(Document A)

There was no public comment. Commissioner Quick motioned to approve of November 4th, 2019 minutes, seconded by Commissioner Asfaw. The motion passes by a vote of acclamation.

4. Public Comment on Items not on Agenda (2 minutes per public comment)

Monica Flores, DCYF, youth empowerment coordinator, spoke in public comment to promote Youth Advocacy Day. They hope to host the 10th year of Youth Advocacy Day (YAD) for 2020, still recruiting for youth leaders and come back for a presentation to have official support of YAD on Dec 2nd, 2019.
5. Legislation Referred from the Board of Supervisors (All Items to Follow Discussion and Possible Action)

   Presenter: Chelsea Boilard, Legislative Aide to Supervisor Fewer (Document B)

   Chelsea Boilard (CB) & BOS Supervisor Fewer came out of Coleman Advocates, came to run the city budget campaigns. They organized for young people and families to influence the budget process for childcare and programming.

   CB: How big is the city budget?
   Commissioner Versace: 12.2 Billion

   CB: Young people and families don’t often have their voices heard in the budget process. In the last year, we’ve hoped to build consensus on the priorities in the process and having the structure that is accountable to the community. When I started in 2007 our budget was 6 billion and the first budget cut was 25% because of the recession. The process for approving the city budget is very simple: December (mayor releases budget instructions based on the economy every year 1-3% cut), Jan - Feb (dpt propose budget and submit to mayor), March - May (mayor review), June (mayor submits to BOS), June - July (BOS review and add backs), Aug (mayor signs)

   CB: examples of the city departments?
   Commissioner Ty: dph
   Commissioner Quick: hsh
   Commissioner Cureton: dcyf

   CB: We are hoping this legislation can create accessibility for the way in and how the public can make their voices heard in this process. There are depts. exempt from public hearings are elected official or no oversight body taken place for community review. All depts. will hold a public hearing through advisory body and oversight process if there’s a commission. for good governance we want public presentation and feedback from all of them

   CB: Mayor’s process -- hoping to recruit process and budget before april 1st. to submit budget priorities. when dpts submit budget should go to the mayor and bos, this is important because the bos only gets to touch budget on june 1st. the month of june BLA takes analysis on as much as they can, so that analysts can get budget sooner to have more opportunity to make changes as they want.
Commissioner Cureton: is willing to extend the ppt by 2 more minutes as information is important.

CB: what is currently cool in the process, the original intention was income - not thinking about long term and five year plan, to force board more intentional about revenue side of things, but it’s redundant because budget name might change in committee, will recognize budget chair will talk about timeline and structure (for full transparency to weigh in on process) missing out on the process. we are proposing to set up february asking controller to have relevant documents (calendar) for posting so public can navigate process and doing better.

Questions
Commissioner Asfaw: language is inaccessible to youth with what’s going on, will legislation address that?
CB: what we are mandating for the budget documents to include, having ppts. and we do need to have a budget process more accessible, budget workshops and city needs to fund that to break down the process in a more accessible way to translate - but it does say presentations should be on webpage

Commissioner Asfaw: public hearing, will city departments on youth - will it happen afterschool cb: not specific in legislation, dcyf (oac) is after school,
Commissioner Cureton: we can make a motion to support and add as a recommendation to this

Commissioner Hirji: mayor is to hold open public meetings about budget, will it happen at the same time as dpt hold open process? what will the mayor's meetings have that dpts won’t have?
CB : mayor is entire city budget, dpt is specific to their own. we said april 1st because we didn’t want it to be too prescriptive so that the budget will be in mayor’s shop to digest and then ask the public for input - but they can occur at any point and leave it open dpd on process whether or not the budget will have a budget on that process.

Comment:
Commissioner quick: omnibus process, it is true that some dpts have open process about budget, dpts such as hsh have no commission it was difficult to acquire information and get meetings to people that matter that youth need - great opportunity for yc to do this,

There was no discussion.

There was no public comment.

