C. Debrief Full YC from November 30th, 2020

Commissioner Quick: cool presentation, port presentation. other folks participated that don't normally.

Commissioner Hylton: more people were participating

Staff Estrada: Commissioner Hylton did a good job with the disclaimer at the beginning, asking for more participation

Commissioner Quick: moving forward unless presenters have youth impacting information, we shouldn't schedule then. Next time for the port, maybe we can do a suggestion from a broader way. like through a forum. would not like another presentation unless they have a specific youth ask or angle.

Commissioner Santos: makes sense bc yc is trying to be environmentally conscious, but felt like I couldn't get a clearer answer as to why they work with the military.

Commissioner Quick: the thing about americorps of engineers, they are administratively part of the military, but they aren't part of the army in their function. they build things. i think it's worth acknowledging that the federal government has been the friendliest partner to the communities that they serve, in this sense specifically.

- h. Commissioner Santos: have capacity outside of EC to help pair & sort. To Arsema's point, it was e
- i. Commissioner Hylton: I can help too

- j. Staff: what's a feasible timeline?
- k. Comms: can have it done by next Wednesday & sharing it with all via email. Using time in EC as updates.
- l. Winter Celebration
 - i. like it as a winter celebration
 - ii. the 18th would work best bc of family plans

Commissioner Zhang: in comms, we talked about a new YC logo, looking to outsource an artist.

Commissioner Asfaw: self care package. Not mandatory winter celebration, where staff would coordinate calls. Also thought about a youth speaker series as a way to maintain our alumni presence.

E. Review of recent youth-related Board of Supervisors legislation

Presenter: Calvin Quick, Legislative Affairs Officer

Report: practically non existent bc its been 2 days since the last one. POA contract did pass, passed with no discussion 9-2, affirmatively in place. POA signed a letter with DHR that is not particularly new, but they did say that at any point in the future the city wants to lift re
