SFPD and California Partnership for Safe Communities

- Received a grant – CALVIP
- Partnered with CA Partnership in May 2020
- CPSC performed a data-driven analysis on homicides and shootings, and found that group dynamics drive gun violence

Identified Goals: reduce gun violence in SF, while reducing recidivism, and building trust between SFPD and impacted communities.

Reimagining GTF— Community Violence Reduction Team

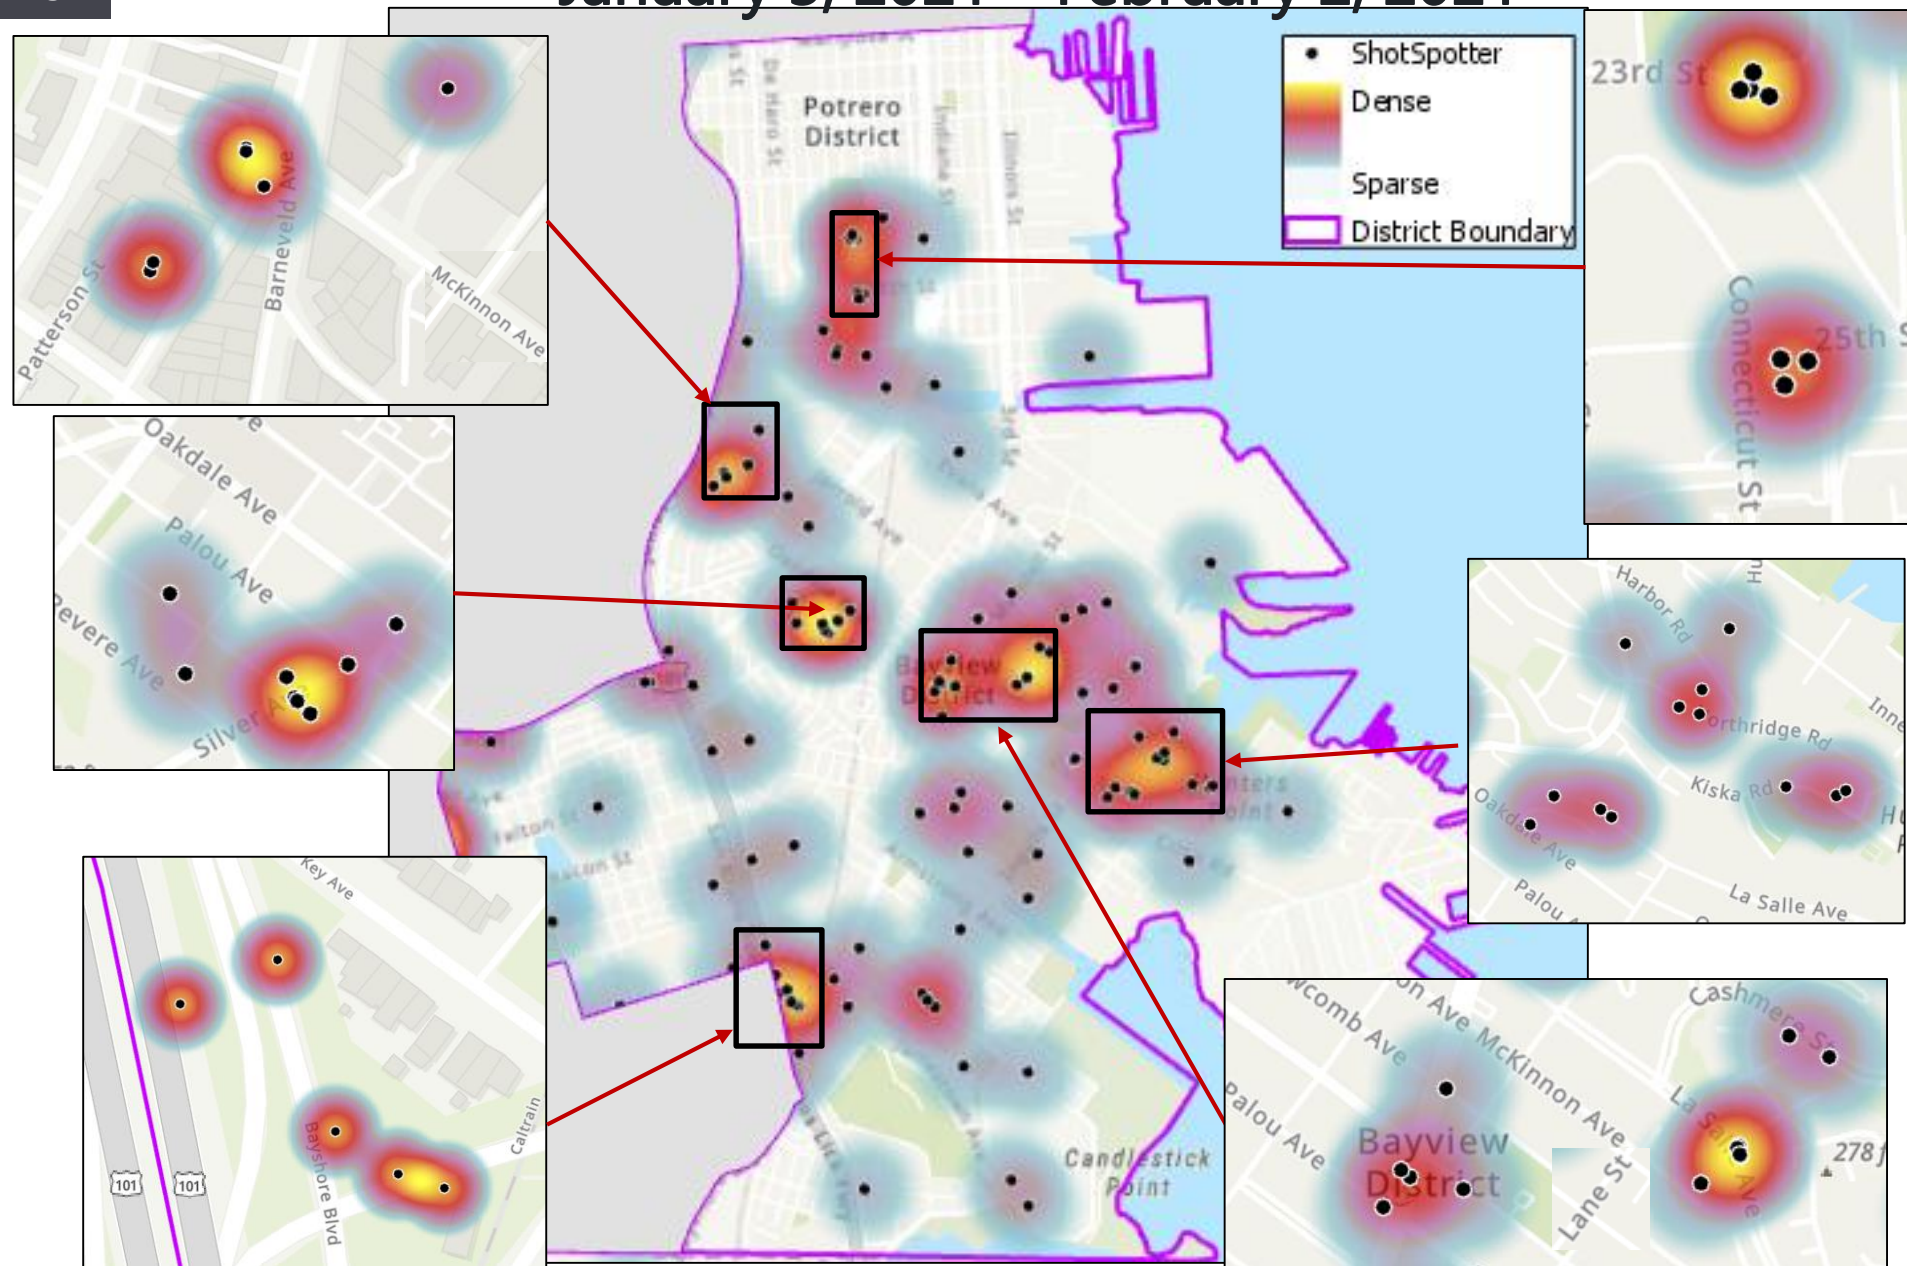

- Collaborate with CGIC to focus on gun violence.
- Focus on intelligence collection, analysis, and proactive focused investigations to prevent and reduce shootings.
- Strengthening collaboration with intervention partners and community stakeholders.
- Collaborate with justice partners – state and federal law enforcement agencies and prosecutors.
- Trainings in procedural justice, search and seizure, and risk management.

Shooting Review Board

- Weekly meeting
- Communication and sharing information between Investigations Bureau, Patrol, & Justice Partners
- Focused effort based on data to analyze violence dynamics and identify opportunities for intervention
- Aligning a variety of partners and stakeholders
- Community and problem-oriented police approach

Group Conflicts and Alliances

GROUPS AND GANGS IN SAN FRANCISCO
Ingleside, Bayview, Northern & Park Districts
JULY 2020

Fatal & Non-Fatal Shootings (Jan 2019 – Jun 2020): Groups Involved as Shooting Suspects:

Focus on High-Risk Individuals

- Narrowly focus on the individuals that are driving violence in SF and surrounding cities
- Risk of being an offender or victim of violence is concentrated within high-risk social networks
- Research shows victims of shooting are much more likely to be shot again
- Research shows victims are highly likely to retaliate within 120 days
- Interrupt cycles of retaliation

Intervention

SFPD fully supports the City's efforts to reduce gun violence and recidivism. CVRT is supporting and collaborating on the following initiatives:

- CALVIP grant – Partnership with Street Violence Intervention Program (S.V.I.P.)
- Participation in the Street Violence Response Team (S.V.R.T.)

Goal is to support intervention efforts to help community members step away from violence and the lifestyle.
