2 Amaechi]

3 Resolution Commending Youth Teonna Frierso, Kiana Frierso, Eugene Holbert, Sabrina
4 McFarland and Richard Amaechi, for their outstanding efforts and contributions they have
5 offered to support their community in San Francisco

6 WHEREAS, these young people serve as role models and examples of how youth should 7 support their community and each other.

8 WHEREAS, Teonna and Kiana have donated their time, energy, and unfailing cheerfulness to 9 the River of Life Church’s Sunday Morning Breakfast program.

10 WHEREAS, Teonna and Kiana both serve breakfast every Sunday with respect and diligent
11 care, and the guests take away not only a meal but also a measure of Teonna’s and Kiana’s warmth
12 and positivity.

13 WHEREAS, through all the hard work and tedious behind the scenes management, these 14 young ladies never complain and are always ready to contribute both their good nature and their hard
15 work. The success of the Breakfast Program owes much to Kiana and Teonna, and the community
16 wishes to honor and express its gratitude for their service.

17 WHEREAS, as an intern at the Hawkins Youth Clinic, Eugene showed his commitment to 18 service, expressed his personality and brought humor, sensitivity, and positive support to all around 19 him.

20 WHEREAS, his good wishes for his friends and co-volunteers enlivened the program and 21 brought joy into others’ lives and his openness to new experiences and his engaged attitude made
22 him a role model to others, and enabled the success of his peers.

23 WHEREAS, Sabrina served as a youth intern for the Hawkins Youth Clinic, and in bringing her
24 own personality and gifts she inspired others.

25 WHEREAS, as a focused, directed, and positive person, she showed others that concerted

1 action could actually bring about the bright future that we all dream of creating.

2 WHEREAS, her dreams are not just dreams but are goals to reach, and her go-getter mentality
3 gave hope to those around her that these goals are achievable.

4 WHEREAS, Richard began working at Britton Court in 2013 as a MYEEP worker, and since
5 then he has continued his service to the center by volunteering in other capacities.

6 WHEREAS, his ongoing commitment to this volunteer work is especially commendable given
7 his considerable accomplishments in other arenas.

8 WHEREAS, as a hard- working student at Lincoln High School, Richard is an award-winning
9 high jumper and also serves as President of the Black Student Union.

10 WHEREAS, he shares his accomplishments with humility and respect in his volunteer work at 11 Britton Court, serving as an outstanding role model to the children who come to the after-school
12 program and motivates others to work harder and contributes his own hard work for the betterment of 13 his entire community, lifting as he climbs.

14 RESOLVED, that the 2015-2016 San Francisco Youth Commission does hereby honor Teonna
15 Frierso, Kiana Frierso, Eugene Holbert, Sabrina McFarland, and Richard Amaechi for their outstanding 16 efforts in volunteering and full commitment to their community.

17 RESOLVED, that these young people continue to excel in all aspects of their lives and continue
18 to give back to their community.
