San Francisco Youth Commission
2011-2012 Bylaws

Section I – Name, Authorization & Purpose
(A) Name
The Youth Commission (hereinafter called the “Commission”) was established by a 1995 amendment to the Charter of the City and County of San Francisco (SEC IV.122-4.125).

(B) Authorization
The Charter provides the Commission with its authorization.

(C) Purpose
The Charter mandates that the Commission advise both the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor on issues relating to youth and children, and that the Commission be under the jurisdiction of the Board of Supervisors.

Section II – Duties, Activities & Time Commitment
(A) Duties
In order to fulfill its Charter-mandated purpose, the Youth Commission shall have the following duties:

1. Respond to legislation referred from the Board of Supervisors by providing the Board and the Mayor with written comments and recommendations on any such legislation referred, and by having individual commissioners speak at the meetings of the Board of Supervisors and its committees;

2. Adopt resolutions that comment, recommend, encourage or urge the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors of the City & County of San Francisco to take certain actions;

3. Regularly meet with the elected officials who appointed each commissioner (and/or their aides), so as to develop a relationship with these officials and better advise them on the issues affecting children and youth in San Francisco; and

4. Monitor, research, investigate and analyze the budgets and programs of the various departments of municipal government that affect the children and youth of San Francisco—and non-governmental (not-for-profit or otherwise) organizations that do the same—and propose a set of budget priorities (at minimum once a year) for policymakers to bear in mind when developing their budgets for the subsequent fiscal year.

(B) Activities
In order to fulfill the above 4 duties, the Commission shall regularly engage in the following two activities:

1. Identify the issues and unmet needs of San Francisco’s young people by surveying, questioning and developing relationships with young people themselves and adults who work with youth at recreation centers, social service organizations, after school programs, religious institutions, and any other kind of community-based organization that has youth members or serves youth in some way; and

2. Read, research, discuss and analyze statistics, reports, surveys, news articles and any other kind of data relating to young people in San Francisco, the United States, and beyond.

(C) Time Commitment
As per the Commission Application for the 2011-2012 Term, each Commissioner shall devote at minimum 12 hours per month to work on the Commission. Commission staff shall aide Commissioners in tracking and cataloguing their time and work on the Commission.

The time commitment requirement is greater for Commissioners elected by their colleagues to be officers, as per Section V, Officer Positions, below.

Section III – Membership & Meetings
(A) Membership
The membership of the Youth Commission shall be determined by SEC IV.123 (a) of the Charter:

“The Commission shall consist of seventeen (17) voting members, each of whom shall be between the ages of 12 and 23 years old at the time of appointment. Each member of the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor shall appoint one member to the Commission. The Mayor shall appoint five (5) members from underrepresented communities to ensure that the Commission represents the diversity of the City. Commission members shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing authorities.”

(B1) Regular Meetings & Mid Year Retreat
In order to conduct its business, the Commission shall regularly meet on the first and third Mondays of every month from September 2011 through June 2012, unless this falls on a holiday, in which case the Commission shall meet on the day following that holiday (i.e., the first or third Tuesday of that month). Regular meetings shall be in room 416 of City Hall unless otherwise noted on the Youth Commission website (www.sfgov.org yc).

Two exceptions are September 2011 (in which the Commission shall meet only on the third Monday of the month) and January 2012 (in which the Commission shall have a regular meeting on the first Monday of the month and then hold a special Mid Year Retreat on January 21 and 22 at a location To Be Determined).

For the purposes of attendance (see Section III, (C) Attendance, below) the Mid Year Retreat constitutes a regular meeting.

(B2) Special Meetings
Under the Brown Act, the Chairperson or a majority of the Commission have the power to call a special meeting of the Commission. In addition, the Executive Committee shall also have the power to call a special meeting of the Commission, if a minimum of three Executive Committee members vote to do so. For a special meeting, an agenda and 72 hours notice to the public must be provided, and all Meeting Procedures and Rules of Order below apply.

For the purposes of attendance (see Section III, (C) Attendance, below) all special meetings constitute a regular meeting.

