1 WHEREAS, The majority of these youth will not receive access to housing services
2 because of a lack of funding; and

3
4 WHEREAS, In Los Angeles there are only 468 beds that are supposed to serve 12,000
5 to 15,000 youth;⁴ and

6
7 WHEREAS, While there are many organizations in California that serve homeless
8 youth, there is little collaboration between nonprofits and government-funded programs; and

9
10 WHEREAS, The creation of a statewide Office of the Homeless Youth Advocate, as 11 laid out in Assembly Bill 2547 (Blumenfield), which is currently being considered by the 12 California State Legislature, would improve the coordination of services for homeless youth;
13 and

14
15 WHEREAS, The Office Homeless Youth Advocate would also save the state money by 16 reducing expenditures related to overlapping of services; and

17
18 WHEREAS, Overall, the Office of the Homeless Youth advocate would reduce barriers 19 to service and ensure that more homeless youth are provided with quality services that will 20 greatly improve their living conditions and lives; now, therefore, be it

21
22 RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Youth Commission urges Mayor Lee and the 23 Board of Supervisors to support AB 2547 and the creation of a statewide Office of the
