Application for 2014-2015 Term

Who We Are:

The Youth Commission is a group of 17 San Franciscans between the ages of 12 and 23. Each member of the Board of Supervisors appoints one Youth Commissioner, and the Mayor appoints six more.

What We Do:

-Our job, which was created by the voters of San Francisco and makes us accountable to the whole City, is to stand up for the needs of all young people in the policy and legislative debates at City Hall.

-Whether it comes to MUNI, housing, education, juvenile justice or health and wellness, we serve as authentic advisors on youth issues to the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor. (See the next page for some examples of our recent work.)

-We read laws, talk to Supervisors and the Mayor Office, hold discussions with other young people in our communities, organize events and hearings, do research on policy and write resolutions.

How We Do It:

-Youth Commissioners can influence government in a number of ways.

-For example, the Youth Commission must consider any proposed law that would affect young people and decide whether or not the proposed law would be good for young people. Youth Commissioners then have opportunity to convince lawmakers to pass or reject the proposed law.

-Also, Youth Commissioners can develop their own policies and laws relating to young people and try to convince the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors to pass them.

When:

-The Youth Commission is a very serious time commitment.

-The commission has a minimum time requirement of 15 hours per month, spread out over about 4 hours per week.

-There are full commission meetings that you are required to attend at least twice a month. There are also at least three other kinds of meetings you must attend at least once a month: small committee meetings, meetings with members of the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor's Office, and meetings with young people outside of City Hall in various communities across the city.

Do I Need Previous Experience?

-No! Anybody can be a Youth Commissioner!

-The only requirements are that you live in San Francisco and be between the ages of 12 and 23 when you are appointed.

-And: be passionate about youth and community issues—about the decisions the City makes that affect you and your friends!

Do I Get Paid?

-No—the City Charter doesn't allow Youth Commissioners to be paid.

-However, you can receive health care.

RECENT EXAMPLES OF OUR WORK

Free MUNI Fast Passes for low- and moderate-income youth

In February 2010, MUNI planned to raise the price of the Youth Fast Pass to $30/month at the same time as San Francisco students were experiencing cut-backs to yellow school bus service.

After first working to get a limited number of discounted passes approved, the Youth Commission worked with community-based organizations to advocate for Free MUNI for San Francisco Youth. In 2012, MUNI's Board of Directors approved a 16-month pilot that would provide 40,000 eligible youth free bus passes beginning in March 2013.

Over 35,000 low- and moderate-income San Francisco youth have signed up for this program so far!

We are working to ensure this program continues next year. Ask us about how to apply for a pass!

LGBTQ Sensitivity in City Services

Concerned about the experiences of lesbian, gay, bi, trans, queer, and questioning youth accessing city services, youth commissioners made a motion calling on the Board of Supervisors to host a hearing on the implementation of LGBTQ sensitivity training for youth-serving staff in the city.

Three members of the Board of Supervisors hosted a hearing in Spring 2013. At this hearing, youth, city departments, and community members discussed learning objectives of the staff training and assessed administrative barriers to LGBTQ's youth's access to city services. The commissioners are currently organizing a coalition of department heads to revisit the language of the charter.

Working for the rights of youth in the juvenile justice system

Full Youth Commission Meeting

Come to a meeting RUN BY YOUTH, FOR YOUTH on Juvenile Justice issues. The Youth Commission advises the Board of Supervisors and Mayor on youth related issues on your behalf. Let your representatives know your thoughts on the youth justice priorities the commission has been working on!

Members of the Youth Commission's youth justice committee have worked on several initiatives aimed at protecting the rights of justice-system involved youth. Youth commissioners have promoted a restorative and rehabilitative approach to juvenile justice by advocating for full access to the recreation yard at juvenile hall. They have advocated against the arming of juvenile probation officers with firearms and for police training on youth-police interactions to promote better understanding and the use of de-escalation techniques.

HOW TO APPLY

The application process and timeline for the 2014-2015 term are as follows:

Fill out the attached application (i.e., personal information, applicant agreement, and essay questions) and turn it in to the Youth Commission (by fax, email, regular mail or in person). The application is due XYZ at 6:00pm. Late applications will not be accepted.

Come in for an interview with Youth Commission staff.

Exact dates and times will be announced after you turn in your application.

The Board of Supervisors and the Mayor's Office might ask you to come in and do their own interviews. You are welcome to contact the Mayor and the Board yourself! Just ask us how.

The Youth Commission staff make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor's Office of who to appoint to the commission. Ultimately, the members of the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor choose who to appoint to the Youth Commission. We hope the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors make their appointments by June 13th, 2014 (or soon thereafter).

The 2013-2014 Youth Commission term begins at the Beginning of the Year Retreat on August 22, 23 and 24 2014.

ESSAY QUESTIONS

- 1) Why do you want to be a Youth Commissioner?
- 2) What are some issues that affect you or your community? If you had a meeting with the Mayor or a member of the Board of Supervisors tomorrow, what would you talk about with them and advise them on?
- 3) What are some of your past accomplishments that you are proud of?
- 4) The Youth Commission requires a commitment of at least 15 hours a month. In order to truly make an impact, it is often necessary to go beyond that minimum commitment. What other commitments do you have during the school year and in what ways are you prepared to dedicate time to meet the Commission's goals?
- 5) Please provide a letter of recommendation—a few paragraphs are sufficient—from someone not in your family (for example, a teacher, counselor, probation officer, etc.) regarding your work. THIS IS OPTIONAL. If you can't get or don't want to submit a letter of recommendation, please explain why.