(B3) Meeting Procedures and Rules of Order
The following rules hereby govern the Commission’s quorum and voting procedure at Youth Commission meetings:

(a) Quorum shall consist of a majority of the Commission’s 17 members (i.e., 9 commissioners).
(b) Quorum is needed to begin a Commission meeting and to pass any motion, unless otherwise noted.
(c) Abstentions are only permitted if there is a clear conflict of interest or if the particular motion refers to a matter a Commissioner would not be in position to be knowledgeable of (e.g., the approval of minutes from a meeting they did not attend).

In general, the Youth Commission shall conduct its meetings by employing the parliamentary procedure known as Rosenberg’s Rules of Order.

(B4) Meeting Agendas & Minutes
Any commissioner and all members of the public are encouraged to request that items be added to the agenda. The Executive Committee (see Section V) shall meet the Wednesday prior to each Youth Commission meeting in order to approve the agenda for each upcoming meeting. Ultimately, the Executive Committee has the authority to determine the Commission’s agenda.

Agendas shall be posted (on the Commission’s website, in front of room 416, and delivered to the San Francisco Public Library), no less than 72 hours before each meeting, while draft minutes shall be posted no more than 48 hours after the conclusion of the meeting in question.

Section IV – Attendance, Resignation & Leaves of Absence
(A) Attendance
The Commission’s attendance policy will be as follows. According to SEC IV.123 (c) of the Charter:

“Any member whom the Commission certifies to have missed three regularly scheduled meetings of the Commission in any six month period without prior authorization of the Commission shall be deemed to have resigned from the “Missing” a meeting means any of the following: being absent at a meeting; arriving any time after quorum is called; leaving any time before a meeting is adjourned; leaving the Commission meeting room during a meeting for more than 15 minutes at any time.

After each meeting that a Commissioner has missed, the Commission shall consider whether or not to authorize that absence (i.e., that previous meeting that a commissioner has missed). The procedure for authorizing an absence will be as follows: the offending Commissioner shall have 1 minute to explain the absence; there will be a time for questions from fellow commissioners; the Chairperson may entertain a motion to authorize the absence. The full Commission shall have the power to determine whether or not to authorize an absence. The Commission shall not have the power to authorize more than 3 absences per term. If an absence is not certified by the Commission, that absence hereby counts as a “missed” meeting.

(B) Resignation
After a Commissioner has been found to have missed 3 meetings, Commission staff shall prepare a written resignation form to be voted on by the full Commission at the next full Commission meeting. Only by supermajority vote shall the full Commission shall have the power to not certify such a Commissioner’s resignation.

(C) Leaves of Absence
A Commissioner may request a leave of absence, for any reason, of not more than 3 regular Commission meetings by submitting a written request to the Executive Committee by the Wednesday before a regular Commission meeting. The full Commission shall have the power to consider and grant a leave of absence.

Section V – Executive Committee Officer Positions
(A1) Names & General Purpose of Executive Officers
In order to aid in the conduct, efficiency, productivity and joy of the Commission’s work of fulfilling its Chartered purpose and duties, the Commission shall have one of each of the following elected officers, who together shall constitute the Executive Committee: Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Legislative Affairs Officer, Community Outreach Officer, Media and Public Relations Officer.

These officer positions are not purely celebratory, nor does being elected to them constitute any kind of victory-in-itself. Rather, the purpose of these positions is to aide in the work of the Commission—and not to advance the personal interests, positions and desires of the individuals elected to serve in these positions.

In other words: officers serve the entire Commission—and not the other way around.

(A2) Executive Officer Positions & Duties
The Chairperson shall:
   i. Facilitate Commission meetings;
   ii. Motivate and encourage the active and engaged participation of all commissioners (and members of the public) at meetings by being fair, encouraging, positive and resisting expressing her or his own opinion on an item until the end of discussion;
iii. Uphold and enforce these bylaws;
iv. Meet with Commission staff weekly to discuss Commission business;
v. Be the spokesperson for the Commission and, with the other officers, co-coordinate community outreach and educational material, commissioner testimony at legislative hearings, and media and public relations;
vi. Review the agenda for each Commission meeting;
vii. Schedule or cancel Commission meetings; and viii. Have a flexible schedule with free time during the day in order to conduct all of these duties.

