I Am the Future

The future of the world
Is in my hands
The key to my destiny
Sets in my palms

Once bitten
So many times burned
Yet despite that
I see myself unconquered

Humble, but not meek
Independent, but not alone
That's how I'll act
On my hard-earned throne.

Our future won't be perfect
It wouldn't be right that way
But happy little accidents come along
And turns into blessings someday

Discoveries and change
Is what I will make
The future won't wait
I'm up to my own fate

I'll make the world a peaceful place
Where people aren't separated for their race
Or their gender. Or their identity.
Equal rights for all is my goal

I want to make the world
The way life should be
I am the future
And the future is me
