Please post on-line, send to all
Commissioners, Chief Satt, Mayor
Breed, the Board of Supervisors, and the Ethics Commission before
Wednesday night's meeting.

Thank you

Dear Members of the Police Commission:

John Hamasaki's pathetic excuses for posting a dangerous video should not go unchallenged. Ultimately, Hamasaki wants to gaslight all of you and the community into believing his behavior was acceptable, and it is the Police Union being "dishonest and disingenuous" by chastising him for posting a video that was just about an officer "having fun" with his community. Hamasaki claims it "takes a lot of creative interpretation [for the video] to be read in the way the Police Union suggested." Well, John, over 40 commenters on your Twitter account, 2 members of the community during General Public Comment last week, one letter writer, and I didn't need much creative interpretation to see the video for exactly what you intended...an opportunity to display your sincere and odious delight when an officer gets hurt. Your behavior is repulsive, and many of us in the community have had enough of you and your biased behavior against police officers.

John Hamasaki claims his goal in posting the video was to encourage officers to have fun in the community. Commissioners, I assure you there are thousands of other videos that would do a better job of encouraging officers to connect with their communities. How could John Hamasaki think officers would be inspired by this despicable video? Of course that was not his intention behind posting that particular video, and you all know it. John Hamasaki got caught posting a hateful video, and now he thinks we will all be gullible enough to fall for his ridiculous excuses. John, your attempt to get people to laugh at an officer's expense fell flat; be a man, admit you made a mistake, and move on, instead of blaming the Police Union for being against you.

John Hamasaki claims he wants an "upright and respectable Department." That is difficult to accomplish when one of its Commissioners, a person in a leadership position, acts in immoral and disreputable ways. Commissioner Cohen, you voted for John Hamasaki to be appointed to the Police Commission in 2018 when you were on the Board of Supervisors. I cannot believe his disrespectful behavior toward officers over the last three years is what you were endorsing. It is disappointing not one of you on the Commission has publicly denounced any of John Hamasaki's questionable conduct. Your willingness to sit idly by only empowers John Hamasaki to continue with his irrational behavior. The City deserves better from its appointed officials.

Ok I sometimes complain about community policing/coffee with a cop type deals, but I fully support any cops who want to try this.

There is literally a video from another angle showing he didn't kick the crate tho.... Which like, you could have simply googled instead of stalking my profile and being snarky. Have a blessed day

Police commissioner is not someone who is necessarily pro police in SF. It is someone acting as the checks and balances on the police.

2 Retweet 8 Share

The City that Forgot How to Work @AndyLiSF1 · Aug 27

Sure, but how does discouraging police community outreach, and to wishing police physical harm help anyone?

1 Retweet 8 Share

Ms Tryl @ms_tryl · Aug 27

Police community outreach is a very fancy way of saying surveillance of poor communities and it's bullshit, which is why someone who's job it is to keep cops in check doesn't like it 🙄

4 Retweet 3 Share

The City that Forgot How to Work @AndyLiSF1 · Aug 27

If your credo is ACAB, I guess I can see why that's your definition of community outreach.

1 Retweet 4 Share

Ms Tryl @ms_tryl · Aug 27

It's definitely my definition but I didn't come up with it myself. There is a wide community of very smart people, including the FBI just as like a small example, that agree 😂

Tasma Baton @TasmaBaton · Sep 4

His 'bias' is negative and therefor so easy to pass off as 'righteous' and 'just' in SF/Ca. It makes him mainstream here. In what sane community would police/fire dept not be considered a part of the City? As if it's a 'bad' thing to get to know people as people

Subject: John Hamasaki need to be removed from the Police Commission
Date: Thursday, August 26, 2021 11:25:18 PM

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Please forward to all the Police Commissioners, the Chief of Police, the Ethics Department, and each member of the Board of Supervisors and post on your 30 day correspondence web page.

John Hamasaki, you should be ashamed of yourself. If this is how you feel about police officers then you should not be on the Commission because of your hatred and bias. By tweeting this video you are encouraging people to purposely injure police officers. There is something wrong with you. You're disgusting, and if your colleagues on the Police Commission and the Board of Supervisors don't call you out for your reprehensible behavior, they are complicit in your hate.
