5 WHEREAS, The mission of the University of California begins with, “The distinctive mission of 6 the University is to serve society as a center of higher learning, providing long-term societal benefits
7 through transmitting advanced knowledge, discovering new knowledge, and functioning as an active 8 working repository of organized knowledge”;¹ and

9 WHEREAS, The mission of the California State University includes, “To advance and extend 10 knowledge, learning, and culture, especially throughout California, to provide opportunities for 11 individuals to develop intellectually, personally, and professionally, to prepare significant numbers of 12 educated, responsible people to contribute to California’s schools, economy, culture, and future, to 13 encourage and provide access to an excellent education to all who are prepared for and wish to 14 participate in collegiate study”;² and

15 WHEREAS, At the center of both public 4 year university systems in California is broad access 16 to education and the advancement of knowledge; and

17 WHEREAS, Every step must be taken to ensure both quality and affordability in order for public 18 education to each of these goals; and

19 WHEREAS, In times of budget crisis, public universities should prioritize keeping tuition and 20 fees affordable for students; and
