6. Legislation Referred from the Board of Supervisors (All Items to Follow Discussion and Possible Action)

- A. BOS File No. 160022 – [Due Process for All Notification]
Sponsor: Supervisors Avalos, Campos, Kim, Mar, Peskin
Presenter: Jeremy Pollock, Legislative Aide to Supervisor Avalos
(Document G)

Supervisor John Avalos came to give a presentation. In 1989 San Francisco started a sanctuary city program. In 2013 there were a lot of federal changes to how immigration interacts with local police enforcement. During this time San Francisco updated their due process for all emphasizing how the local law enforcement will contact immigration. This legislation is an update to the Due Process for All ordinance in line with the federal updates. This also takes away a loophole that gives the sheriff's office ultimate discretion over this.

No public comment.

Chair Avalos-Nunez stated that he supports this legislation.

Jarrett Mao arrived at 5:50 PM.

Commissioner Plunkett stated that he feels the Youth Commission should support the socio-health of the community of San Francisco. Commissioner Bernick agreed with Commissioner Plunkett's statement.

Commissioner Avalos-Nunez, seconded by Commissioner Bernick, motioned to support this legislation. Motion passes by acclamation.

- B. BOS File No. 160065 – [Police Code – Paid Parental Leave for Bonding with New Child]
Sponsor: Supervisor Wiener
Presenter: Andres Power, Legislative Aide to Supervisor Wiener
(Document H)

Legislative aide, Andres Power, gave an explanation of the paid parental leave for bonding with new child.

Commissioner He asked if there has been any opposition. Andres Powers stated that although there is strong support in some parts of the business community, there is concern in others.

Commissioner Avalos-Nunez asks if this applies to part-time workers as well. Andres Powers states that it applies to part-time workers as well.

Commissioner Plunkett wanted to know what the definition is for seriously ill for paid family leave. Andres Powers stated that this ordinance only applies to bonding with a child. The state paid family leave program is a piece of the disability program.

Commissioner Soto asked if this applies to women while they are pregnant. Andres Powers stated that this legislation is mainly to supplement the state's leave program that mostly applies to the parent who isn't birthing the child. For women who give birth, they have the option of the state disability program and the paid family leave program.

Commissioner Kong arrived at 6:15 PM

Commissioner Bernick asked if a woman has a baby who is premature, would this legislation apply to that situation. Andres Powers stated that that circumstance would fall under state disability program or the paid family leave program.

Public comment stated that she studied psychology and that all the studies show how important the first year of a baby's life is and how crucial time spent with family is.

Commissioner Matz made a previous comment in support of this legislation. It was read into the record by staff Adele Failes-Carpenter.

Commissioner Bernick, seconded by Commissioner Li, made a motion to support. This motion passes by acclamation.

This legislation will be heard at the budget committee in mid-March.

- C. BOS File No. 160109 – [Hearing Request on Department of Homelessness & City's Comprehensive Action Plan to Address Needs of Homeless Residents]
Sponsor: Supervisor Cohen; Kim, Breed, Campos
(Document I)

There was no presentation for this legislation.

Commissioner Plunkett, seconded by Commissioner Soto, motioned to have his statement "asking the supervisors how they will support TAY" included in a referral response. Motion passed by acclamation.

Commissioner Avalos motioned to send a formal recommendation to the board to look for ways to create a committee to address family homelessness between SFUSD and a new department on homelessness. Seconded by Commissioner Li. Motion was passed by acclamation.