Commissioner Nassiri motioned to support with recommendation on including language on accessible diction. Commissioner Quick amended the motion to support with added language require dpt interacting with youth and to have their public meetings on youth accessible hours, seconded by Commissioner Asfaw. The motion passes by a vote of acclamation.
Jen Low: in honor of world children's day wed nov 20th, came to our attention as parents were looking at international movement that urban cities can be designed with children and families in mind. beyond services and programs - we wanted to figure out the environment. what does it look like for future and current generations? open spaces? safer streets? youth to feel a sense of belonging. to start a conversation and expand that. world’s Children’s Day came about UN - rights of children - what is alarming to us is that the US has not ratified the convention and speaks a lot to how we value young people. 1) is to commemorate this day given injustices to youth and 2) urban movement to design a city for young people. 11 cosponsors in BOS and amazing conversations in mayor for what this looks like in sf and how we can create meaningful and participatory processes as part of feedback and not in silos and implement it in our decision making. would love to turn it into a parent - advocate for serena to talk about child friendly city looks world - wide.

Serena: long time city resident, 7 year old sfusd parent, advocate of child friendly cities. quote: “children are indicator species”. goal of presentation for a system change framework to spark ideas on how we can transform sf where youth can thrive and part of cultural pride. how can we build a successful city?

international treaty - rights of child: participation/survival and healthy development, emerging child friendly city movement that looks at ways design can meet the needs of its citizens - gaps that sf has in shaping the fabric of our city
  - safe streets
  - public realm
    - reclaim for empathy and connection
  - housing designed
    - children and families as a priority in our housing supply
  - child participation and equity
    - closing racial and social inequity gaps

Glimpse of metrics:
  - lowest population of children
  - large population of child bearing population
  - housing supply is up but not building it for families in mind
  - routes to schools are not safe
  - young children are not healthy (food access, safe streets)
where and how can we implement strategies in alignment
- safe streets
  - sfmTA, vision zero, transit first bos - will name intent to support UN rights, we have a long way to go

Commissioner Cureton: extend presentation by 1 min

questions:
- Commissioner Santos: US is the only country that has not ratified it and what does it look like?
  - su: 180 UN members, out of those have ratified treaty and it looks different around the world dpd on resources, natural disasters and varies from developed and undeveloped countries
- Commissioner Santos: have you had a discussion on marginalized children, as citizens is loaded because not all are citizens? equitable resources and displacement of nature for poc and why folks don’t have access that - my question is what’s being done to uplift marginalized children for example usage of citizen?
  - su: nature as access to open space, safe streets, - we want to acknowledge that there are folks that don’t have access to those spaces first to address as a priority
  - jl: citizen is not in resolution - because so much of our resolution and in our foremind is about immigration crisis, that the federal gov’t locks children in cages, and thanks for bringing it up and will double check it’s not indicated in the legislation and being mindful of speech we use. in terms of equity, if sf is to embark on this initiative, we need equity lens to acknowledge we don’t start at the same space and make it safe for communities, and denser neighborhoods might need different things and will acknowledge as part of equity lens
- Commissioner Asfaw: goals for san francisco, wanted to clarify what safe routes through sfmTA
  - su: program under mta to look at ways that children and families can have safe routes to schools,
- Commissioner Cureton: why hasn’t board not brought it up before as this was in the 80s?
  - jl: only on board with yee for 6-7 years, may have honored it - Children's Day in June, we may have alluded to this with a sup., we’ve always passed rights on children and youth this might be the first, given what’s happening nationally and locally, this needs to be done
- Commissioner Quick: page 5 ocof: community assessment?
  - jl: council has to sign into it, director is supportive and talking internally, missing piece is youth in the equation and making sure youth and children at the table, there is interest
- Commissioner Asfaw: resolution passes - what are the next steps?
  - immediate asks: child / youth friendly city and using the framework - hoping this or next week make announcement with counterparts in dpts to work on
- something collaboratively - great to hear about it today and meant a lot to sign on and pass own resolution to this regard

- Commissioner Cureton: 2040 goals isn’t in the legislation

-jl: develop own goals by yourself

- mindful of language not using citizen and identify needs of black and brown children first
- resolved clause on pg 5 line 15 -16, great focused needs to make sure child friendly and speaking to the issue of equity
- Commissioner Santos - black and brown - most effectively better beneficial to support and naming impact

There was no public comment.

Commissioner Quick motioned to input Commissioner Santos’ recommendations, seconded by Commissioner Chan. The motion passes by a vote of acclamation.

kiely: conversation about discussion on training & staff role

Being in “The Grey”

- Acknowledge that the Executive Committee was having a juicy conversation about bureaucracy, accessibility, youth engagement, and youth community
- Staff wants to chime in and create a larger conversation with the rest of the Commissioners, albeit coming from a staff perspective...hence why in Staff Report
We fully understand that we are in a very unique position having to uphold laws such as the Brown Act and the Sunshine Ordinance AND best practices regarding youth development and youth leadership. These do not naturally go hand in hand and staff is the holder of bridging both of them.

