

Fire Hamasaki

For several years inside the SFPD and now outside, I have watched Commissioner Hamasaki become more and more embolden by the failed leadership of former Police Commission President Hirsch and now Vice President Taylor. Hamasaki has no moral underpinnings let alone any sense of decorum. The catalyst for this letter and the attachments are the two tweets by Commissioner Hamasaki on September 13, 2020. As a police commissioner, Hamasaki cannot find it in himself to calm tensions, wish the deputies and their colleagues well or even stay silent.

Instead, Hamasaki fans the flames of hate with tweets that deflect from a violent, racist hate group that can be directly linked to violence against law enforcement and that the Los Angeles Sheriff's office is lying about arresting a journalist.

As you will read in the following documents, Hamasaki proves himself an epic racist and has nothing except animus towards law enforcement in general. He is an ignorant ideologue whose arrogance has ended his own reign of hate on the commission.

The implication is clear...these deputies deserved to be assassinated because of past incidents of police misconduct. There is no other explanation for Hamasaki's retweet than to show he can justify this vile act.

Hamasaki tweets that LASO lies with no information except for his echo chamber opinion. He had no time to wish the deputies well because attacking is all he can do.

Fire Hamasaki

Multiple officers have been either wounded or killed over the span of attached tweets, but not once has Hamasaki tweeted anything that could be viewed as empathy for victims or commendation against the attacks.

Pretend inferiority and encourage his arrogance.

The most astonishing movement with the San Francisco Police Department has been the overtly political involvement of the San Francisco Police Commission in every aspect of the SFPD. Law Enforcement needs oversight and direction, but organizations also need to produce, train, implement and review policies from a professional, best practices perspective without a myopic, anti-police point of view. A review of membership on most working groups and committees and you will see the same anti-police groups if not the same individuals. The community is not involved because lawyers and activists have used their political connections to keep the public out of the efforts in police improvement.

The descent into subjective review of policies and officer actions was initiated by Suzy Loftus and accelerated by Commissioner Hirsch's feckless leadership. This strain of anti-police bias has now become ingrained within the Police Commission even with overwhelming evidence that progress has been made.

The Police Commission must be beyond reproach when it comes to their role in adjudicating discipline cases. Several Commissioners have made eyebrow raising comments out of spite, politics and clear ignorance of the reality of law enforcement's day to day interactions with the community. One member of the Police Commission has run roughshod over all decorum or professionalism that should exist on the Commission. Luckily, Commissioner Hamasaki has broadcast his racism and contempt for members of SFPD and law enforcement as a whole on his Twitter account for all to read.

Commissioner Hamasaki is a biased, arrogant person who attends Commission meetings while being ill prepared and possibly not of right mind. His arrogance comes from his lack of intellectual capacity to see weaknesses in his views and stances and defending them with ad hominem attacks. Arrogant people belittle others in order to obfuscate their own ignorance and insecurities. Hamasaki should be immediately removed from the Commission for his overtly racist views and his lack of tempered judgment in all things involving incidents that cross over racial lines or butts against his ideology. As a judge listening to and taking in evidence, Hamasaki cannot even masquerade as being impartial.

In the past several years, officers have been released, terminated and suspended for less than what will be provided below and directly attributable to Commissioner Hamasaki.

First, Commissioner Hamasaki has posted and affirmed the use of racial epithets on his twitter feed. Commissioner Hamasaki's tweets are attached and below is a list with dates that Commissioner Hamasaki posted the items. The purpose of this list is to show that is two fold. First, Hamasaki cannot review and any case of bias due to his use of epithets. Second, the tweets show he does not have the temperament to review a case in a fair and impartial manner putting officers and the Department in jeopardy.

August 9, 2018: Commissioner Hamasaki retweeted a post that included "@NxxxaTheory" in it. (Deleted from Account)

July 25, 2019: Commissioner Hamasaki retweeted a post that included "Bitch Ass Nxxxas" in it. (1 of 2)

- July 25, 2019: Commissioner Hamasaki retweeted a post that included "Bitch Ass Nxxxas" in it. (2 of 2)
- December 17, 2019: Commissioner Hamasaki retweeted a post that included "@NxxxaTheory" in regards the "MotherFucker Awards" The same hash tag Hamasaki deleted earlier.
- May 7, 2020: Commissioner Hamasaki retweeted a post that included "@NxxxaTheory" in it. The same hash tag Hamasaki deleted earlier.

Commissioner Hamasaki retweeting these posts gives him ownership of the message and he embraces the language. Ironically, one tweet shows he followed a discussion on who can actually use the n-word. It appears he believes he can with impunity. Also, a review of past publicly available bias cases will show that an officer does not need to be the author to be disciplined and using a word regardless of contrition or context cannot save an officer from discipline - even termination. Either Commission Hamasaki reigns with contrition or the Commission expels him for his racism.

