

JUVENILE ADVISORY COUNCIL

Presentation for the Juvenile Probation Commission

4.11.12

OUR BELIEF

- The SF JAC model is founded in the belief that previous clients' stories, experiences and successes are helpful to young people who are coming onto probation and in search of strategies that will help them make positive choices.

LEADERSHIP & YOUTH VOICE AT JPD

- The JAC is made up of a group of previously incarcerated and probation-involved young adults who utilize their experiences and growth to inspire youth
 - 3 representatives from Bayview Hunters Point
 - 2 representatives from the Mission District
 - 1 representative from the Fillmore

ACTIVITIES

Represent issues associated with system involved youth at local stakeholder meetings.

- Department of Public Health- Adapt the Wrap
- United Way & Obama Administration's convening around disconnected Transitional Aged Youth
- Department of Children Youth & Their Families
- Youth Advisory Council

ACTIVITIES

Present at SFUSD schools and community agencies.

The goals of the presentations are:

- For youth to reflect on their choices and be properly informed on the consequences of their decisions.
- For youth to understand the impact that their decisions may have on themselves, their family, and their future.

SCHOOL PRESENTATIONS CONT.

- June Jordan High School
300 students, 9-12th graders
- John O'Connell High School
100 9 & 10th graders

ACTIVITIES

Lead monthly court-mandated introductory Orientations to youth, & their parent/guardian, who have recently been placed on Probation.