Because of this, we are in “The Grey”. Some people thrive in grey areas. Some people do not. They could be mild to incredibly uncomfortable being in the grey because all they know and feel solid in is black or white.

We heard that some folks were uncomfortable with the boundary workshop being during the full YC meeting. We also heard that people really appreciated the conversation and were more comfortable. We come back to this unique entity of being a chartered commission that must follow certain laws and regulations, and the same time of also serving and providing resources that are accessible to young people.

From the Youth Commission staff, perspective—we are aware and merging these conflicting worlds. We ask that you trust the staff that we aren’t trying to “do you dirty” and will hold both as well as we possibly can.

It is very rare that the YC has gotten feedback on how we run our meetings and has only happened 1-2 times that we got feedback on law/regulation side. We were receptive to the information and we changed it. Nothing bad happened, nothing blew up, and no negative repercussions were anywhere in sight.

My, and the team’s, interpreting the rules and regulations from youth development and leadership lens, means that the Youth Commission staff can best support young people (you!) in your leadership development and continue to ATTEMPT to make government accessible.

To give some insight and transparency to what my role is, my job description literally states:

- “Tracks, interprets and ensures compliance with legislation, such as the Brown Act, Sunshine Ordinance, and other legal requirements”
- AND
- “Develops and leads a comprehensive training program for commissioners in their roles as appointed public officials”

So I am trying to fulfill my own job duties by holding both of these as well. Itzel’s position is even more specific with what she is to provide for y’all.

What staff is asking is this:

- Be open to discomfort and to be in the grey. We are all figuring this out together.
- Trust the Youth Commission staff. We are constantly checking in with each other and with y’all so we can best support you. At the end of the day, we are going to fulfill the legal requirements as well as the best ways to support you in your leadership, which means mini workshops or trainings during your full YC meetings.

Discussion:

- Commissioner Asfaw: legal requirements for boundary setting, official publish bare minimum, will the minutes from that still be accessible - one that’s for public and one for yc?
- Staff Hosmon: that can be something for us to figure out, boundary is raw and didn't want to write down that and not necessary

Staff Hosmon: content and curriculum can give as extra packets and address what we can talk about

- Commissioner Quick: main concerns in exec about last workshop while yes training was boundary implicated how youth commissioners say yes or no to other communities, this is what youth commission as body can interact does affect people outside,
  - kh: something to strongly be in minutes, just say it and put it in there
- Staff Estrada: trust us
- Staff Truong: community care, and making sense of where we can be flexible, and making sure it's a dynamic isn't us vs. them
- Commissioner ty: it helps to be transparent to do the best work for us in our communities

10. Announcements (This Includes Community Events)

Commissioner Cheung: d1 nominations and d11 youth fellow program - youth council but more action based for highschoolers 1x a week, 500 stipend, and interested, deadline extended to this friday, flyer in email & social media
  - be connected to d1

11. Adjournment

Commissioner Cureton adjourned the meeting at 7:02 pm.
SUMMARY
This bill would establish the first statewide advisory body to the government comprised solely of youth. Additionally, this bill details the composition, duties, and powers of the commission.

BACKGROUND
Currently, there are over 130 active local youth commissions in California that advise municipalities on issues affecting youth. Over 20 other states have state-wide youth advisory council structures written into statute. Youth commissions have proven their effectiveness and impact as seen in the San Francisco Youth Commission’s work on youth homelessness and incarceration.

PROBLEM
All too often, the state government and adults make critical decisions on policy affecting the lives of young Californians, without any direct input from the youth themselves. This leads to a fundamental under-representation of the over 9 million young Californians under the age of 18. Now more than ever, issues affecting youth have become more pressing, such as climate change and gun safety, and young people find themselves frustrated with their lack of participation in shaping their futures. Furthermore, foster youth, incarcerated youth, and youth who suffer from other adverse childhood experiences seldom have the resources to advocate for themselves. There is a lack of state leadership on engaging local youth organizations and unifying them under a single goal: empowering youth.

SOLUTION
This bill establishes a 24 person commission with 5 ex-officio members in the state government of youth ages 14-25. The commission would be consisted of youth appointed by the Governor. This bill mandates that every region of California is represented, there is an equal distribution of age, and that at least half of the members on the commission have experienced youth homelessness, foster care, disabilities, or juvenile incarceration. Commissioners should be appointed for their passion and experience, not purely grades and achievements.