Commissioner Hamasaki is a rabid race baiter and believes that white supremacists are behind every corner and secreted into the SFPD. Based on his repetitive tweets, it is abundantly clear that an officer cannot receive an unbiased review of their actions if the case involves a non-white individual and Commissioner Hamasaki is involved.

The following tweets show that no matter the topic, be it political, business or news, racism is to be blamed.

News/Politics

- January 31, 2018: In response to a tweet by Carla Marinucci (reporter) about Peter Thiel. Hamasaki believes that Thiel holds white nationalist views and associates with white nationalists based on his feeling that parts of California appear to be similar to a failed state.
- September 6, 2018: NY Times writes that the NAACP wrote report critical of Justice Kavanaugh in regards to race and his rulings. Hamasaki tweets Kavanaugh's "judicial philosophy" is aligned with the "alt-right" which is a euphemism for racist. In a response to a comment to his tweet, Hamasaki adds, "the country club gop doesn't really burn crosses on your lawn." Hamasaki believes that all of the Republicans are racist.
- September 16, 2018: Hamasaki gets in a debate about Justice Kavanaugh and the word "or" versus "and" in regards to rape and lying. With no evidence other than an alleged victim's testimony, what chance does an officer have if Hamasaki is your judge? It is amazing that this thought process is lost on an alleged defense attorney.

- October 18, 2018: Above the Law article about Asian-American lawsuit against Harvard's affirmative action program is on behalf of "Mediocre White People." Hamasaki believes that whites drive any argument against race-based criteria. Ironically, he believes that the whites that file lawsuits manipulated Asians that hold this same view.
- October 18, 2018: Hamasaki posts to same article, but doubles down on the even more inflammatory title, which changed to "If white supremacists cared about Asian-American students..." Hamasaki believes that any argument against race-based criteria is driven by white supremacists.
- October 28, 2018: Hamasaki states that being a Republican for "fiscal conservatism" is no different from being in the "KKK" for a discount on linens.
- January 20, 2019: Covington HS student says that accounts that he is racist are "Outright Lies" - Hamasaki tweets the innocent student should fire the PR firm dismissing any defense by the student out of hand. The descriptions of the student were inaccurate and rebutted by video and other evidence. Nicholas Sandmann and other members of the group received settlements for defamation.
- February 19, 2019: Nikki Haley (former UN Ambassador) commented on the Jussie Smollet and the need to hold him accountable for a false report of a crime. Hamasaki's response, "Non-white, white supremacists are just the worst." Smollet would have violated the future CAREN legislation which is lost on a Ken like Hamasaki.
- March 28, 2019: Rahm Emanuel and David Axelrod both "embrace white supremacist ta[ll]king points in the Jussie Smollet case..." The fact that anyone could have questions about this fake crime cannot be tolerated. Hamasaki would have been an excellent arbiter of who was a witch in Salem.
- April 16, 2019: NY Times writes an article stating that some Democrats may find it hard to defend Ilhan Omar and her anti-Semitic remarks. Hamasaki tweets, "Correction: For white supremacist D[d]emocrats."
- April 16, 2019: In response to Ilhan Omar being attacked on twitter, Hamasaki caterwauls, "Protect @IlhanMN at all costs!" Her Anti-semitism and her dog whistles be damned. Is Hamasaki an anti-semite? Using his broad brush on himself, it is most likely.

- May 11, 2019 Harvard Law is an embarrassment. A law professor that decided to defend Harvey Weinstein was barred from the faculty for his advocacy. Hamasaki also points to Alan Dershowitz in the tweet. Hamasaki believes that some defendants should not get an attorney for representation. Hamasaki is an embarrassment to the bar if that is even possible.
- December 30,2019: Hamasaki labels Michael Bloomberg as an "aging racist" in regards to his thoughts about the evidence in the Central Park Five.
- January 20, 2020: Hamasaki retweets a Cardi B tweet that threatens to "dog walk" Tomi Lahren for objecting to an earlier Cardi B tweet. The UrbanDictionary defines dog walk as, "When you're beating someone's ass and you're dragging them as if you were walking a dog." The retweet is an affirmation of violence against another individual.
- February 12, 2020: Larry Ellison hosts a fund raiser for President Trump and Hamasaki declares the reason the Oracle convention left San Francisco is because Ellison is a white supremacist.
- February 23, 2020: In response to a question if anyone is watching Homeland (TV show), Hamasaki tweets, "Checks mirror. Not racist, so no."
- April 19, 2020: "Fuck Joe Biden and his racist campaign." He adds that Biden is an "old segregationist" in the tweet. The animosity and unbridled hate of anyone that does not cling to Hamasaki's views is a borderline mental health issue.
- May 17, 2020: Commissioner Hamasaki revels in the death of Canadian Air Force Captain Jennifer Casey. While conducting a flyover to honor first responders and health workers, her plane crashed.

