4. Public Comment on Items not on Agenda (2 minutes per public comment)

- Carolyn Goosen, Public Defender's Office:
  - YC being in front of the budget and desire a shift of money from law enforcement to non law enforcement and support values of Black Lives Matter
  - many who are in legal system can't afford legal representation
  - have asked for an addback made up of two requests
    - 1) expanding pre trial release unit (you can't get a PD until you are arraigned). have been doing a pilot but want to expand it so that you can see a PD right away and not have to wait for it to be appointed for you when you are at court. Addback request of adding an attorney plus 2 social workers and a date person. This is a preventative measure
    - 2) PD gets a small fraction of city funding compared to DA that gets double and SFPD that gets 5x so they are requesting parity so folks of color and low income get equal access and equity re: legal support and services

5. Legislation Referred (All Items to Follow are Discussion and Possible Action)

- A. [Inform + Decision] File No. 210563 - [Environment Code - Climate Action Plan]
Sponsor: Mayor London Breed
Presenter: Charles Sheehan, Department of the Environment Staff
(Document B)

Staff from the Department of Environment were not able to speak today and we've been notified that they won't be hearing this legislation in committee until later.

Chair Hylton tables this item for the June 21st, 2021 FYC meeting.

Commissioner Erika Morris logs on at 5:15pm and is marked tardy.

6. Presentations (All Items to Follow are Discussion and Possible Action)

- A. [Inform + Decision] Youth-Led Public Comment Rally
Presenter: Cynthia Bourjac, Community Rights Lead Organizer, Causa Justa|Just Cause (CJJC)

Presentation:

Been in conversation through Budget Justice Coalition, community rights organizer of cjjc - building black and brown unity in bay area - focused on defunding sfpd campaign and part of the budget justice coalition. Every year, we do a budget that ties into funding community needs and part of defunding the sfpd budget to serve community needs and advocating for public safety that doesn't involve policing. The mayor released the budget and sfpd budget has increased and hope to build momentum of youth led, multi-racial led of defund sfpd movement. A lot of ideas are circulating and hoping to create a rally june 24th, before public comment to have it in front of city hall to attract a catapult before the summer.

speakers, art build, with music, build community and show solidarity.

Another event on june 25th - lineup of speakers, and create a social media storm to get bos and mayor and people of San Francisco for a defund sfpd movement going forward, calling for community services, housing, education to prevent people from being continually criminalized. SF has a reputation of progressive city, and the impact of last year with growing conversations on the defund movement and disheartening that the police budget has been increased which means a big need to strategize and build up the movement.

We hope to have an in person rally and have participation by youth to help us organize this and get y'all on board and make this as part of your movement as well.

Questions:

Commissioner Hylton: The sfpd budget is something we are angered by and love to build with the community, can you repeat which day the rally is?

Cynthia: 6/24 4 - 6pm, buffer hours before and after for set up and clean up public comment day 6/25 virtual - 9 - 10am, and a social media week storm we hope you can participate in

- In person rally - Thursday June 24th 4-6pm
- Zoom speaker event - Friday June 25th 9am
- Social Media storm Friday June 25th 10am and on
- Cynthia's contact information: cynthia@cjjc.org

Commissioner Santos: this is something the tj committee feels, distraught isn't even the word for it, even with the endless killings from george floyd and other members of the black and brown community, thank you for bringing this up and led by black and brown youth. What are other ways we can get engaged, that capacity doesn't allow for in person rally - ways to support your work of org at large and relationship going throughout movement and campaigns with organization.

cynthia: this campaign preparing to buckle down, years long of fight - heightened issues of violence of policing, not new issue of black people being affected, just in alignment of the pandemic and isn't a trend for us, or leave in the back burner as limelight leaves as part of an abolitionist movement - it'll take all hands on board, community orgs, youth, and elders through and through we have to show up into these spaces - if not in this budget cycle, all hands on deck - sf in the moment unclear vision of what defund means, which shows creating spaces to have communication and build out how we keep each other safe. because during this time, people are asking about what's the alternative if not police. If not in person rally, help with logistics, planning a rally depends on how many people are able to help, finding a local artist, securing materials for the day off, spreading awareness for this event, plugging in musicians, activism for loud and bold input. i'm going to put my email in the chat to get in touch - still in assessment for power mapping of who is in this movement and continue in summer with defund strategies.

Commissioner Quick: appreciate and echo amara's comment. The youth commission has worked with defundsfpdnow movement throughout this year with a POA contract and wondering if you are in contact and working with them because of budget stuff.

Cynthia: so with cjjc and sfrising coleman advocates - having a public event or action the day before public comment so that's how this emerged but organizing piece is including so many groups, with dphmustdivest and nnsfjc, commissioner quick: great to hear since those are partners with tj

Commissioner Santos: Cynthia, which orgs have you met with as part of reallocating funds and what organizations that work with social needs for housing and social services?

Cynthia: within bjc that has a plethora of organizations from housing advocacy groups, mental health clinicians, we have

Austin: Larkin YAB. Hoping to have BJC HESPA folks present with their youth, no one was able to come today. We also have SOMCAN who do eviction rights work.

Cynthia: This is still a work in progress and opportunity for folks to do initial outreach. A lot of folks who are service providers for mental health, housing, Commissioner Hylton: you mentioned a social media campaign of some kind - do you have flyers that are things that we can post on our social media.

Cynthia: We are still finalizing the social media tool kit and we will have more to share at the end of the week.

Internal Discussion:

7. Youth Commission Business (All Items to Follow are Discussion and Possible Action)

- A. [Inform + Decision] Resolution No. 2021-AL-15 [Supplemental Omnibus Youth Commission Budget Priorities - Priority Programs]
Sponsor: Commissioner Quick
Presenter: Commissioner Quick
(Document C)

Commissioner Quick provides context: earlier this year we passed the Omnibus Budget resolution that approved the YC's budget priorities and recommendations for the city and departments of the upcoming fiscal years. Over the following months we met and presented to staff from city departments, commissions, and the Budget and Appropriations Committee of the BOS.

As of June 1, the proposed budget from the Mayor has been issued and is the first comprehensive budget proposal for the next couple of years. As a way to respond to some of the things in the proposed budget and to formalize the YC's positions since passing the original Omnibus Resolution, Calvin is bringing forward an updated resolution that adds supplements to the original resolution. It is not a replacement but a list of some additional recommendations to include. Some come from Committees, some are cleaned up from FYC with stances taken and to reiterate formally.

Commissioner Quick reads the resolution into the record.

Commissioner Quick and Hylton will be giving another presentation to the BAC this Wednesday. Requesting a suspension of the bylaws to allow for passage on first reading in order to get these voted upon for the BAC presentation.

Questions: none

There is no public comment.

Discussion:

Commissioner Quick motions to suspend the bylaws as specified in Article 9, seconded by Commissioner Santos. Motion passes by roll call vote.
