7 the Youth Commission to “identify the concerns and needs of the children and youth of San 8 Francisco;” and

9 WHEREAS, Children and youth are often a lost voice in communities, overlooked and 10 discouraged to contribute; and

11 WHEREAS, Even when young people do get involved, their efforts often go uncelebrated and 12 unrewarded; and

13 WHEREAS, It is very important to empower young people to contribute to their communities, 14 as these young people are the next generation of law makers and community activists; and

15 WHEREAS, the San Francisco Youth Commission has identified the need for the 16 encouragement and empowerment of youth to contribute to their community; and

17 WHEREAS, Section 4.124 further states that it is the duty of the San Francisco Youth 18 Commission to “ identify the unmet needs of San Francisco’s children and youth through personal 19 contact with these young people;” and

20 WHEREAS, Personal contact with San Francisco’s young people is often hindered by general 21 ignorance of the existence and purpose of the Youth Commission; and

22 WHEREAS, Further outreach about the Youth Commission is necessary to foster the “personal 23 contact” mandated by the charter; and

24 WHEREAS, Section 4.124 further states that another duty of the Commission is to “elicit the 25 interest, support, and mutual cooperation of private groups (such as fraternal orders, service clubs,

1 associations, churches, businesses, and youth organizations);” and

2 WHEREAS, Outreach (and the subsequent awareness of the Commission’s existence and 3 purpose brought on by outreach) is often insufficient to elicit the ongoing interest and cooperation of 4 private groups; and

5 WHEREAS, An incentive is needed for such private groups to maintain a relationship with the 6 Youth Commission and to refer engaged youth to the Youth Commission; now, therefore, be it

7 RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Youth Commission hereby establishes the San Francisco
