Below are resources that I have collected from community members supporting San Francisco’s undocumented community. Disclaimer: this is not an exhaustive list. This is just the results I have received during my independent inquiry to support reentry community members who are classified as undocumented.

Support for the Undocumented Community During COVID-19.

Attached are forms from a program the Mayor Office of Housing and Community Development funds. Presently, program has exhausted all of its funds. Despite the lack of funds, Susanna Portillo, Family Resource Specialist with La Raza Community Resource Center is still accepting applications should the city decide to provide additional funding for the attached program. Please Susanna at sportillo@larazacrc.org

Supervisor Walton’s Office

Tracy Gallardo, legislative aide for Supervisor Walton, is currently addressing unmet needs for the Latino community and members of the undocumented community. She is particularly focus on issues impacting transitional aged youth ages 18-25. Tracy can be reach be at Tracy.gallardo@sfgov.org

Employment and Other Resources

Ruth Barajas, Director of Workforce, Education and Reentry Services with Bay Area Communities Resources has stated her organization has some resources to support this population. Ruth can be reached at rbarajas@bacr.org