The Vice Chairperson shall:

i. If the Chair is not present, facilitate Commission meetings;
ii. Facilitate Executive Committee meetings;
iii. Work closely with Chair to develop Commission goals;
iv. Oversee Commission committees and weekly check in with committee chairpersons to prepare updates for the full Commission;
v. Facilitate Executive Committee meetings and take special leadership on the development of the Commission’s budget priorities; and
vi. Review the agenda for Commission meetings with chair.

The Legislative Affairs Officer shall:

i. Serve as the point person on receiving, monitoring, and reporting pending legislation to the Commission;
ii. Ensure commissioners build relationships with Board of Supervisors and Mayor by meeting about upcoming legislation and ongoing Youth Commission policy work;
iii. Regularly check in with fellow commissioners to make sure commissioners are meeting with their appointing officers regarding pending legislation;
iv. Monitor Board of Supervisors’ agendas and hearing schedules for pending legislation;
v. Solicit interest and participation of Commissioners in giving testimony at public hearings; and
vi. Attend Board of Supervisors meetings, if possible.

The Community Outreach Officer shall:

i. Working with staff, develop an annual outreach plan for the Commission and present plan for approval to Commission and coordinate assignment of responsibility;
ii. Ensure commissioners are attending meetings with constituents and community members each month;
iii. Coordinate Commission forums and Commission presentations at schools, City departments, community agencies, and events; and
iv. Working with the Legislative Affairs Officer, coordinate commissioner and other youth testimony at legislative hearings.

The Media and Public Relations Officer shall:

i. Working with staff and fellow members of the Executive Committee, develop and present an annual Media and Public
Adopted by full Youth Commission

Relations plan for approval to Commission and coordinate assignment of responsibility;
ii. Working with staff, maintain a strategic, professional and active presence on the Youth Commission’s Facebook and Twitter accounts;
iii. Help develop and disseminate media messages (talking points, press releases, etc.) for each community, government or other event in which the Commission (as a full body or as a committee) is involved; and
iv. Working with entire Executive Committee, produce and upload a biweekly video/digital update on the Commission’s recent meeting and committee work.

(A2) Executive Officer Time Commitments, Accountability and Removal
Election to any of the above-named five officer positions requires a Commissioner to devote at minimum 2 more hours a week to work on the Youth Commission on top of the 12 hour per month commitment required of all other commissioners, except for the position of Chairperson, who shall be required to devote at minimum 3 more hours.

In order for Executive Officers to be accountable to the entire Commission, the Executive Committee shall prepare a brief report of its activities to be shared at each regular Commission meeting. Commissioners are encouraged to ask questions and refer to these Bylaws in order to keep officers accountable for their work.

Any Executive Officer may be removed from any position at any full Commission meeting by a supermajority vote of the Commission.

No Commissioner shall serve in more than one Executive Officer position at a time.

(A3) Executive Officer Elections
The election of Executive Officers shall be conducted at the first Commission meeting of the term as follows: Commissioners may nominate themselves or another Commissioner for any Officer Position, except for Chairperson and Vice Chairperson, for which a Commissioner cannot nominate oneself. Commissioners nominated by others are hereby allowed to decline nominations.

After all the nominations are made, elections for the Executive Officer positions shall occur in the following order: Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Legislative Affairs Officer, Community Outreach Officer, Media and Public Relations Officer.

Before the voting on each Executive Officer position, each Commissioner who has accepted a nomination of that position will have 60 seconds to share a statement regarding why she would like to be elected to said position.

Then, by roll call vote, officers shall be elected. If no candidate attains nine votes, the candidate with the lowest number of votes shall be eliminated and there will be another roll call vote. This process shall repeat itself until each officer position is filled.

Section VI – Standing Issue-Based Committees
(A1) Names & General Purpose of Committees
Committees exist in order to aid in the conduct, efficiency, productivity and joy of the Commission’s work of fulfilling its Chartered purpose and duties. The Commission shall have an Executive Committee and the following standing committees: Executive Committee; School District Curriculum & Class-Time Issues Committee; Student Support, Health, and Facilities Committee; Youth Transportation, Recreation and Land Use Committee; Youth Employment Committee; Youth Immigration Committee; Youth Justice Issues Committee

(A2) Responsibility, Authority and Meeting Time of Executive Committee
The Executive Committee has the following responsibilities and authorities: approving Commission meeting agendas on the Wednesday before each regularly scheduled Monday full Commission meeting; preparing commissioners for discussion of legislation referred from the Board of Supervisors; regularly discussing and proposing solutions for issues raised by other committee members or individual commissioners; and Commission legislation.