The commission’s establishment will depend directly on whether or not funding is appropriated in the state budget. The commission will need at least two, full-time staff be entirely cost-free to students to ensure equity and accessibility.

The commission’s mission is to empower under-represented youth with formal opportunities to engage in California’s civic process. Ultimately, the commission will have three interconnected goals with focuses on civic engagement, education, social equality, human and social services, workforce development, and public safety.

1. Policy Development – The commission will formally articulate positions on youth-related policy, study and review current deficiencies regarding youth, draft model legislation, and provide testimony to promote the services for and empowerment of all young people.

2. Community Engagement – The commission will hold meetings and roundtables to engage with the youth public and advocacy groups around the state to identify unmet needs of the state’s youth. The commission may also educate the youth public by holding assemblies or distributing resources at school. Additionally, youth public members may be appointed to specialized policy advisory boards and task forces or may serve as ambassadors to their communities.

3. Investment in Youth – The commission will have the resources to award grants to organizations that work directly with young people, such as programs that find housing for homeless youth or help low-income students prepare for higher education. Grants may also go to local youth commissions or other youth-led advocacy organizations.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 8260) is added to Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

Chapter 3.4. California Youth Empowerment Act

Article 1. Title

8260. This chapter shall be known, and may be cited, as the California Youth Empowerment Act.

Article 2. Legislative Findings and Declarations

8261. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The needs and issues affecting youth are most accurately addressed by youth themselves.
(b) Young people in California have demonstrated their passion for the civic process and getting involved, as seen in the spike in voter turnout from the 2014 midterm elections, where 8 percent of California voters between 18 and 24 years of age voted, to the 2018 midterm elections, where 27.5 percent of California voters between 18 and 24 years of age voted.
(c) Young people have also shown their desire for change in social and public policy, as shown in advocacy efforts relating to gun reform, education, affordable housing, juvenile justice, health, jobs, and climate change.
(d) There are over 9,000,000 youths in California under 18 years of age as of the most recent data, compiled in 2017. Of those, an estimated 200,000 minors and thousands more youth between 18 and 24 years of age experience homelessness each year. Research shows that approximately 60,000 children are in the foster care system in California at any one time, and less than 1 percent of the 225,000 youths arrested in California currently occupy juvenile justice facilities. Youth who are homeless, in the juvenile justice system, or in foster care have limited opportunities to participate in the policy process that ultimately impacts their well-being.
(e) The government is designed to address input and participation from the people being served; however, youth under 18 years of age, who cannot vote, do not have a formal way to participate in the civic process.
(f) There is a growing need to engage our youth directly with policymakers in a manner that will provide genuine opportunities for our youth to acquire civic knowledge and develop the skills necessary to participate fully in a democratic society.
(g) Over 20 other states have statewide youth entities codified into law for the purpose of advising their respective legislatures and governors.
(h) The California Youth Commission, as established by this chapter, is intended to provide model legislation and advocacy for the needs of youth.

Article 3. Definitions

8262. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) “Commission” means the California Youth Commission established in Section 8263.
(b) “Commissioner” means a voting member of the California Youth Commission.

Article 4. Creation and Membership
There is in the state government the California Youth Commission. The commission shall consist of 24 voting commissioners to be appointed as follows:

1. Twenty public members appointed by the Governor, subject to the following requirements:
   A. The terms of these commissioners initially shall be staggered so that 10 members serve one-year terms and 10 members serve two-year terms. To achieve the staggering of terms, the Governor shall designate the terms of the present members of the commission who have been appointed by the Governor.
   B. Two of the commissioners shall reside, work, or attend school in each region described in subdivision (b).
   C. Ten of the commissioners shall be between the ages of 14 and 18.
   D. Ten of the commissioners shall be between the ages of 18 and 25.
   E. At least 10 commissioners shall have experienced a physical disability, youth homelessness, foster care, or juvenile incarceration.
2. Two at-large public members appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.
3. Two at-large public members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

For the purposes of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), these regions are defined as follows:

1. The Superior California region consists of the Counties of Butte, Colusa, El Dorado, Glenn, Lassen, Modoc, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sacramento, Shasta, Sierra, Siskiyou, Sutter, Tehama, Yolo, and Yuba.
2. The North Coast region consists of the Counties of Del Norte, Humboldt, Lake, Mendocino, Napa, Sonoma, and Trinity.
3. The San Francisco Bay area region consists of the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Mateo, Santa Clara, and Solano, and the City and County of San Francisco.
4. The Northern San Joaquin Valley region consists of the Counties of Alpine, Amador, Calaveras, Madera, Mariposa, Merced, Mono, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, and Tuolumne.
5. The Central Coast region consists of the Counties of Monterey, San Benito, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz, and Ventura.

