7 WHEREAS, According to the Public Policy Institute of California, roughly 30,000 of San 8 Francisco's 809,000 residents are undocumented immigrants¹, and over 5,000 of San Francisco's 9 undocumented residents are youth ages 14-24²; and

10 WHEREAS, Undocumented youth have historically faced barriers in accessing employment, 11 scholarships, loans, state and federal services, and other opportunities; and

12 WHEREAS, San Francisco's public sector youth employment programs, such as JVS³ and 13 YouthWorks⁴, as a result of federal hiring requirements historically have not offered employment to 14 undocumented youth who would otherwise be eligible; and

15 WHEREAS, In March of 2011, the Transitional Age Youth San Francisco Initiative's Young 16 Adult Advisory Board's (TAYSF-YAA), in conjunction with the Workforce Investment San Francisco
17 (WISF) Community Advisory Committee (WICAC), organized a Youth Employment Forum at City
18 College of San Francisco in which participants consistently identified the requirement of U.S.

7 development programming⁶; and

8 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Youth Commission conducted an Immigrant Youth Summit in 9 October of 2011, where surveys and focus groups conducted with 99 students—almost all of whom 10 were first or second generation—from seven San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) and 11 County high schools all pointed to citizenship status as one of the main barriers to attaining meaningful 12 employment⁷; and

13 WHEREAS, President Barack Obama announced a summer jobs initiative known as “Summer 14 Jobs+” in January 2012 to call on businesses to work with non-profits and government to provide 15 workforce development opportunities for low-income and disconnected youth in the summer of 2012; 16 and

17 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Youth Commission passed resolution no. 1112-05 “Urging the 18 Mayor and the Board to commend President Obama’s Summer Jobs+ Plan”⁸ in order to call attention

5 Plan and Recommending the Development of a Similar Plan for Youth in San Francisco"⁹; and

6 WHEREAS, While the 2012 Summer Jobs+ Program provided employment opportunities for 7 over 5,200 young people¹⁰, many of San Francisco's most marginalized young people—in particular, 8 San Francisco's 5,000 undocumented young people ages 14-24—were barred from accessing 9 employment opportunities throughout the program¹¹; and

10 WHEREAS, At the urging of the San Francisco Youth Commission, Coleman Advocates for 11 Children & Youth, and other community-based organizations, the United Way of the Bay Area and 12 DCYF jointly funded a pilot program run by community partners CHALK, LYRIC, and the Mission

1 (0.84% of the population) compared to 6,817 jobs out of approximately 94,325¹³ youth ages 14-24 in 2 San Francisco (7.23% of the population); and

3 WHEREAS, Pursuant to Chapter 12H.1 of the San Francisco Administrative Code, the City and 4 County of San Francisco is a City and County of Refuge or Sanctuary City¹⁴, which prohibits City
5 employees from helping Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) with immigration investigations 6 or arrests unless such help is required by federal or state law or a warrant¹⁵; and

7 WHEREAS, While Youth Employment Programs using federal and state funds must comply 8 with federal and state hiring requirements, many of San Francisco's employment programs use
9 general fund dollars and other funds with less restriction—especially given San Francisco's 10 commitment as a Sanctuary City—which would allow for undocumented youth to participate in the 11 programs; and

12 WHEREAS, Youth Employment Programs can pay participants using alternative methods such 13 as prepaid gift cards, educational scholarships, and separate individual stipends from multiple 14 employment entities in amounts smaller than $600 (the main form of payment during the 15 aforementioned undocumented youth pilot program); and

16 WHEREAS, As per Charter SEC 4.124, the San Francisco Youth Commission is committed to 17 identifying and proposing solutions to meet the “unmet needs” of the youth population in San 18 Francisco, and ensuring that the city's undocumented youth have equitable access to employment 19 opportunities is an unmet need; now,

20 THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Youth Commission urges the Board
21 of Supervisors and the Mayor to do whatever possible—including but not limited to utilizing payment