PARTICIPANT DATA

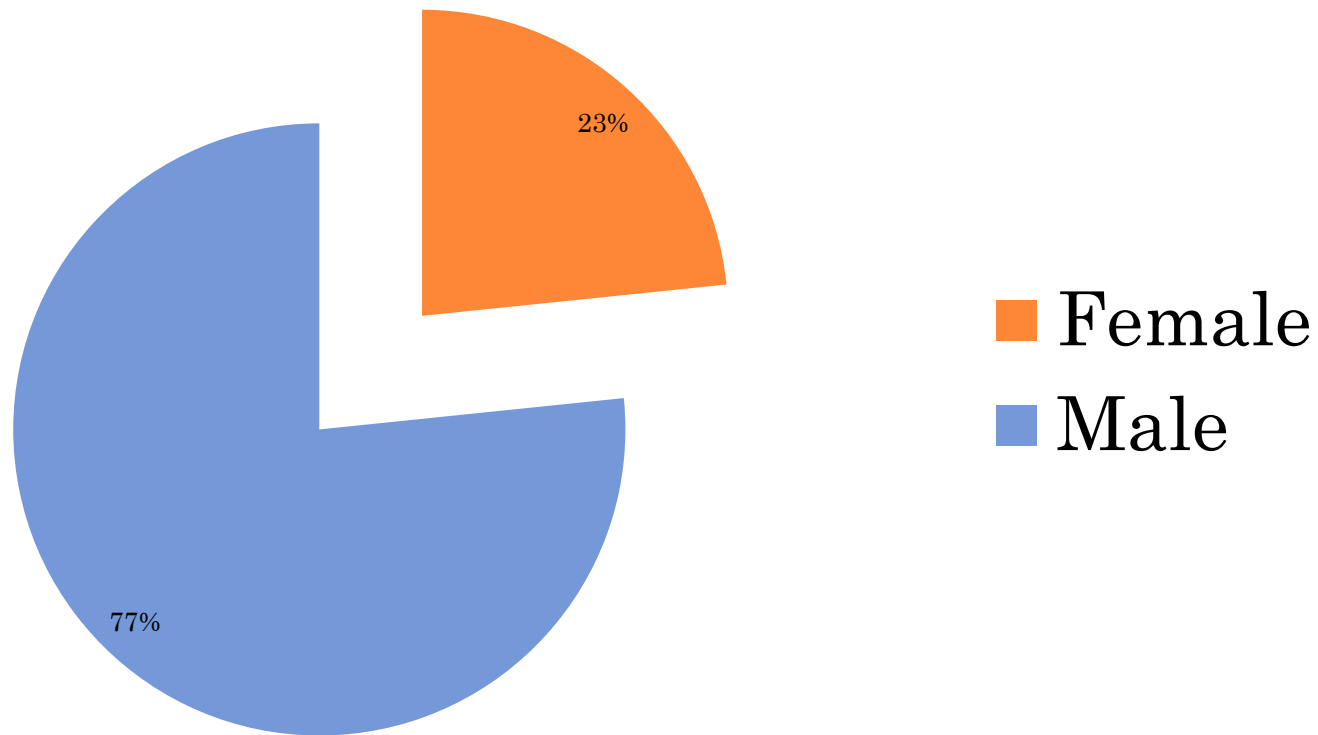

- 291 youth have participated
- 223 males
- 68 females

- 108 African American
- 99 Latino youth
- 36 Other

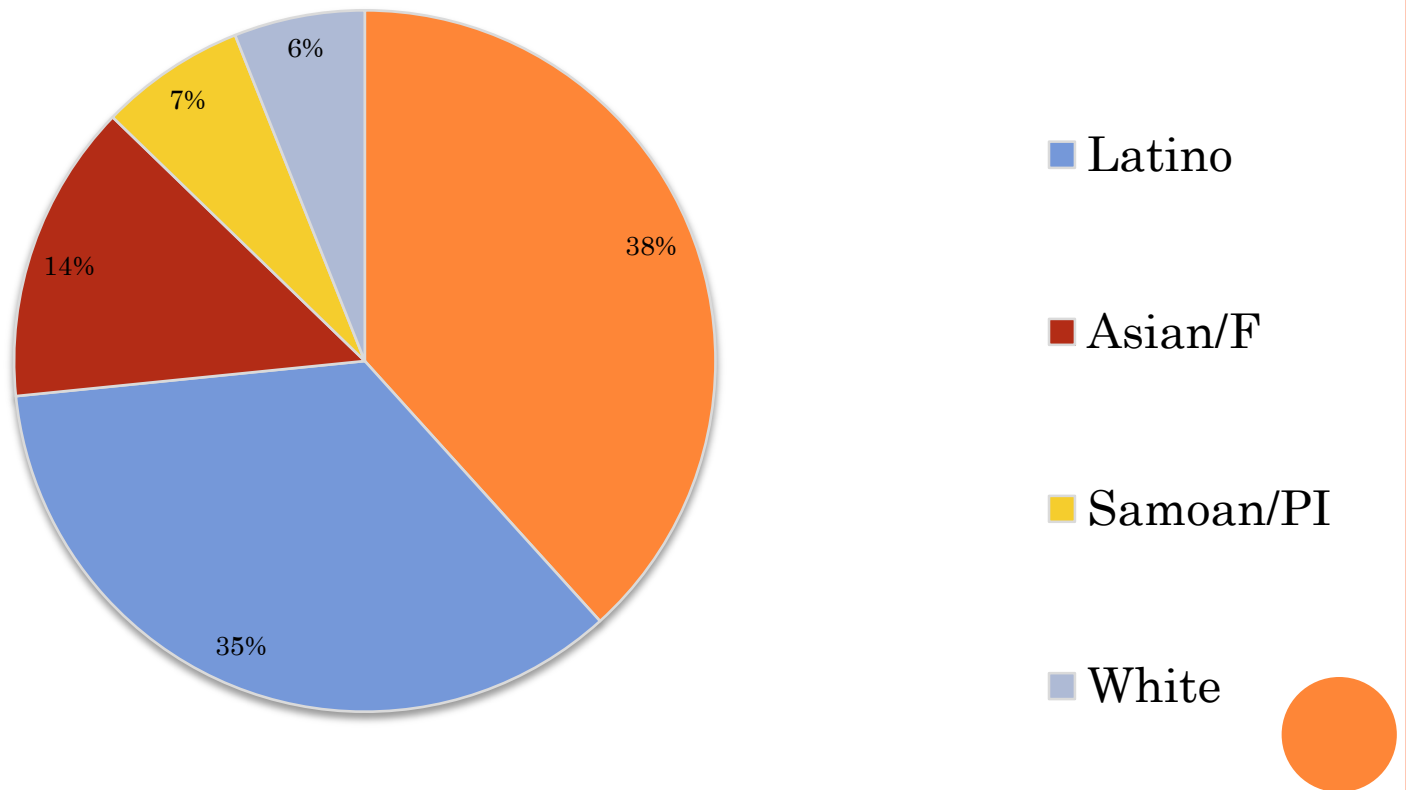

3 YRS OF ORIENTATION PARTICIPANTS 2009-2012

Total Participants: Gender

PARTICIPANTS

Total Participants: Race/Ethnicity

VIOLATION OF PROBATION RATES OUT OF 192 YOUTH THAT WE HAVE AT LEAST 1 YR OF DATA

- Only 12.5% post orientation sustained probation violation
- 87.5% Did not violate probation

○ Thank you.

