapy
Psychological evaluations
Case Management and Collateral
Community-based intensive support counseling to include:
Individualized case planning
Brokering of community services
Case monitoring and daily wellness checks
Crisis Intervention
Educational support
Vocational support
Family education and involvement
Transitional support
Comprehensive individualized client services to include:
Specialized educational assistance
Vocational/employment training
Recreational activities
Therapeutic arts
Life skills training
Harm reduction and substance abuse counseling
Anger management training