Statement of Gratitude to Departing Commissioners

The San Francisco Police Commission extends its heartfelt thanks and appreciation to outgoing Commissioners Thomas Mazzucco and Robert Hirsch for their years of service to the City and County of San Francisco.

Sergeant Stacy Youngblood
Secretary

Commissioner Thomas Mazzucco served 13 years on the Police Commission. He was first appointed to the Commission by Mayor Gavin Newsom in August 2007, and was reappointed by Mayor Edwin Lee in May 2012 and April 2016. He has served as both Vice President and as President of the Commission, faithfully performing his duty to the public through the tenures of three different mayors and four different police chiefs.

Commissioner Robert Hirsch was appointed to the Police Commission by Mayor Edwin Lee in May 2017. In his most recent capacity as Commission President, he worked closely with Chief Scott to help shepherd the San Francisco Police Department through a period of rapid change and reform.

Although both of their terms ended on April 30, 2020, we are grateful that they will remain actively engaged in the San Francisco community. We congratulate them for their years of service and for a job well done.
