C. [Inform + Possible Action] Rising Up Initiative Presentation

Presenter: Gabriel Navarrete, Case Manager, Five Keys Schools & Programs

Dept of HSH leading this initiative - wants to engage the committee on this initiative - presenting to HLU to help connect this project to BOS and Mayor.

Questions:

Commissioner Quick: thank you for presenting. This is good information to have especially when youth are being denied housing. This committee works on PSH, some of the things you mentioned do seem like they are not allowed (criminal justice involvement), there might be a law that says that landlords can't discriminate. I think this is an interesting initiative and would be great to partner along the way. Whether it be legislation or meeting with HSH.

Commissioner Morris: Do you know any other youth leaders who would want to support this?

Gabe: we have a policy workgroup within Rise Up, we have 1 youth member who can speak to you all.

Commissioner Quick: have you reached out to BOS or Depts?

Gabe: I think alot of people are spread thin and i did bring this up in th

Commissioner Tanaka: next steps, this is something we can take a resolution on & we might need more help

Commissioner Quick: is there a specific meeting or things you're working on that we can help out with?

Gabe: not regarding this. This is the first step.

Commissioner Tanaka: Does the Rise Up initiative have any data collection?

Gabe: I would say we have loose data. We are on the 1 system through HSH & each partner organization. I work with some youth in my case load who have lived experience.

Commissioner Murphy: I saw in the doc you had some ideas for employment, landlord, and property management.

Internal Discussion:

Commissioner Quick: we can get more information on the depts, discuss a resolution later, adn motion to support for today

No public comment. Commissioner Quick motions to support further inquiry for inequities within houseless youth being able to access housing and employment through the housing system, seconded by Commissioner Tanaka. Motion passes by a roll call vote.
