Resolution Commending Youth Teonna Frierson, Kiana Frierson, Eugene Holbert, Sabrina McFarland and Richard Amaechi, for their outstanding efforts and contributions they have offered to support their community in San Francisco

WHEREAS, these young people serve as role models and examples of how youth should support their community and each other; and

WHEREAS, Teonna and Kiana have donated their time, energy, and unfailing cheerfulness to the River of Life Church’s Sunday Morning Breakfast program; and

WHEREAS, Teonna and Kiana both serve breakfast every Sunday with respect and diligent care, and the guests take away not only a meal but also a measure of Teonna’s and Kiana’s warmth and positivity; and

WHEREAS, through all the hard work and tedious behind the scenes management, these young ladies never complain and are always ready to contribute both their good nature and their hard work. The success of the Breakfast Program owes much to Kiana and Teonna, and the community wishes to honor and express its gratitude for their service; and

WHEREAS, as an intern at the Hawkins Youth Clinic, Eugene showed his commitment to service, expressed his personality and brought humor, sensitivity, and positive support to all around him; and

WHEREAS, his good wishes for his friends and co-volunteers enlivened the program and brought joy into others’ lives and his openness to new experiences and his engaged attitude made him a role model to others, and enabled the success of his peers; and

WHEREAS, Sabrina served as a youth intern for the Hawkins Youth Clinic, and in bringing her own personality and gifts she inspired others; and

WHEREAS, as a focused, directed, and positive person, she showed others that concerted action could actually bring about the bright future that we all dream of creating; and

WHEREAS, her dreams are not just dreams but are goals to reach, and her go-getter mentality gave hope to those around her that these goals are achievable; and

WHEREAS, Richard began working at Britton Court in 2013 as a MYEEP worker, and since then he has continued his service to the center by volunteering in other capacities; and

WHEREAS, his ongoing commitment to this volunteer work is especially commendable given his considerable accomplishments in other arenas; and

WHEREAS, as a hard-working student at Lincoln High School, Richard is an award-winning high jumper and also serves as President of the Black Student Union; and

WHEREAS, he shares his accomplishments with humility and respect in his volunteer work at Britton Court, serving as an outstanding role model to the children who come to the after-school program and motivates others to work harder and contributes his own hard work for the betterment of his entire community, lifting as he climbs; therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the 2015-2016 San Francisco Youth Commission does hereby honor Teonna Frierson, Kiana Frierson, Eugene Holbert, Sabrina McFarland, and Richard Amaechi for their outstanding efforts in volunteering and full commitment to their community; and be it finally

RESOLVED, that the 2015-2016 San Francisco Youth Commission wishes that these young people continue to excel in all aspects of their lives and continue to give back to their community.

Chair, Luis Avalos-Nunez
Adopted on October 19, 2015
2015-2016 San Francisco Youth Commission