As shown above there is no room for disagreement and if a person dares to disagree on an issue, Hamasaki labels the position as racist, white supremacist or the person is a collaborator. If you are in the military it is to be cheered if you die. The scary part is that these views are so ingrained in any type of situation he examines; no one can feel good about his intake of contradictory evidence that he would review in their case.

Criminal Justice

- December 29, 2016: In a tweet to a question on searches, Hamasaki states that police lie about consent searches. Holding this out as fact bars him from 4th amendment cases subject to review.
- October 27, 2019: A mother, also a prosecutor, makes a joke about a child not telling the truth to her. Hamasaki says she at least admits to locking people up in "cages" to make money. How can you be fair to officers, when you have no objective sense of the criminal justice system?
- January 18, 2020: In replying to an article about bail agencies raising money for a ballot initiative, Hamasaki states, "This is literally the war of Northern Aggression to the bail industry." The message is clear that the bail industry's motivation is slavery.
- March 30, 2020: The Criminal Justice system is the replacement for slavery and segregation. Any officer working in SFPD cannot be judged fairly when this view is so extreme and held by a Commissioner. This view should disqualify Hamasaki in and of itself.
- April 2, 2020: Refers to Tekeshi 6ix9nine as a "snitch." The fact that a defendant would cooperate earns scorn. Informants and codefendants solve some crimes including violent ones, but violation of THUG life is a sin for Hamasaki.
- April 18, 2020: "Nice that she took off her white hood for the photo." A judge ruled to deny motions by inmates to be released from jail during the pandemic. Hamasaki believes that this judge is a member of the Klan for a decision he disagrees with.
- May 6, 2020: Hamasaki approves of Oakland Chief being fired under the guise that she did not support police reform. This should give pause to those offering professional opinions to move the SFPD forward if they contradict Hamasaki and his anti-police constituency. He did in fact threaten Chief Scott's job during Police Commission meeting.

Hamasaki believes social media posts should lead to termination and in this case they should. On his Twitter page, he openly states he is a Police Commissioner and these are his views. One capture shows that he was at a meeting while posting. Several other dates confirm he tweets during meeting hours.

The above tweets by Hamasaki leave little doubt that he is unfit to be a San Francisco Police Commissioner. If he is not removed for his vile beliefs and myopic views, no officer in SFPD will receive a fair hearing and the entire Commission will be looked upon as nothing more than a political body willing to deny due process and fairness to SFPD members to save a fellow traveler. Will Commissioners be as accountable as the officers they sit in judgment of?

I am glad to have left the SFPD relatively unscathed, but I am happy that I can now help current SFPD officers and not fear retaliation from the Commission.

NEW from @JessReports @nickrobinsearly: A look at the online echo chamber of right-wing police, where wild rumors about Antifa spread freely along with other misinformation and racist content:

Inside The Dangerous Online Fever Swamps Of American Police
Cops have a far-right media ecosystem of their own, where they post racist memes, spread disinformation and call for violence against antifa.

The police unions who have consistently fought even the slightest reforms, and fought for the jobs of the most racist and violent cops, are not credible partners in this fight. This is pure marketing. #DefundThePolice

This is why reports of the POA's demise and irrelevance are never entirely accurate. They have lost political sway and have been upended at the ballot box repeatedly.

But they're still enmeshed in the arcana of city government and are still making themselves part of the process.

jair bolsorona @uhshanti · Jun 19

looks like @NormanYeeSF's proposed charter amendment to undo SFPD staffing being baked into the city charter, is delayed by negotiations with the SFPOA which means we the public may not even be able to reduce staffing in 2022.

why the fuck are we still talking to the POA

To be clear, Junipero Serra committed genocide. His missions functioned as forced labor camps where Indigenous people were enslaved, shackled, beaten, and infected with European diseases that killed them by the thousands.

Shane Bauer @shane_bauer · Jun 19

People just toppled the Junipero Serra statue in San Francisco. Serra founded the first nine Spanish missions in California.

The reason criminal defense attorneys and public defenders play such an important role in police reform is that we see these types of statements every single day. We are trained to question every single word and accept nothing as truth just b/c police say it.

SO HE WONDERS WHY AN OFFICER WOULD RESIGN BEFORE HE HEARS A CASE WITH TWO ANTI-POLICE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS AND A TAG ALONG WEIGHING THE CASE?