In addition to subdivision (a), one Member of the Senate appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, one Member of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, the Governor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Surgeon General shall serve as nonvoting members of the commission.

All appointing powers shall take into consideration that the members of the commission represent the geographical, racial, ethnic, socioeconomic, cultural, physical, and educational diversity of California’s youth. Particular emphasis and funding should be used on reaching out to at-risk or disadvantaged youth to serve as members of the commission, as their participation will provide keen insight into many of the issues that youth face in their day-to-day lives.

Excluding the initial staggering of terms, commissioners shall serve two-year terms. Commissioners shall be between 14 and 25 years of age. If a commissioner turns 26 years of age during their term, that commissioner shall be allowed to complete the term. A commissioner must be a resident of California. A commissioner may seek reappointment as long as they fulfill the requirements pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 8267.
(e) (1) Attending a meeting of the commission as a commissioner shall be a lawful excuse for a student to be absent from school, under paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 48205 of the Education Code, if approved by the principal or a designated representative pursuant to uniform standards established by the governing board.
(2) A student excused from school attendance under this section may not be recorded as being absent on any date for which the excuse is operative and may not be penalized by the school in any manner.
(f) A commissioner’s position becomes vacant, under the approval of the executive director, in the event of any of the following:
(1) Death of a commissioner.
(2) Resignation of a commissioner.
(3) Change in residence of a commissioner to outside of California.
(4) Failure of restorative practices for inappropriate conduct, unexcused absences, or inability to complete expected duties of a commissioner.
(g) In the event of a vacancy, the appointing power that appointed the commissioner shall appoint a replacement in the same manner as the original appointment within 30 days of the vacancy.

8265. (a) No later than March 1 of each year, the executive director, appointed pursuant to Section 8274, shall both:
(1) Release to the public on its internet website the procedures for the general application process to assist public members in the appointment process and facilitate communications between public members and the appointing powers.
(2) Have created and made the application publicly available on its internet website.
(b) The executive director shall also notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities, the Regents of the University of California, the California State University, and the California Community Colleges Chancellor’s office that the application for an appointment is open. The notice shall include the requirements for an appointment, a copy of the application, and a request to transmit the notice to all students in California.
(c) In reviewing general applications, the executive director may consider additional relevant selection criteria and conduct interviews.
(d) The executive director may recommend public members to be appointed to the appointing powers, but there shall be no right or obligation on the part of the appointing powers to appoint those public members.

8266. (a) Each public member of the commission shall receive three hundred dollars ($300) per diem while on official business of the commission. Each member of the commission shall also be entitled to receive their actual necessary traveling expenses while on official business of the commission.
(b) Each commissioner shall be reimbursed for any necessary food, travel, or lodging expenses associated with the duties of the commission.

8267. (a) The commission shall elect a chair, vice chair and clerk from among its members at the first meeting of the year.

(1) A chair who shall conduct the meetings, draft bylaws, serve as the primary liaison to the government, and oversee the formation of committees as necessary to accomplish the business of the commission.
(2) A vice chair who shall assist the chair and conduct the meetings of the commission if the chair is absent or otherwise unable to perform their duties.
(3) A clerk who shall keep and maintain the minutes of the meetings, regularly update the internet website, pursuant to Section 8272, and record the final votes on any measure for vote by the chair.

Article 5. Purposes, Duties, and Powers

8268. With respect to its duties, the commission shall be an advisory commission only. There shall be no right or obligation on the part of the state, or parties meeting and conferring, to implement the findings of the commission without further legislation that specifically authorizes that the evaluations, determinations, and findings of the commission be implemented.

8269. The commission’s main purpose is to provide meaningful opportunities for actual civic engagement to improve the quality of life for California’s disconnected and disadvantaged youth. Furthermore, youths involved with the commission will make meaningful recommendations regarding legislation and policies that impact their own lives and the lives of millions of other youths in California whose voices often go unheard.

8270. The commission shall conduct full commission meetings at least every other month, with the first meeting in August 2021.