(A3) Responsibility, Authority, Membership, Chairpersonship and Meeting Time of Committees (non-Executive)
The Commission’s other committees (i.e., non-Executive) are responsible for meeting with City and school district officials, community members, organizations and advocates, for conducting research and investigation, and for developing legislation and policy under their general subject matter jurisdiction.

It is officially encouraged that Commission committees consist of Student Advisory Council (SAC) members and young people (ages 12-23 especially) who are not Commissioners or SAC members.

Commission committees (non-Executive) shall operate according to Section III—Membership and Meetings, (B3) Meeting Procedures and Rules of Order, of these Bylaws. These committees shall create their own regular meeting date and time.

Committees shall elect a Chairperson at their first official meeting, by any procedure the committee members deem appropriate. The Chairperson must be a Commissioner, expect for the School District Curriculum and Class-Time Issues Committee and the Student Support and Activities Committee, for which there shall be 2 Chairpersons, of which one will be a Commissioner and the other a member of the Student Advisory Council.

(A4) Special Supercommittees and Youth Commission Participation in Outside Bodies: Youth Advisory Council; Youth Employment Committee and the City’s Youth Council; Justice System Issues Committee and the City’s Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council. The Commission’s Executive Committee, by simple majority vote, shall designate what 3 Youth Commissioners will serve on the City’s Youth Advisory Council, which is a kind of “supercommittee” of various youth governance organizations in San Francisco, including the Commission, the Student Advisory Council, the Transitional Age Youth Initiative—San Francisco, the Juvenile Advisory Council and the Department of Children, Youth and their Families’ Youth Empowerment Fund Advisory Board. (The 3 Commissioners serving as the Commission’s representatives on the Youth Advisory Council may not simultaneously serve as Executive Officers or as the elected officers of any other Commission Committee.)
The elected Chairperson of the Youth Employment Committee shall represent the Commission on the City’s Youth Council, which is a mandated subcommittee of the City’s Workforce Investment San Francisco board. The Youth Employment Committee Chairperson shall represent the Commission on the Youth Council based on the positions and views of the Commission’s Youth Employment Committee, and not her own personal positions.

The elected Chairperson of the Justice System Issues Committee shall represent the Commission on the City’s Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council, which is a mandated body of the City’s public safety and social services departments. The Chairperson of the Justice System Issues Committee shall represent the Commission on the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council based on the positions and views of the Commission’s Justice System Issues Committee, and not her own personal positions.

Section VII – Commission Core Values
The work of the entire Commission is guided by belief in the following core values:

- Belief in working in a manner that is respectful, inclusive and honest;
- Belief in working towards a better world for all young people;
- Belief in working towards a world that supports the safety, well being and positive enrichment of all young people;
- Belief in working towards a world where safety and justice, adequate housing, sufficient health care, and superlative education are the right of all young people; and
- Belief in working towards a world that is all inclusive, diverse, loving, and kind.

The Commission believes that young people have the knowledge and power necessary to create the world described above, and believes that our role as the voice of young people in San Francisco is to respectfully represent our communities to the best of our abilities.

Section VIII – Staff Role, Staff Mission, Vision and Accountability & Office Resources

(A) Staff Role
Commission staff is responsible for assisting the Commissioners in fulfilling their Chartered duties and, in particular, to assure the day-to-day functioning of the Commission. Staff shall also enforce these Bylaws and other adopted Youth Commission policies and procedures.

Staff shall support the Commission in the following ways: training Commissioners in the structure of City government, the legislative and budget processes, public speaking and public policy, diversity and difference, and other topics of interest as they arise; assisting in the drafting of legislation and other Commission documents; speaking with or on behalf of the Commission at community and government events; assuring compliance with any/all local, state and federal public meeting and record retention policies; and facilitating the Commission’s (and individual Commissioners’) relationships with City and school district officials, community organizations and advocates, and other young people. Staff shall, in general, work 40 hour week.

