9 Summer Learning Day is the kickoff event and a nation-wide celebration of the San Francisco's 10 summer programs that support communities and their youth. Coordinated by the San Francisco
11 Summer Learning Network, this event will raise recognition of the importance of quality summer 12 opportunities that help enrich the young people of San Francisco. Numerous programs and 13 organizations will also be participating in a resource fair in Civic Center Plaza, from 11am-3pm, on 14 June 20. The City & County and the San Francisco Unified School District and the Department of 15 Children, Youth and Their Families are also part of the network behind this event. Also hosting the 16 resource fair is MO' MAGIC, a District 5 community based organization that serves youth and families.
17 This event is apart of their Summer Learning Series, an eight-week youth summer enrichment 18 programming that will include two workshop events involving city government and public policy.

20 In the previous years, the Youth Commission has participated and co-sponsored Summer Learning
21 Day. Two commissioners will also have a chance to MC the event and do a welcoming and closing 22 speech. Commissioner Jina Bae has been in touch with Mo' Magic and will be one of the two
