5 WHEREAS, City College of San Francisco (CCSF) is the largest community college in 6 California serving nearly 100,000 students,¹ and employing many Bay Area residents as 7 instructors, faculty, and administrative staff; and

8 WHEREAS, Since opening its doors in 1935, CCSF has played an active role in the 9 lives and educational achievements of Bay Area residents of all ages, ethnic, academic, and 10 socio-economic backgrounds; and

11 WHEREAS, Including its main campus on Ocean Avenue in San Francisco's 7th 12 supervisorial district, CCSF currently has 9 campuses and additional sites that serve the 13 diverse neighborhoods of San Francisco and demonstrate CCSF's investment in the 14 educational well being of all San Francisco residents; and

15 WHEREAS, Many San Francisco Unified School District graduates attend CCSF after 16 graduation; and

17 WHEREAS, After graduating with their Associates degree, many CCSF students 18 continue their higher education at a California State University (CSU) or University of 19 California (UC) institution and

20 WHEREAS, In early July, 2012, the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior 21 Colleges (ACCJC) released a devastating report that calls into question the future viability of 22 CCSF and demands that CCSF institute changes to address over a dozen major structural 23 issues; now, therefore be it