(B) Staff Mission, Vision & Accountability
Commission staff believes:
- That the Youth Commission must positively impact the communities of San Francisco by engaging, enabling, and bringing to the forefront of legislative and policy debates the compelling voices of San Francisco’s youth;
- In the presence and active roles of young people in government—locally and beyond; and
- In being truthful and respectful to ourselves, our commissioners, our colleagues in the community and government, and the youth in the many communities of San Francisco.

The work of Commission staff is guided by a vision in which staff work to:
- Create and maintain a safe, productive, upbeat and fun space at the Commission in which respectful, supportive, open, and honest relationships amongst Commissioners and Staff can develop, change and thrive;
- Develop the leadership abilities; communication skills; knowledge of the fundamentals of City government, the budget, legislative processes and parliamentary procedure; and socio-emotional intelligence of our Commissioners and other young people, in order to ensure active, effective youth participation in San Francisco City government;
- Collaborate with community members, organizations, and schools; and
- Honestly share our insight, history, and vision in order to provide the best possible experience for all Commissioners, while maintaining a commitment to our Commissioners that the institution truly be—with respect to its policy direction and culture—a youth led institution.

Commission staff work to be accountable to Commissioners by:
- Being forthright, communicative, honest and direct with Commissioners about our work as staff, including: sharing and explaining what we do during the work day; introducing Commissioners to as many policies, procedures, City departments, organizations, books and individuals as Commissioners would like;
- Being direct and communicative with Commissioners about our expectations for their work—including its relative quality, quantity and positive spirit; and
- Seeking feedback (both formally and informally) from Commissioners regarding their expectations and opinions of staff work.

(C) Office Resources
The Youth Commission Office, room 345 of City Hall, shall be open, in general, from 9am to 6pm on regular City & County of San Francisco work days. Staff reserves the right to close the office for 1 hour at lunch, and to modify this schedule based on other hours worked by staff.

The three non-staff computers and three non-staff phones, along with mailboxes for each of the Commission’s 17 members, are available for Commissioners to use only for their official work as Commissioners.

For purposes of safety and oversight, Commissioners may only use the office if a staff person is present.

Section IX—Legislation
(A1) Types of Legislation & Tracking System
Adopted by full Youth Commission
August 31, 2011

The Commission shall have three types of legislation: Reports to the Board and Mayor; Action Legislation; and Resolutions of Commendation.

The Commission shall maintain the following format for tracking its legislative work: each document will begin with a shorthand for the current 2011-2012 fiscal year (i.e., “1112”), followed by a dash (i.e., “—”)(i.e., “—”) followed by the number that the document is in the line of introduced legislation for that fiscal year (e.g., if the document is the fourth piece of legislation introduced this year, then “4) followed by another dash (i.e., “—“) and the shortened title of a the legislation.

(A2) Reports to the Board and Mayor (RBM)
Reports to the Board and Mayor are official responses to pieces of referred legislation from the Board of Supervisors under Charter SEC IV.124. The substance and content of these Reports are developed through conversation, on the public record, at Commission meetings where the Commission takes a position on a piece of referred legislation. The Legislative Affairs Officer and staff are invested with the authority to type up these Reports and the responsibility to deliver them to the Clerk of the Board, the Board of Supervisors and the Mayor’s Office.

Except for extraordinary situations, Reports to the Board shall only be considered once by the Commission before being adopted.

(A3) Action Legislation (AL)
Action Legislation consists of written communications that suggest a change in policy or administrative practice, or formally support a campaign, organization or event. This can take the form of resolutions, endorsements, policy reports or statements. If there is no physical legislation—such as voting to support an event—a copy of the prevailing motion will double as resolutions and placed into the legislative record.

Resolutions shall normally be considered twice by the full Commission before being adopted. In special situations, the Commission may by simple majority vote motion to suspend this rule and take action on a resolution on its first reading.

(A4) Resolutions of Commendation (RC)
Resolutions of Commendation officially recognize the work of an individual, organization or an organized effort.

Except for extraordinary situations, Resolutions of Commendation shall only be considered once by the Commission before being adopted.

Section X – Amendments to Bylaws
The Commission can create, repeal, amend, or reword bylaws with a majority vote of the full Commission. Changes made to the bylaws must be placed on the agenda and be noticed according to all applicable public meeting laws.
